NOV/DEC 2014

BEACH BRATZ

Reporter: Babz Maxwell

As I perused various news articles in preparation for this month's promised Hit Parade of Florida Crazy, I learned some interesting facts. For instance, did you know there is an internet site called FARK.com, dedicated to news of the bizarre? It garners sources from all avenues of media, but there is a specific site dedicated just to FLORIDA? Did you realize we are the proud home to "FLORIDA MAN" an amalgamation of colorful characters in our state. As in "FLORIDA MAN from Miami attempts to trade a 4 foot alligator for beer". And if you are wondering, no, he was not successful; as everyone knows a 12 pack of Bud sells for no less than a 6 ft. alligator. The clerk was not amused. I personally think FLORIDA MAN is rather sexist, as there are plenty of reports on FLORIDA WOMAN, such as the one who stood alongside a busy roadway in Pensacola with a sign that stated, "Not Homeless Need Boobs". Apparently she was unaware of the internet's "GOFUNDME" account...And what of all the FLORIDA ANIMALS splashed across the headlines, such as, "Cops give 10 hour chase to kangaroo in Lacochee, Fl." or, "Herpes-infected monkeys terrorize Florida" which, btw, would make an awesome summer big box movie title. Moving on, I was amazed at how many altercations occur over food. My personal favorite involves 2 brothers from Deltona searching the house for a missing box of mac and cheese, when one brother knocks over the other's beer. This unfortunate turn of events resulted in the now beer-less brother stabbing the other in the stomach. Furthermore, he vowed to beat said brother once he was released from jail. We take spilled alcohol seriously down here... Moving on...we have some brilliant nominees in the category of illegal drugs. It's hard to top the 23 year old Florida man sauntering around with an active meth lab in his pant leg, but there IS the story of an intensive care patient who caused a fire in an Okaloosa hospital when he tried to smoke crack rocks while being on oxygen. In his defense, it WAS Christmas Eve, and I'm sure his friend only brought the drugs in the spirit of the Season.... Honorable mention goes to a 36 year old Crystal Metheny, (her legal name) was arrested in Polk County for firing a "missile" into a vehicle. Yes, she was born in Florida...

For sheer stupidity, you can't beat the video of a Port Richie fellow is seen stuffing a chainsaw down his pants at a Home Depot. It gets better. He rides off on a bicycle.....

But these are just teasers. Here are my top 5 personal favorites:

#5: Police stop a man traveling on Alligator Alley at 109 mph, only to discover he is naked, travelling with 3 naked women, and a car full of empty alcohol containers. Again, it's hot, it's a long, boring drive. One gets thirsty...

#4 A Florida woman caused a 2 car crash while shaving her bikini line in the Florida Keys. It seems she was driving on a suspended license due to the previous day's DUI, and her HUSBAND was holding the wheel while her hands were busy dealing with personal grooming. The reason for this last minute necessity was because she was on the way to meeting her BOYFRIEND in Key West and wanted to be ready for the visit. Folks, you can't make this stuff up....

#3 These bright people hail from my home state. 3 vacationers from Illinois entered and robbed the 5/3 bank of Ft. Myers in May of this year. They escaped, but not for long, in a taxi, where the dye pack blew up all over them. If they had just chosen more economical lodging, like, say, a Super 8, they could have avoided this untimely cash withdrawal....

#2 This one is a classic case of misunderstanding, as a 50 year old man in Jensen Beach was arrested for indecent exposure. He explained this was NOT the case, as he was merely "fluffing" his genitals, to air them out. Hey, it's humid here....give a guy a break...

And finally, my personal favorite:

#1 In the small hamlet of Newser, parents were calling on the local police for help with the infestation of raccoons at the middle school. One of the black-masked bullies actually peed on a student. Here is a quote from the principal: "Raccoon activity is confined to a small portion of the school building and does not impact a large number of students. Therefore, mass notification to parents at this time has not taken place."

Only in Florida, folks. Only in Florida....

Stay Fabulous! Babz

PARADISE PELICANS

Reporter Virena McElheney

It is with a sad, heavy heart that I am preparing our last newsletter input for the New Residents Club of Cape Coral. Boohoo!!! However, it is with a grateful heart that we are graduating into the next phase of our friendships from this wonderful NRC.

Regardless of who continues on from this point to the Cape Coral Social Club, we as a group have made life long relationships which will not end..

From the 52 original Paradise Pelicans who joined in July/August 2014, approximately 40 have participated in most of the events and activities during the last two years. Most of us have formed long lasting friendship that will continue on into the future. We have enjoyed our monthly potlucks and dinner dances, Cocktails on the Cape, Sunset Celebration on the Cape, Trivia Nights, Ladies Luncheons, Game Nights, just to name a few.

So this is not good-bye; this is onward with the Paradise Pelicans into the next chapter of our flock's wonderful adventures in our great city, Cape Coral.

CAPE ESCAPES

Reporter: Diane Kenney

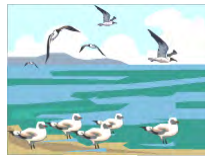

Summer is halfway over - July is in our rearview window. The Cape Escapes had a hot and wet July! Some traveled and some stayed here to golf, bowl, bocce, wine, dine and dance the night away. The water activities filled out time too - beach, swimming, sunning and boating. We had trips to Michigan, California, New England and even to Florida! We also all enjoyed fireworks whether here in the Cape or elsewhere.

Of course family on summer vacations came - lots of grand-kids. Marianne Cyr was back in town for a few days visiting her tennis and Matlacha friends. Our dinner of the month was to Slate's Restaurant. We enjoyed it our first year here, so went back. Still the same - very good!

The July birthdays of the month were celebrated by Carl Limmer 7/5, Dave Fairley 7/14 and Diane Kenney 7/23. We only have one coming up in August - Leonard Brown. Not all our Escapees want to be recognized on their birthdays!

Until September, for us, Graduation Time!

LAUGHING GULLS

Reporter: Vickie Sullivan

Things have been good for the Gulls so far this summer. We've been keeping busy even though it is hotter than heck. Lori, Bob, Barb, Mike, Linda, LuAnne, Mike, Sully & Vickie enjoyed Cocktails on the Cape at Bonefish Grill. Barb, Pam, Gordon, Liz, Loretta, Linda, Nancy, Sully & Vickie turned up for the July General Membership Meeting. Vickie was lucky enough to win a raffle prize. On the 4th of July, Pam, Gordon, Loretta, Linda, Sully & Vickie joined with a group of NRC members on the Banana Boat tour for a great night of watching the fireworks. God Bless America. Jill, Barb, Vickie, Page, Janis, & Nancy along with Jill's daughter-in-law and grandson enjoyed their day at Sun Splash for our Ladies Tops Down trip. Some of our Gulls have gone up north to visit with family. Pam & Gordon went to Ohio and visited with family. Janis & John visited with family in New Jersey and enjoyed a wonderful cruise with family members to celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary.

Way to go Janis & John. LuAnne & Mike traveled to Missouri (and I think other states) for a great family visit. Pam & Gordon's daughter Wendy came for a quick visit. They enjoyed a couple of beach days at Siesta Key. Sully & Vickie have enjoyed playing Trivia with the Hula Hooters at Nemo's. Our July potluck will be hosted by Pam & Gordon. Happy birthday to Lori (7/30). Hope to see all the Lady Gulls at our Upside Down Christmas Luncheon. Until next time: GULLS JUST WANT TO HAVE FUN.

CORKSCEWERS
Reporter: Leslie Vaughan

We've done lots of fun things so far this summer, and there's lots of summer left! The Wallicks had the group over for a morning of fishing from their beautiful and newly enlarged dock. In true Wallick fashion, they had a wonderful New York Style breakfast and coffee ready. Aimee and Mitch are always such gracious hosts. Linda and John each caught catfish! (We have proof! See pictures!) Linda - 2. John - 1. Not to be outdone, the very next day, Mitch and Jeff each caught fish, as well. We think they caught Oscars, but we aren't 100% sure. The ladies enjoyed a nice gathering at Cafe You. Interesting and busy little place, and very good. Several of us went on the Haunted Walk in downtown Ft. Myers. Of course, we met for dinner and drinks first, because that's what we do! Our pot luck dinner was at Tom and Pat Dillard's home. Theme was Independence Day and we wore our red white and blue! Food, friends and karaoke always make for a great time! Thanks guys! You sure know how to throw a party! Our ladies met for coffee at the newly remodeled and enlarged Starbucks at Surfside. It's so nice and roomy now. Plenty of seating, which we appreciated since it's been a wee bit warm for sitting outdoors. Our monthly celebration dinner to celebrate birthdays and anniversaries was at Cape Cabaret which was quite fun. The ladies also met for lunch again, this time at Woody's. A great day, as always. Got bling? We do! Our ladies went to a bracelet making class at Karma and Coconuts and made some beautiful things! We continue to be a very active and busy group. We feel very fortunate to live in Paradise AND have such a great bunch of friends! .

FABULOUS FLIP FLOPS
Reporter: Diana Simpson

We year rounders have been flip-floppin' through summer! It has been a steamy one so far. Anyone surprised? Many of us regularly bocce, bowl and of course, EAT together. However, some of us have decided to forgo the bocce until the "feels-like" temp gets below 100! Diane Brown joined us and some of our other NRC bowling friends on Thursday morning for a raucous time. Bowland has been offering "women bowl free" from 9:00 to midnight on Thursdays this summer. You guessed it. Several of us return for more! Charlie and Diane Brown hosted our pot luck this month. The theme was Breakfast for Dinner. Yummy! We all had a terrific time. Diana hosted the monthly Singles Get Together for a pool party that was a great success. (Of course we had to dodge the typical afternoon rain drops). Several new NRC singles came to meet others and get involved in our activities.

Reporter: Julie Green

Its hard to believe that another fun filled month has gone by!! It won't be long before we're sitting in season traffic again so let's enjoy the summer while we can!! Kay, Randy, Lil, Frank, Terry, Dana, Anne, Rex, Jeff and Julie had a great time at Cocktails on the Cape at Bonefish Grill. We had a great turnout for the Patriotic Par-tay Dance with Terry and Dana winning a dance contest! Thanks to Anne and Rex for arranging dinner at the Boathouse before the dance. Thanks again go to Anne and Rex for organizing an amazing 4th of July fireworks boat ride and dinner at Duffy's. They truly chose the best venue for seeing fireworks from Ft Myers Beach, Sanibel and our own Cape Coral. The awesome lightening show was the highlight of a great night. Anne's perseverance got us a table for 28 at Duffy's- what fun we all had!!! Julie arranged dinner at Hanna's Hibachi which was attended by Bob, Debbie, Cyndi, Bob, Lil, Frank, Elegra, Jim, Terry, Dana, Anne, Rex, Jim, Janet, Jeff and Julie. We ended the night with a birthday song for Debbie.

SUN RAYS

Reporter– Barb Swann

What's been going on with the Sun Rays? Well, of course, there has been the usual travel. Some have gone north to visit friends and relatives. Tina says she and Micah will be going to the Big Apple to celebrate the twins' 21st birthday. Enjoy. Ceil has another trip scheduled, north and to the west coast. She must be living out of a suitcase! Marlene is going to Homassassa and DC; Jane and Nick are going to a wedding in Texas; Jan and Dick are going to Minnesota; Ann and Dave are going to Boston; Louise will be attending her son's wedding near Cleveland. Lillian just says she wants to go to heaven, but she may get close to it. She is planning a trip to China this fall. Am I the only one staying home? Others have had company. Florida is still a good vacation spot for northerners, even during summer. The usual "sporting events" have included Bocce, bowling, and eating. This month, however, the ladies are starting a monthly Bunco party. Should be fun. Potluck with Louise was fun, thanks, Louise, for hosting. Tina hosted for July, and it was a great success, thank you. So nice to see so many friends. So many events to attend, sometimes it is hard to choose. Ceil enjoyed Menopause production at the Broadway Palms Theater. Anyone interested in trying a matinee there?

I'm looking forward to a busy summer. Moretti's Cocktails, really dinner, should be great. One of my favorite places. The Paint Escape sounds fun too. Going, hoping to see other Sun Rays there. May be good for a repeat later this fall in anticipation of Christmas. Keep tuned into NRC news. There is an outing in September, nature boat excursion, that sounds like fun. Several Sun Rays will be going to lunch in August at Rosie's Tomorrow Heritage Farm, looking forward to it. Watch for details on a dolphin cruise with Dave narrating.

Your prayers and best wishes are asked for the following who are facing family and/or health issues: Elaine, Jan, and Bev.

Enjoy your month, see you soon.

HULA HOOTERS

Reporter: Alan Poland

Hoot, Hoot, Hoot the Hooters have been in flight and on the move ChiefHooter Gary and his bride, Marne and their two pugs returned to the Cape safe and sound after a 7,000+ mile road trip across country. Our cheerleader, Charlie Weis, and her "Life is Good" husband Booby were sent off by theHooters on a visit back to Virginia. John and Sophie Higginson travelled to Oregon to cheer on their daughter, Ashley, at the Olympics trials.

Greg and Tammy Culin were wonderful hosts at one of the many yummy potluck meals the Hooters share. And Hooters are not afraid to have fun in a swimming pool.

While Sandy and Don Smith got settled in their new home, Alan Poland and Sonia Norenberg moved from their rental a mile or so to their new nest. Norm and Jennifer Raby have been busy awaiting completion of their new home.

Gail and Charlie Pierce hosted get togethers at their nest following outstanding guessing by the Hooters at Nemos Trivia games. Talk about games ...former educators Pamm and Jim Duplaga have taught many Hooters new games that go well with wine and cheese.

The partying Hooters are looking forward to their one year anniversary celebration in August. Hoot, Hoot, Hoot! Hooter life is very good.
