January 8, 2019

Greetings to All NRC and Gold Members

“It’s a new dawn and it’s a new day” and it’s 2019. I hope everyone had a Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year.

I have to congratulate everyone on helping to make the Christmas Dance a success. Sure we were a little crowded but that just speaks to the interest members have in attending. I especially have to thank my team for planning, arranging and overseeing the dance. The old saying it takes a village is certainly true in this case. The dance is no one person’s responsibility but requires the collaboration of the 2nd VP Don VunCannon, Dance Reservations Director Cherie Perine and PM Refreshment Director, in this case, Steve and Linda Andresen, along with Treasurer Fred Pieciewicz. In addition to Sherri Vivone and Sue Campbell, part of the decorating committee and helping with raffles. Oh, and Raffle Guy Bob Bode for a successful raffle.

I also want to thank our NRC member Susan Oliver and her pre-dinner ensemble for a wonderful performance. It helped set a festive tone for the dance.

As always, please feel free to forward any ideas you have to me at nrcpres@gmail.com.

Kathy Bode
President Board 103

General Membership Meeting December 4, 2018

Kathy Bode, President of Board 103 called the meeting to order at 9:18 a.m. The meeting began with the Pledge of Allegiance. Ms. Bode thanked the Committee for AM refreshments. The Weather Report was given.

A reminder was given for individual groups to donate gift baskets for the February Silent Auction.

A request has been given for a new interest group, so before a folder can be made, anyone interested in joining a quilting group please see the sign-up sheet at the end of the meeting.

The new member table was welcomed and recognized, and reminded to stay after the meeting for a photo.

The president welcomed our guest speakers Barbara Walters, of the Lee County Blood Bank, Kim Munchmore of Education First, Shelley Lachman of Neighborhood Watch, and Marie Davis of AARP Tax Services.

The December Dance has been sold out, and has a waiting list, so please notify Cherie Perine if you are unable to attend. We will refund your money and allow another couple to take your spot. We have several groups with similar names. When making reservations for the Dance please use your full group name.

The newest group met for their social but has not chosen a name. The December new member social date is changed due to Christmas and will occur on 12/14.

Again due to the holidays the NRC General meeting will occur on January 8th not January 1st.

Secretary's Report: Reviewed and Accepted

Treasurer's Report: Presented to members

Activities: Presented up and coming events for December, Cocktails on the Cape at Hooked Island Grill and the Distillery Tour are both free but you must sign up for both. If you are unable to attend you must call to cancel. The Distillery will charge a fee for no shows.

Ladies Luncheon this month is at Point 57. Please remember that you must now pre-pay for this event.

December Dance Is sold out. Doors open at 5:30pm, dinner at 6:00pm and dancing starts at 6:30pm.

Speakers

- Barbara Walters reminded us of Decembers Blood Drive. It will be Wednesday 12/19 from 7:30 until 1:30pm. The purple blood mobile will be located in the parking lot near the tennis courts. All blood donated stays in Lee County.
- Shelley Lachman from Neighborhood Watch discussed their program to keep neighbors safe. Sponsored by the CCPD, neighbors take a short course and band together to be the eyes and ears of the neighborhood to create awareness, fight crime and bring safety to their environments. You may find more information at <http://www.capecoralwatch.com>
- Kim Munchmore represented Education First, a short term student exchange program. They are looking for homes to host students and faculty from China for a 2 week period. Students are English speaking and will attend school and program all day and will be home evenings and weekends. January 22,-February 1, 2018. Students are 12-16 years old.
- Marie Davis From AARP discussed free Tax Prep for seniors over 50. No AARP membership is required. Only uncomplicated tax returns are done. These are done at local libraries. Locations and sign up appointments can be found online at the AARP website. Volunteer training is offered for two positions, tax counselor and client facilitator. After training a minimum of 4 hours a week is required.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:30am followed by the raffle.

Guest Speakers for Upcoming Membership Meetings

January 8 - Cape Coral Friends of Wildlife

February 5 - Chris Schroeder, his personal experience of what life was like before Cape Coral was a city.

NRC FAQ

- What are some of the more common events that the New Resident Club hosts? Some of the main events are the monthly Cocktails on the Cape, held at various locations within town, Sunset on the Beach, held at the Yacht Club beach during October through April, the New Resident Club Dance held the 4th Saturday of the month, bocce, bowling, trivia nights, bingo, wine tastings and golf, to mention a few. The club is always open to new suggestions on activities and members are encouraged to organize events they are interested in.
- What time are the majority of the events held? To insure consistency, the monthly Member meeting is held on the first Tuesday of the month at 9:15 a.m. in the Yacht Club building. (For January 2019, the meeting will be on the 8th) There are the monthly Men's breakfast (held in the morning) and the Ladies Luncheon (held during the noon lunch time), but the majority of events start between 5:00 and 6:00 p.m. in the evening and are held on various nights during the week or weekend.

To all NRC members for making this years Toys for Tots a huge success. Below are pictures of a portion of the toys we collected through the New Resident Club for SeaTow's Toys for Tots and the Cape Coral Police, Fill the Boat fundraiser.

NRC member Patrick Wood deserves a big thanks for being the lead organizer of the program. A special thanks to Pam Beck and the Laughing Gulls, for being our Secret Santas. Plus Bob Robert Tkach and Corvettes on the Gulf for the generous donation that pushed us over the top. The count of toys collected was over 500.

A group of Parrot Ladies continue to work out and go to lunch. The guys are playing golf. The girls did crafts for a cause. The angel cards for an elementary school.

The group had a Christmas Dinner at Arianis Restaurant.

A group of Parrot Ladies went out and celebrated, Susan's birthday.

More to come next month as 2 Parrot Families are waiting for the arrival of Grandchildren soon.

September was Turtleversary month. We had a great turn out for our 2 year anniversary at Hana's Sushi and Steakhouse. 24 of our members were there.

Ladies continue to enjoy ladies luncheon and gents the men's breakfast. Bocci will be starting again real soon. We continue to enjoy monthly birthday bash and have had a picnic day in Fort Myers and Christmas light cruise in Punta Gorda. Always fun to get together.

We are currently looking for one of our members to take over as president. Anyone I tested in coordinating activities and keeping the communication going?

Happy Birthday to Bob Bode & Melody Woodsum on 1/2/19, Denise Atkinson 1/8/19 & Tony Marucco on 1/10. Celebrate your day with family, friends fun and dinner out somewhere!!!

On 12/7 Pamela had a Bunco Christmas Party at her lovely home for all of the regular players who brought food & drinks. We invited our subs to thank them & to eat, drink & be merry. We passed gifts as Laura read a Christmas Story til she hollered STOP!!!

Laura had our GetGoes Girls luncheon at Rum Runners on 12/10. Myrt collected canned goods from us & they went to the Cape Coral Caring Center.

Mary&Bill had potluck & White Elephant Gift Exchange on 12/11. Old, new, funny or whatever gifts were picked & if you had #25 which Pamela did, she could steal anyone's gift at the end.

On the 12th, Denise had a Cookie Exchange instead of a book club meeting. We played games, ate & had fun.

12/13/18 was NRC's luncheon at Point 57. Pamela went to assist Sherri set up for 66 ladies.

On Dec. 14th the NRC's Christmas Dance was held and the GetGoes had 2 full tables. Lots of dancing, lots of laughter, and lots of fun, fun, fun. A few GetGoes went to the C.C. Boat Parade on 12/15 at Four Freedoms Park.

So, here's to another year of being GetGoes who love the NRC for getting us together back in November 2016. We LOVE the NRC & will support all their events forever.

Get Going GetGoes & have a SUPER 2019 NEW YEAR!!!

Sunsetters
December 2016

Reporter - Judy Lofton

Happy New Year! As the Sunsetters reflect back on 2018, we are thankful and blessed to have made so many good friends over the past two years together.

December was a busy month with all the exciting events NRC and Cape Coral had to offer:

- December 1st several Sunsetters met at the Sidney & Berne Davis Art Center to listen to songs from the Beatles with the No-where Band.

- December 5th was a chilly evening, but we still enjoyed getting together at the Yacht Club Beach for the Sunset Celebration.

- December 8th we all went to Mike & Nancy's for the best potluck ever! Mike & Bob roasted a pig with potatoes and vegetables.

NRC Group News

Everything tasted wonderful!

- December 11th the girls attended an art show at Kathy's to view some beautiful handiwork of our talented members. Later that evening we met for cocktails at Hooked Island.

- December 14th we had 3 tables full of Sunsetters rockin' and groovin' at the December NRC dance.

- December 15th several Sunsetters attended the List Distillery tour. Whew! Those samples were potent! Later we viewed the Cape Coral Boat Parade by land or water.

Happy birthday this month to Doris Mitchell and Michel Paroz.

The Sunsetters wish all the NRC members a healthy and prosperous 2019.

Julie and Pete had a 6th birthday party for their dog, Chanel with many PB's joining in to help celebrate. Cherie missed it :(because she was in Texas visiting friends :-).

Tish and Tony were here but went back to Meeeechigan for the holidays and will be back in January. Wendy and Dan came back!

There were 27 PB's and guests and 8 Bert's Barnyard peeps at the December dance- it was awesome! The band was GREAT and most of the attendees stayed until the very end.

The PB's that weren't able to get tickets before the dance filled up went out to dinner and played cards, so they had fun, too! We are hoping EVERYONE goes to the January dance.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Rock The Boat March/April 2017

Reporter - Scott Cruzen

Several Rock-the-Boaters have made the journey back up north to visit friends and family prior to the crazy holiday rush.

Even though it's been cooler than usual here in the Cape, those of us who went north are all glad to be back where the high temperatures have two digits.

Boating is still a favorite pastime and we all get together for cocktails, dinners, parties, and random acts of foolishness as often as possible.

One couple in our group is in the throes of building a new home in the Cape and the rest of us are doing our best to help them retain their sanity as they go through the process once again.

Seas the Days September/October 2017

Reporter - Nancy Finnegan

The Seas the Days members have been busy with holiday cheer and fun.

Peggy and Howie hosted the December potluck. Their house was decorated beautifully and everyone had a great time.

Sue and Jeff were the only ones to attend the Cocktails on the Cape this month. Hopefully we will have more members join us next time.

Anna, Joe, Peggy and Howie attended the dance and had a very fun evening.

Coastal Boomers January 2018

Reporter - Barb DiFazio

NRC Group News

The Coastal Boomers enjoyed a great holiday get together in December sporting their ugly sweaters and unusual holiday accessories.

The January potluck will be at the home of Karen and Alex Cole on Thursday, January 24 at 5:30 pm. Further details are in your Punchbowl invitation. Please respond, and be sure to let them know what you will be bringing if you plan to attend.

Be sure to review your invitation for items needed for the Coastal Boomers February silent auction basket and bring your donations with you to the potluck. The basket has a 'beach' theme. Thank you to Barbara Wood for putting the basket together. If you have questions or would like to help, you may call Barb at 609-338-9147. Deadline for items is February 1.

Wishing you all the best in 2019!

Five O'Clock Somewhere
August/September/October 2018

Reporter - Charley Valera

The "Five O'Clock Somewhere" group now has a very cool logo. We had a great turnout for our potluck December 19th at Peter and Priscilla Lareau's beautiful home. Next potluck is on Jan. 22nd at Bob & Deb Langley's house.

Two of our new members shared a boat club membership, now two more families can enjoy another reason to live here in paradise.

Charley Valera recently had a book signing held at the SW Florida Military Museum and Library. Congrats!

Seems many are finding their way into our new lives. We all seem to have made many friendships we can share. Happy New Year!

S Cape Ease
November 2018

Reporter - Laurie Brown

S Cape Ease is a new group since November! We have a wonderful group and are having a lot of fun.

The first potluck was held December 1st. Fun and laughter should have been the theme!

David Vnenchak was elected our president. Laurie Brown will be the reporter.

Activities this month have been the NRC meeting, Christmas dinner and Dance, ladies luncheon, cocktails near Matlacha, dinner out, and a pot luck to name a few!

Thank you Nancy Castino for developing and making our logo for our table. It's been a busy month with our newly found friends and Christmas.

The January pot luck will be at David Vnenchak and Robin Olsons. Be looking for the email invite! Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all!

We will play Monday, Tuesday and Thursday mornings at 8:30am at Camelot. Please keep in mind that this is an NRC event. These are scheduled times for those who want to play together, however, there is no guarantee that people will show up, especially early in the season.

There are no lessons and people are at different levels of play. I personally learned from watching YouTube videos.

If any questions, please contact Sue Jackson.

Kayak Group

Reporter - Robert Pruiett

Here are a couple of places to rent Kayaks that people in the group have used.

- Carmen's Kayaks - 239-333-7332. Carmen will drop it off and pick it up at the site. Carmen said that she drops them off at several places and even does guided tours.
- Gulf Coast Kayak on Pine Island Rd. They have done some events for NRC in the past.

If you want to have your information added to the mailing list, contact Robert Pruiett by email at: rjpruiett.nrc@gmail.com.

As always, I am just the keeper of the list. If you want to go out kayaking, use this list and invite people. We all love to kayak so just ask.

Book Club

Reporter - Kathy Fannon

The NRC Book Club had a lively discussion in December - such a thoughtful group of people. Our next meeting is on the 3rd Friday of the month which is January 18 at 9:00am, as all future meetings will be . . . at least until further notice!

It will be held at:

4280 SE 20th Pl, Cape Coral, FL 33904

We meet in the Social Room on the bottom floor of the building.

The book we're reading is THE RENT COLLECTOR by Cameron Wright.

All are welcome, even if you haven't had time to read the book.

Welcoming Newcomers for over 50 Years

Welcome to Cape Coral, your own Slice of Paradise!

In 1967 the New Resident Club of Cape Coral was established by Helen Peck as a way to give newcomers the opportunity to exchange ideas and form friendships. The tradition continues today in this, our 52nd year.

Are you a longtime resident of Cape Coral? If so, you can still join NRC. Every September is "open enrollment" for all residents, regardless of length of residency.

The three-year membership fee is $60 per person and $120 per couple.

Everyone joining will be members of a group made up of those starting that month. Commonly, the groups number two to three dozen. Each group holds its own activities and participates in events held by the NRC as a whole.

After three years, you will become a non-voting lifetime member of NRC. You are strongly encouraged to continue attending NRC meetings, dances, activities and participating in your group potlucks.

The NRC holds a general meeting at 9:15 a.m. on the first Tuesday of each month at the Yacht Club

Please join us at the general meeting for coffee and a light snack and get acquainted with the most dynamic social group in the Cape.

We welcome you!
