Knotty Nauticals
Reporter: Evelyn Ferguson

The Knotty Nauticals have had a lot going on this month! As the long, cold, icy, snowy winter months drag on elsewhere, the Corey's the Girard's and the Ferguson's have all welcomed close friends and family to Paradise. The most exciting welcome of all, however, was Tundi's new found sister, Lynda and her husband Jack. Around town, several new faces have been spotted at Bocce. Steve Corey and Mike and Connie Ehret have quickly become experts at the game. The Knotty ladies have picked up a new bowlers. Joyce W has improved her score enough to push Evelyn into dead last score-wise. Oh well! It's a social thing isn't it? Out of town escapades include the Fleming's in Clearwater for "spring training" with their New Jersey friends and the Dugener's in Michigan for six days of work responsibilities. In addition, what would motivate a bunch of retired women to be up, dressed and on the road to Tampa by 7A.M? SHOPPING

Exciting news of the month include: the Ehret's grandson, Jordan, making the swim team. Yes! Grandma is proud! Knotty Nautical Chuck, has adapted well to his new condo, and is now becoming a golfer.

Birthday Congratulations to Steve F, Joyce G and Cathy C. Rumor has it Cathy will be celebrating in South Beach.

The Bouncing Back Quick award goes to Phil Girard for his speedy recovery from knee surgery.

Under the Weather wishes to Gurdrun and Charlie. Nothing but positive thoughts go out to them. Hugh Thanks to Joyce and Danny for hosting a Brunch this month and to Connie for continuing to arrange Knotty Night Out. We haven't been to the same restaurant twice in almost two years. Finally, to Diana for filling in at the Ladies Luncheon so Jeanne could go on vacation. What a great bunch of people those Knotty's are!

SURFSIDE SOCIALITES
Reporter: Cheryl Rhine

As the end of March rolled to a close, the weather in Florida started to look more recognizable for the coming of spring. What better way to realize and embrace SW Florida sunshine than the company of a Sunday Springtime brunch at the Shunk's household. Judi and Rusty outdid themselves by providing all the spectacular brunch entrees and accompaniments in the beautiful newly remodeled kitchen. Baked French toast, breakfast burritos, baked ham and decadent chocolate indulgence pie among many other scrumptious brunch entrees and desserts. I exploited my appetite with one too many delectable, but not to say I regretted doing so despite the bloating and fullness too much food brought. Yummy! It was a delicious extravaganza. Thanks a million! Several of us gathered at Rum Runners on March 12th for our monthly social. We exploited the $5.00 lite bites at Rum Runners as we paired them up to make an enjoyable 2 course meal to enhance our tropical beverages. Once we settled from a festive St. Patty's day, the "Lady Socialites" joined together for a waterside brunch at Micelli's in Matlacha. It was a beautiful day out on the deck with good friends and good food. Many thanks to Maureen Connor for putting this day together.

Pirates started the month off with a group attending the "Taste of the Cape" at Four Freedom Park. Food was good, music great. Our March Potluck was held at the beautiful home of Sandro and Liz Grima, thank you for a fun filled night. In mid March pirates got together for Drinks and Dinner at the Tennessee Still Co. in Cape Coral. All ways fun to try new restaurants. Pirates attended the "Shrimp Festival" at Ft Myers Beach. More fun to come in April.

Tropical Transplants

Happy St. Patrick's Day! I'm sure that our friends up north are "green with envy" that we are here and they are not. As usual the Transplants have kept ourselves busy with many fun activities. On February 27th, some of our group went to Paint Escape in Cape Coral and painted some lovely ceramic pieces ~ stepping stones, plates, candle holders, cups, and even an alligator. It was great get together! On March 4, several of us attended a lunch and fashion show at Santhino's in Punta Gorda. Shopping afterwards was very successful. Anthony's on the Boulevard was the setting for our March Ladies Luncheon ~ a good time was had by all! On the 26th, baseball aficionados went to a spring training game ~ Rays vs Yankees. (Go Yankees!) On the 28th, our very own Janet Anderson taught another card making class at Inspiration Studio in Punta Gorda. What a fun time creating cards! We are hoping to plan a wine tasting trip in April as well as some other get togethers. What a wonderful group we have!

We had one day of rain last month and that was the day Andree & Pierre planned the kayak trip. Our Pot Luck last month was hosted by Linda in her new home with a Mardi Gras theme. Karolyn had green, purple and gold hair; she looked smashing as usual. Ray & Nancy brought a ton of beads from a Cape Coral garage sale. The hurricane drinks were interesting - right Lana? Estelle & Fernand brought a French Canadian friend. Ray & Wally are getting lot of great fishing & boating tips from the Men's Breakfast. Ron & Ruth had a four day boat trip with their boat club. They said the Tween Water area was nice. Three of us went to the dinner dance. That was fun & good exercise. We are fortunate three SOB's will be on Board 96. Ray, Shirley & Linda will try hard to make our group proud. After our snow birds fly away (boo hoo) Ray & Gabe from Tropical Transplants thought it would be nice to blend our groups since our numbers will be few. Hard as we have tried we have not convenience our northern brothers & sisters to stay year around. We have all had tons of guests this year. While it has been fun we are a little exhausted. Wally & Shirley are off in Utah with ski groups. Dorothy & Bill are busy helping Dorothy's mother due to ill health. we sure do miss them. Estelle & Andree are so busy with photographing the beautiful SW Florida birds. They start before 7 AM, no wonder the photos are award winning. Let's not forget the Cardboard Boat Race in April.

PARADISE FOUND

The February Ladies Lunch was attended by some very lucky ladies (and me!) Lynn won the raffle twice, Patti won the raffle twice, Sherri won the raffle, and I had fun eating at Carraba's with them! Sherry and Tom graciously hosted our February Pot Luck Party. Bonnie & Mac, Linda & Jim, Wally Powell, Wally & Shirley, Page & Bruce all were there. Thank you for the yummy homemade lasagna and killer peanut butter pie! The Millers also play trivia with Bruce and Page, Shirley and Wally. Ginny and Bob joined us once as well, and Tom, Bruce and Page work on the Cardboard Boat. It's going to be AMAZING!

Ginny and Bob have been back and forth this winter when his sister passed away. We are all sorry for your loss. They joined us at the March meeting along with Lynn F. and Peter H. (welcome back!) Nita and Fred went to Charlotte and came home with the flu. Doing better now, they've gotten together with us, Bobbie and Mac, Ginny and Bob. Bruce and Page get together with graduates, Current members Newbies alike. I will truly miss being the 1st VP! We've seen Cathy H, attended the dance with Wally and Shirley. When we can, we play bocce ball. We've had lots of out of town guests. Lone and Chuck have a new granddaughter! We love seeing pictures of her, and them playing tourists in Florida. Michelle, we miss you and hope to see you at Cocktails on the Cape!

Paradise Pelicans
Reporter: Virena McElheney

There are so many things going on in the Cape that it's hard to keep up. March 1st about 20 of the Pelicans enjoyed an evening out at Four Freedom Park for the "Taste of the Cape" with the Gulf Coast Symphony Orchestra. Great evening with lots of food and music, watching the beautiful sunset. With so many of the Pelicans having boats in their back yard on a canal there has been lots of boat outings. Large groups of Pelicans have been spotted in and on the warm waters of the river and gulf.

What would March be without St. Patrick's Day celebration? So as usual the Pelicans were out in full colors. After much celebrating, everyone cooled off with a splash in the pool.

CAPE ESCAPES
Reporter: Pati Smith

March came in beautiful with a hint of rain for the Taste of the Cape at Four Freedom Park. The Kenney's and Brown's found each other, tasted the foods and enjoyed the Sunset Concert by the Gulf Coast Symphony. Then the first Tuesday we attended the NRC's general meeting. We had 12 in attendance (Theresa Beringer & John MacLean, Andrea Casti, Leonard Brown, Mary Chapman, Janet Dayton, Diane & Herb Kenney, Carl Limmer & Dolores Walters and Nettie & John Warner. Of our 12, we had two winners of door prizes. Wednesday Dolores & Carl and Herb & Diane also went to the Sunset Celebration at the Yacht Club beach. Food, crafts, music and a gorgeous sunset! We had our own Cape Escape Ladies Lunch at the 3 Fisherman Seafood Restaurant in North Ft Myers. Lynn Kaden was our hostess and organizer. Brenda Serbonich, Linda Fairley, Teresa Beringer, Karen Rozum and Diane Kenney were there. We had as our special guests two dolphins putting on a show just a few feet away. I guess they received our email invitation. We also made an appearance at the NRC's Ladies Lunch at Anthony's on the Boulevard, Cocktails on the Cape, Game Night and Bocce Ball. A group got together to go to hear Nu-Blu (bluegrass and country music) at Foulds Theater at Lee County Alliance for the Arts. We end the month with our Pot Luck at Nettie & John Warner's. Several of our group have left for vacations elsewhere and also others have been entertaining friends and family who are jealous of our weather. I'm sure more will be visiting! Birthdays celebrated in March: Terri Dordon (3/8) and John Warner (3/24). Upcoming birthdays: Linda Fairley (4/11), Some of our group have not admitted their birthdays. Maybe they don't want to age. Can't send wishes without knowing.....Happy Birthday to ALL!

LAUGHING GULLS
Reporter: Vickie Sullivan

Wow have the Gulls been busy. We had six lovely ladies at the Ladies Luncheon at Carrabas. Ann, LuAnne, Sandy and Vickie were lucky and won door prizes. LuAnne walked away with two. A group of Gulls put on their woolies and braved the cold to attend Cocktails on the Cape at Fathoms. Gordon, Pam, Bob, Tina, Jill, John, Sandy, Peter, Janis, John, Vickie, Sully, Ann & Tish attended the Hollywood Nights Dinner/Dance. We also celebrated Tish's birthday. We had 22 Gulls attend the 3 Mar board meeting. A big thank you to Pam and Jill for taking orders for the Tie Dyed T-shirts for the boat regatta. Ed and Nancy hosted some Gulls for dinner at their home. Gulls were seen at the Irish Festival, Gartenfest at the German-American Club, Sunset Celebration, & Bocce Ball. We have some Gulls that have joined the Moose Lodge. If you would like to join us on Friday night for dinner, come on down. Pam, Page, Sandy, Lori & Vickie spent a day supporting the local economy shopping at Miromar Outlets and Coconut Point. We had a wonderful time. John, Peter, Mike, Bob, Rick & Sully went out on a charter fishing trip. They caught Grouper and Snapper. On 16 March, we had a Tie Dye party at Pam & Gordon's garage. A big thank you to everyone who came out to help get the t-shirts done. Also thanks to Pam as her car had to sit outside several nights while the work on the t-shirts was done. Sandy, LuAnne, Margriet, Susanne, Janis, Loretta, & Vickie attended the Ladies Luncheon at Anthony's. Sandy, Margriet, Susanne & Janis won door prizes. Margriet got two door prizes. We had our March pot luck at Jill and John's house also co-hosted by Janis, John, Lori & Bob. John fried a couple of turkeys. We have now voted him as the official turkey preparer. Thanks to all who attended and brought the wonderful food that we ate. Thanks Jill & John for having us at your lovely home. A big Happy Birthday to our March folks: Sandy, Steve, and Larry. Hope to see everyone at Cocktails on the Cape and the Black & White Dinner Dance.

BEACH BRATZ
Reporter: Babz Maxwell

Everywhere else in the country people are excited that Spring has officially arrived. Actually, they are just relieved to have some decent weather so we will finally SHUT UP about Paradise. (As in: SPRING...It's what's for WINTER!) What did we do this month? A good number of us attended the monthly meeting where it was announced that several in our group will be on the 2015 NRC board! The coup, er, uh, I mean, the transition takes place in May. We had a lovely evening of music and gossip at Sunset Celebration. If you were not there, we talked about you. Keep in mind I now know your names, and I have a highly creative mind. And LOTS of time on my hands. Consider yourself warned. Dave and Robyn are FINALLY in their beautiful new home! And so far, nothing they've had to say about their builders has landed them in jail. (There is that sticky little detail about the bumper stickers, and possible litigation, but so far, it's just rumors.) Our book club members attended a Reading Festival and heard several authors speak. Sounds scholarly, but we know it was just an excuse to shop, eat, and swill down cocktails. The rest of us are NOT fooled by your high brow literary endeavors. But for those of you interested in this sort of pretentious drift, the April 14th selection will feature "Girl on a Train. Speaking of trains, several of our couples attended the Mystery Dinner at the Yacht Club and had a blast trying to figure out "who dunnit". Hopefully, it was none of us. Or that if it was, we don't get caught. (You know what the true meaning of "friend" is? Someone, who, when you call and say you REALLY need a favor, will be ready with large, heavy duty contractor bags, plenty of lye, a shovel, and (NO QUESTIONS). We had a great group at the monthly potluck given by the hostess with the most-ess, Frank and Connie! Thanks so much for opening your home once again! AND we have BADGES! (I KNOW what's going through your mind... "We don't NEED no stinking badges!

Trivia question; What movie was that famous line from?? Come on! You saw the movie. You laughed your butts off. Anyway, thanks to the gals who made this possible. We've all been here long enough to realize this is a whole different world. And as such, we are compiling a " You may be from Cape Coral if" list that shows just how different it is. Here are a few suggestions from the group:

You may be from Cape Coral if:

You wake up to the melody of mockingbirds and (lawn)mowers in the neighborhood. In FEBRUARY. (and promptly hop on FB to brag about it to the "northerners").

You go out for the evening and still make it home in time to be in bed by 10. (They don't call us Cape Coma for nothing!)

You can conceivably furnish a second house solely on the contents of your garage. (You KNOW it's true. Most of us could have an impromptu garage sale just by raising the door)

You think getting crabs at the beach is a GOOD thing!

It seems time goes by much faster here. (Actually it doesn't). Time here is normal. But it C R A W L S up north during winter.

Your heating bill for the entire winter season costs less than a trip to Bubba's Steakhouse.

Okay, folks, this is all I've got for now. It's a lovely night and the hot-tub awaits.

Until next month, BE FAB U LOUS! Babz

JANUARY 2015 CORKSCREWERS

Reporter: Gail Brown for Leslie Vaughan

The Corkscrewers have been out and about enjoying all the wonderful NRC activities. After enjoying last month's Hollywood Nights Dinner/Dance, many of our group enjoyed the Taste of the Cape Celebration at Four Freedoms Park. The Sunset Celebration with its fun and shopping delights featured a perfect sunset with great new friends. It's no surprise that the Corkscrewers were well represented at the Wicked Dolphin Rum tour with dinner at Bubbas later. All the ladies in our group attended the Ladies Luncheon. Everyone that bought raffle tickets went home with a prize! On the 22nd we had a wonderful potluck at the home of Dobie & Laine Simpson with Irish food and drinks galore. We selected a group logo and hope to have shirts/pins soon. Can't wait for the next month of fun to start!

Dear Friends:

April is here! It is officially Spring, but feels a lot like Summer! SO much to do this month. The Cardboard Boat Regatta will be one of the highlights. Make sure you do not miss this one. Come out and see your friends race in the most magnificently engineered and designed seaworthy vessels. Yes, this year there are TWO boats that will win the races and be judged the best in our class. Keep April 17 and 18 reserved for this fun annual event!

Our dinner dance will take us to Paris this month and Cocktails on the Cape, the Ladies Luncheon and the Men's Breakfast will keep us busy in between, Bocce Ball, Bowling, Pot Lucks, boating, fishing, sunning, swimming....so much to do, so little time.

Our time as Board 95 is coming to an end. April is our last month serving as your Board. Through the efforts of many great people the last six months as been phenomenal. It has been great fun and a privilege to serve as your President with these amazing Board members:
