NRC Group News

August/Sept. 2013:
SURFSIDE SOCIALITES
 Reporter: Cheryl Rhine

It was time again on July 16th for the ladies to join together in food and friendship. Having been there for lunch last year, we decided that it was fitting to go back to Fish Tale Restaurant on 47th Terrace for a taste of the sea. There were so many enticing options including the popular grilled shrimp luncheon salad, grouper, coconut shrimp and ahi tuna. It was hard to choose as we surveyed the menu and daily specials. The desserts were tempting as well and several of us could not resist. We were delighted to share time with Karen Morris's family from Texas: her daughter, Vicky and handsome 6 month old grandson, Jameson. Of course, in the setting of codling ladies, Jameson stole all the attention and was the perfect diner. No doubt, he has his mother's beautiful eyes and daunting smile and we made special exception to his gender for a "ladies luncheon". So glad they could be here with us. In consideration of the recent tragedies plaguing our nation and the politics that leave us feeling empty at times, I feel particularly fortunate to live in this magnificent piece of paradise called Cape Coral and to have wonderful fellowship with many other Surfside Socialites and the opportunities available through the NRC. As our group approaches NRC graduation, my wish is that you can join me in recognizing these special blessings and that every day we can applaud someone with kind words, hospitality and a helping hand. A difference can be made one person at a time. May God and peace be with you.

November 2013
Tropical Transplants
 Reporter-Sharrie Killion

What can I say? It's the off-season and the beaches are not crowded, traffic moves along, there are deals at our favorite restaurants and friends and family brave all of this to visit to visit us in Paradise anyway. They must be the smart ones...

The Tropical Transplants took advantage of the peaceful pace and did play shuffle board at the Yacht Club this month with drinks and dinner at the Boat House after. The view is wonderful this time of year. More of us kayaked again this month. Again, not me but maybe later. Some months as a group we meet at a restaurant for conversation and dinner. This month, we were fortunate that Donna Lee hosted a Pot Luck at her beautiful new house. Everyone loves Italian and the food (and the house) was fabulous. The Transplants are fortunate to have a group with diverse interests. There is something for everyone.

Several of us went to the Broadway Palm to see Footloose. It was fabulous and the food was good as usual. Some of us traveled to Naples 5th avenue for a day of shopping and dining. Some ignored the weather and managed during one of the weekly rounds to play six of nine holes – and of course had lunch as planned. The NRC activities always attract some of us. We enjoyed the general meeting (fabulous speaker), the Ladies Lunch at Rum Runners, the dinner dance and the other events this club sponsors. Hard to believe it's the off-season isn't it? Editor apologies to Wendy O'Brien and Sharrie Killion!

Suns of Beaches

Reporter: Linda Halliburton

Meteorologist Jim Farrell with WINK News gave us valuable information regarding hurricanes at the NRC meeting this month. His humor was also enjoyable. Lana & Dave, Pierre & Andree have spent most of the summer getting their northern homes in good condition only to start thinking of returning to SWF to start working on these homes. Ray was just telling me how busy he is this week with NRC. Monday, shuffleboard, Tuesday, men's breakfast, Wednesday Bocce ball, Thursday, ladies luncheon (he is leaving that fun event to Leonard) and dinner/dance Saturday. Dorothy & Bill will host our July Pot Luck. Sure will be nice to catch up with them since they have been busy for months helping Dorothy's mother. Carolyn is still trying to get Dean back on his feet. Maybe he just needs some liver to eat??? Nancy's sister & family will be in Fla. along with grandkids for a couple months. Sounds like a fun family gathering. Linda will head to Tenn. for a family reunion. Come on, SOB's, give me more to write about!!!

The Paradise Pirates plan on our pot luck cook out Saturday the 18th. As usual, a pretty quiet group during the summer months! Many of us have found other events to partake in outside of the pot lucks, still sailing along however!

Since we "spoke" last, Bruce and I were serenaded at Buon Apitito (Cocktails on the Cape) and played games with the Fabulous Flip Flops, partied with the beach Bratz, laughed with the Laughing Gulls, hung out with bocce players, trivia players, and board members as well as getting together with different wonderful friends in our group. I don't know why people complain about weather here in the summer. It's been gorgeous here lately! We enjoyed the last Sunset Celebration with a few late comers from our group. Babz's Bling Ladies Lunch was a hoot! Margaret and I joined the Suns of Beaches Ladies and I finally broke my year long streak of not winning. It may be because Ginny, Lynn and Bonnie are up north... Loved the outfits! We have some creative, fun-loving ladies in this club! I put together a visit to the Historical Museum on June 25. Ione and Chuck offered to host a potluck to any who RSVP'd they'd be there. Over 20 people attended from several different groups. Some of us met afterwards and a few have since gotten together with their new friends! Awesome! The Beach Blanket Bingo dance brought out some of the Paradise Founders and we had a great time, especially posing with the sharks and bouncing beach balls around the dance floor. I joke that our dances are adult Bar Mitzvah's. Mozel Tov to us!! Shirley and Wally joined Bruce and I and other fun NR Clubbers at Pincher's Crab Shack for Cocktails on the Cape. There was a good turn out that night! Check out this recipe: Watermelon Breeze. 3 cups watermelon, 1 cup coconut water and a squeeze of lime juice. I'd tweak it. A little more lime and it just seems to be missing something?? Make sure you're not missing something, get out there and join the fun! Till next time...

THE WAVE RUNNERS
 Reporter: Linda Glass

Happy August friends in the Cape. Many of the Wave Runners have been spending these lovely mornings at the beach-what a great way to start the day. We celebrated Tina's birthday this past month with a pot luck type evening and an amazing happy birthday sung by the board 96. wow we have some voices in this group. We hear that Anne Marie knows how to have fun on a waverunner. You go girl and get those things off of your list. Jim finally has his fruit trees planted and hopes for a happy harvest. Congrats to everyone who got a new pool this summer. You all survived that experience. Well wishes go out to Gail for a speedy recovery. We have missed you. I will report on Foot Loose at the Palm next month. Signing off for now, see you soon!

Can it be that our group started one year ago? We have formed so many great friendships and hang out like we have been friends forever. The New Residents Club really works! We spend more times together than just the club events. We get together on holidays and whenever the city has an event, we're there. It feels like we have lived here much more than a year. On the 4th of July we had a great pool party at Barb and Bob's wonderful home. We ate, jumped in the pool, ate some more, jumped in the pool again, then ate more! After that, we walked around the dock so we could see Red White and Boob Cape Coral Fireworks. As we do every month, we celebrated two Pelican birthdays, two days apart, on the same birth year. Very cool! We also have monthly Pelican potlucks, Lady Bunco games, and Gentlemen poker nights. It may be hot outside, but it's always cool when the Pelicans get together.

 Reporter: Diane Kenney

Our big event of the month was the Fireworks cruise on the Captain JP, an old fashioned water wheeler. We departed from Fort Myers marina and cruised south down the Caloosahatchee. During the cruise we had a buffet dinner, dancing and then the fireworks. The main fireworks show we saw was Fort Myers. We also saw lots of fireworks being set off all up and down the river. Our trip was a 3 hour cruise, but then . . . Just like on Gilligan's Island, we did not return. Captain JC got stuck on a sandbar when we dropped anchor for the fireworks. We just could not get loose. Several small boats tried to pull us off. Finally the Pure Fort Myers tour boats began shuttling us off in groups of 30. Don't know if everyone was shuttled off and whether the boat became unstuck before the tide came back in. The cruise was fun and I would do it again. Just would hope that we wouldn't have the extra hours tacked on. Listen to our tale, just like Gilligan's Island - ♪♪ Just sit right back and you'll hear a tale, a tale of a fateful trip, that started from Port Fort Myers aboard the paddlewheel Capt. It is a small little place located on Country Club Drive overlooking the canal. You might easily drive past it, but it is worth trying it out. We all ordered a varied selection from their menu. Locals come in especially for the special of the day. Lots of our group are traveling or moving - Brenda Serbonich for a long term rental on the Chesapeake, the Kenney's for their son's wedding in Maine, Lynn Kaden back to Atlanta for work. Marianne Cyr went to Altamonte Springs to participate in the USTA sectional matches for the CC Racquet Club. All are pooped but had a great time. Their team came in 3rd in their flight. The Rozum's took a summer road trip visiting family and friends along the way. Some of their stops were in Atlanta, Missouri, Kansas, Denver and North Dakota. Mary and Roger Chapman just completed a move within the Cape. Time to collapse after all that work! July birthdays were celebrated by Carl Limmer (7/5), Dave Fairley (7/14) and Diane Kenney (7/23). In August we will celebrate with Leonard Brown (8/3), Jim Fitzgerald (8/30) and a special celebration with Mary Chapman (8/27).

If the humidity gets any higher, we will be able to swim to the NRC meetings. Whew..... Hope everyone had a wonderful 4th of July. We've been busy little Gulls. Sandy, Peter, Pam, Gordon, Jill, John, Vickie, Sully, Lori, Bob and Lori's sister Mickey enjoyed dinner together at the Monkey Bar. We had a great time. Speaking of good times, Pam, Margriet, Barb, Tina, Susanne, Lori and Vickie enjoyed the wonderful ladies luncheon at Misto's. Barb was lucky and won a raffle prize. We had a great June birthday celebration at First Round Draft. John, Janis, Loretta, Tina, Bob, Pam, Gordon, Jill, John, Vickie and Sully enjoyed the Beach Blanket Bingo dinner/dance. A whole flock of "Gulls" enjoyed Cocktails on the Cape at Pinchers. Barb, Mike, Jill, John, Margriet, Dutch, Peter, Sully and Vickie sailed with JC Cruises on the 4th of July and enjoyed a buffet dinner and the fireworks. The highlight of the evening was when the boat got stuck on a sandbar. The boat capsized and we spent 12 hours in the water fending off sharks and barracudas while singing the theme from "Gilligan's Island"...a three hour tour. Amazingly, we all survived. Sixteen Gulls attended the general membership meeting and congratulations to Lori for winning the "big one" in the raffle--a gift certificate for a boat rental for a day (take me, take me). We really enjoyed Jim Farrell's talk about the weather and hurricane preparation. Some of the Gulls toured the Wicked Dolphin Distillery and enjoyed dinner at Nestor's. Barb, Loretta, LuAnne, Lori and Vickie enjoyed the ladies luncheon at Rumrunner's. The Upside Down Christmas In July gift exchange was a hoot. Some really creative presents were unwrapped. Raffle wise, it was a good day for the Gulls, Lori, LuAnne and Vickie won prizes. We have a few Gulls that have flown off to visit family: Pam and Gordon, John and Janis and Tina. Y'all come back now hear. Sandy went back up north and Peter lucked out and got to stay to take care of some business at their home here. A big Gulls Happy Birthday to our July birthdays: John F., Audrea, Lori, Ann, Ed and Pat. We will be celebrating with dinner at Nestor's. Several of the Gulls have enjoyed watching Footloose at Broadway Palm and attended Belushi Comedy Bar. If anyone has any news or happenings they would like for me to include in this report, please let me know. Our next potluck will be hosted by Barb and Mike. Looking forward to seeing everyone there. BEACH BRATZ
 Reporter: Babz Maxwell

We are down to the bare bones in terms of Bratz. Even the FARTZ are thinning out, heading north to "visit", i.e. "escape" the heat and humidity. Wimps. How hot IS it you ask? Well, I posed this question to all of you in my last newsletter, but as usual, when I ask for a little help, I get nothing but chirping crickets. Oh, yeah, you LIKE reading this, but are any of you willing to offer a little contribution to the news? NOOOOOO.... So my rants continue. But probably not for long.

Meteorologist Jim Farrell of WINK news spoke at the NRC breakfast giving us all kinds of helpful information on hurricane preparedness. He spoke for about an hour, but I can sum it all up in one sentence: WE'RE GONNA DIE. Yep, that's the size of it, folks. No matter what we do, no matter where we run, those watery whirlwinds are gonna hunt us down and kill us.

So how do we cope with this news? We party. The theme of the NRC dance was Beach Blanket Bingo, and we Bratz ladies literally lit up the dance floor. (You would have to be there) The Catanese, Winchells, and Schmitts took turns jauntily posing as tourists in the mouths of hungry sharks. Only in Florida, folks.

Speaking of Winchells, Jill and Ross had us over for the July potluck. After discussing our former stripper names, we shared DIY insecticide recipes and their success rates. I can tell you from personal experience, teal spray paint only enhances the look of a spider, it does NOT kill them. I'm only sorry I didn't have glitter. I personally like Connie Catanese's idea of spraying bleach. You kill bugs AND clean house at the same time. We shared phobias: as in mine is spiders, which is reasonable, but Connie, Janet and Leslie have an irrational fear of starfish. Just exactly how many horror movies have you seen of giant marauding starfish attacking and devouring innocent bands of beach-goers? And Jill has become obsessed with monitor lizards to the point where she is even seeing them in landscaping borders. We question just exactly what she's been smoking... Just sayin. Although, it doesn't matter anyway, because WE'RE GONNA DIE.

Speaking of die, it occurs to us that Micah Millet has been gone an awfully long time. Two went OUT (west), but only ONE came back. Tina assumes we will all just FORGET there were originally two of them. As for me, next time I'm over there, I'm going to go check the back yard for any areas of grass that look greener....

Speaking of MOI, (favorite subject) I just hosted my 3rd ladies luncheon, and the white elephant gift exchange was a riot. Sorry most of you weren't here for it. Next month will be our ball gown fashion show. Oh, and I've made tiara's mandatory. When you snowbirds come back, it will not be necessary to bow to us, but we would appreciate you recognizing us by our royal titles. I am henceforth to be known as: Her Imperial Highness and Reigning Queen all things Diva and Dazzle. And I plan to milk that title for all it's worth, for as LONG as I can. Because.....WE'RE GONNA DIE.....but until then....Be FAB u lous!!!

Wow! August already? Our summer is flying by, isn't it? It won't be long before we see our snowbirds again! Hooray! The more - the merrier, definitely! As for summer in the Cape - despite the scary stories of unbearably hot temperatures, it's really been a lot hotter other places. Having never spent a summer here, until now, I was worried it would be uncomfortably toasty. Not the case at all! e're a busy bunch! Our fantastic leader, Aimee, thinks of so many fun activities for us, and we really have a very participatory group, which makes every activity great! We're in the "thinking about it" stage of planning a cruise. Not sure exactly where we'll go, but planning is half the fun. Another thing The Corkscrewers have been doing, is trying to get together once a month to celebrate our members who have birthdays and anniversaries during that month. That's always such a nice evening! Many of us have commented that it seems we have all been friends forever. Hard to imagine that we only met less than a year ago! July's potluck dinner was hosted by Gail and Kevin and held at John and Linda's. Thanks guys, for a great group effort! Warm and beachy wishes to all!!!

FUNSEEKERS

Reporter: Debbie Tkach

Our group continues to be quite active. Many of the Funseekers have gone back North for the summer. Those that have stayed have been having a great time. Julie, Kay, Anne, Doris, Terry, Lil, Cyndi and Joann attended the Ladies Luncheon at Misto's on June 18th. They were dressed in a lot of "Bling". Terry won first place for Queen of Bling and Kay won third place for Princess of Bling. You both made the Funseekers very proud. Joann, Cyndi, Kay, Terry, Lil and Julie won door prizes. They all said they had a great time and a lot of fun. 22 of us attended a Potluck at New England Moorings hosted by Jim and Elegra Foraker. The owner kept bringing out samples of all sorts of appetizers; onion rings, deep fried pickles and chicken. The food was delicious and the company was wonderful. 16 of us attended the Monthly Dinner dance - Beach Blanket Bingo. We had a "ball". Many of us were lucky enough to win fabulous door prizes. We danced the night away to great music. Cocktails on the Cape at Pinchers was attended by Doris, Jeff, Julie, Anne, Rex, Frank, Lil, Randy, Kay, Bob and Debbie. It was a very pleasant evening with a nice setting. Several of us attended the last official Sunset Celebration till the fall. The sunset was truly beautiful. We will miss this monthly activity but look forward to its return. A thank you goes out to Julie Green who designed and ordered our new nametags. They are a lot of fun. Thank you also to Kay Atwood for our new Mascot for our Group. Stop by our table and see for yourself what a great job she did. Thank you ladies for your time and effort on this.

Doris, Tami and Lisa are organizing a singles get together on August 7, 2015 from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. at Fords Garage on Cape Coral Parkway. All the singles in the club are welcome and encouraged to attend for your opportunity to get to know one another. Theresa and Rod had a visit from Theresa's mom for a few days at the end of June. They also had some friends from Tennessee visit over the 4th of July weekend. Rex and Anne are going to Ontario to visit family and then touring the East Coast of Canada returning mid-September. They are very sorry to be missing out on all the fun activities here in Cape Coral. Safe travels to both of you. Kathy and Peter have done quite a bit of traveling. They went to Pacific Grove, CA to help their son and family move back east. They said the weather was beautiful, moderate temps and low humidity. Their son is a two block walk to the beautiful coast of Pacific Grove and Monterey. They headed back to Buffalo and are then heading to Michigan to enjoy a few days before helping another son move back East. Peter has been enjoying attending several car cruises with his Torino. They sound like they have been having quite a busy summer. Kathy is excited to start visiting the beautiful garden shows offered in Buffalo. Terry and Dana have been busy. They took a road trip to Destin, FL to visit their youngest son and daughter-in-law and two wonderful grand kids and celebrated their grandson's 4th birthday. From there they went to Tunica, Miss and went to Hollywood Casino. After losing they headed for Warsaw, IL for a family reunion with a great 4th of July fireworks show on the Mississippi cruising around the surrounding area to reinforce why they live in Florida. While in Warsaw, they were given a tour of the first house they lived in. Terry said it was just as cozy and warm as the day they left. From there they went to St. Louis, MO to visit the Arch and enjoy a Budweiser Brewery VIP tour and time with the Clydesdale Horses. From there they were off to their oldest son and daughter-in-laws home in Atlanta for a nice relaxing dinner and drinks along the beach in Palm Harbor. Bob and Debbie headed North for three weeks. They spent two weeks with her brother and sister-in-law in Buffalo and attended their friends sons wedding and then they were off to MT. Vernon, OH for the same couples daughters wedding. While in Buffalo they caught up with a lot of friends they left behind. They spent a lot of time by the water visiting the local "Refreshment" places. It was good catching up with everyone in Buffalo, but they are happy to be back home. Some of the Funseekers continue to enjoy the weekly Bocce Ball games. It is a lot of fun and great way to meet new people from other groups. For those of us spending our first summer on the Cape, the thunder and lightening storms are taking some getting use to. The rainbows afterwards are beautiful. Well,, until next month, stay safe and have FUN!!

Nominating Committee – new board

Hello Fellow New Residents

Who said the weather is unbearable here? As I write this, it's hotter in New York City than Cape Coral...

Welcome to August! Time of afternoon thunderstorms! August is also the month we start the process of selecting the next Board of the New Residents Club. For those who don't know how it happens, the Nominating Committee works diligently to assemble enthusiastic and responsible nominees for the Board during August. This slate of nominees is presented to the NRC members for their consideration at the September meeting. Then, at the October General meeting a vote is held on the slate of nominees, and the elected board is inducted at the October Dinner Dance.

So, I encourage any NRC member who would consider holding a board position to contact me or a member of the Nominating Committee during August so the Committee can consider your application in time for the September Meeting.

While on the subject, I would be remiss in not mentioning how fulfilling it is been to serve on the board. I've met lots and lots of great people, and had the opportunity to try to make the club at least a little better. This club is a well oiled machine and almost runs itself, so we on the board are able to concentrate on doing the best we can to make it fun for everyone.

Speaking of FUN, the NRC Dinner Dance is back! Atlantis Revisited is the theme – feel free to dress accordingly: mermaid, toga, Hawaiian shirt, or whatever!!! Put it in your calendar for Saturday, August 22nd.
