Knotty Nauticals
Reporter: Evelyn Ferguson

Many Knotty friends celebrated Christmas and New Years Eve with family. Knotty's who didn't have family in the area celebrated with their "adopted" NRC family members. Knotty Nauticals opened their homes over the holidays and shared their family and friends with their new NRC family. Isn't it great that people asked you "Are you going to be alone?" "If so, come on over."

Some Knotty's kicked off the New Year at Bowland on New Year's Day. In fact, they have been seen fairly consistently every Thursday, and were thrilled to have Bill and Gudrun Parker join them one Thursday. Bill said "I haven't bowled in forty years." The response was "That's okay neither have we." Six Knotty's attended the Ladies Luncheon at Fathom's. Great food. Two of the six at the table won raffle prizes. Our January Pot Luck was hosted by Linda and Robert Dugener. Great ribs! We loved meeting their Michigan friends, Connie and Steve. Wow! Can they cook! Pot Luck's have been booked through our graduation month - July. Where did those two years go?

About town activities included: a trip to the Barbara Mann Theatre to see Book of Mormons; a once in a lifetime win - the Traveling Trivia Trophy; and two crazy senior citizens who ran the Tour De Cape 5K. The good news - there was no 911 call and they are not still lying on the side of the road.

January Birthday wishes to Phil Girard. Happy 44th Anniversary wishes to Evelyn & Marshall.

With the coming of a new year, the past is left behind, only wonderful memories remain. So what better way to start fresh than to clean out our storage and throw a yard sale. And that's what Tom & Sheri Webber so graciously did on the entire group's behalf. Saturday, January 10th, treasures and junk alike assembled at the Webber residence in hopes of landing a new home. It is so hard at times to give up the stuff we have gathered over the years, but let's face it, we ain't got no basements down here, and my car is sick and tired of parking outside! So we say "It's movin' on out" to all the remnants of the past. Happy New Year! This month's social was held at Brew Babies Garden Bistro on January 15th. Much thanks to the new owners as we all enjoyed a fabulous time of gathering, eats and beverage. Most of enjoyed something from the expanded Italian menu now offered at Brew Babies. Great time and great food.

Jan Donovan organized the monthly ladies luncheon at the new Cass Cay Restaurant (formerly Porto Bello's) at Burnt Store Marina. The atmosphere was sensational in our private room overlooking the marina, as was the companionship of the ladies. Our wishes to Bill & Brian (new restaurant owners) as they continue their dream of success here in SW Florida.

But someone was absent from lunch: Jan left 2 days earlier to respond to a family need in Michigan's Upper Peninsula. Thanks Jan, we missed you and are thoughts have been with you.

Reporter: Fran Orphal

After the Parting Pirates racked in their loot from Christmas, they set sail for more fun in January. On January 14, the Pirate ladies gathered for lunch at Mangia Bene, (Coralwood Shopping Center), where they laughed, cheered, and enjoyed their lunch.

On January 24th Partying pirates enjoyed a day at Celtic Festival at Centennial Park in Fort Myers. The hardy Pirates got together for Happy Hour at "Rum Runners", on the 28th and ended the month With their monthly Potluck at the home of Kim and Charlie Haftarczyk, thanks Kim and Charlie! Pirate trivia: Why couldn't the pirate play cards? because he was standing on the deck!

Tropical Transplants
Reporter: Wendy O'Brien

Well, 2015 is already an active year ~ and it's only January! It began with a New Year's Eve Open House hosted by Claudio and Toni Sanchez. What a lovely end to 2014 and a fun start to 2015. Thank you, Claudio and Toni! Several Transplants attended a Mosaics class at Inspiration Studio and created some very impressive pieces ~ a fun activity. An interesting evening at the Yacht Club on January 22 involved Dueling Pianos and some of our group went to watch the "duel" ~ and enjoy each other's company. Antiquing, shopping and lunch in Arcadia, as well as a trip to Naples Botanical Garden to view the tropical gardens and different habitats were two more activities that members of our group enjoyed this month. A potluck with an Italian theme was held at Rick and April Cannon's lovely home ~ molto buona! Thank you to the Cannons.

A number of Transplants continue to golf at Del Tura or Royal Tee ~ always a fun (sometimes frustrating) time! Some of the group attended the Ladies Luncheon at Fathoms this month and, as usual, had a delightful time together. To quote from Naples Botanical Garden website: "A place of bliss, a region of supreme delight, a state of happiness" ~ this is what the Transplants feel whenever we get together. Looking forward to more good times

Suns of Beaches
Reporter: Linda Halliburton

Several of our snow birds flew home for the holidays then back. A few had northern family visit here. along with those visits came colds and flu. Other than a lingering cough everyone is back to normal.

The last dance was well attended by our group. Several people said Ray cleaned up nicely! It truly was a Holiday Extravaganza. As always we had a blast at Sunset Celebration. We all seem to enjoy joining with other with other NRC to get to know other folks.

Ray & Wally enjoy the men's breakfast & like sharing ideas of fishing. etc. with other guys. Nancy & Ray are pretty active with the cardboard boat members now that Nancy has retired. By the way, she no longer knows what day it is either. Andree & Pierre will host our next Pot Luck with a Chinese theme. Sounds good!. Andree & Pierre rode in the Tour de Cape. Just a few of our group attended cocktails on the cape. We intend to increase those numbers this month. Nancy, Andree, Shirley & Linda attended the ladies luncheon. Andree was the lucky lady that won three gifts. Wonder if she went out & bought a lottery ticket to keep her winning streak on a roll.

A few of us went downtown Ft. Myers for New Years Eve. Great bands, lots of people and how about that midnight ball drop.

Lana, Dave, Ray, Nancy & Linda went on a short cruise. The Garmin took us a heck of a sightseeing trip on the way to the cruise ship but we made it & sure enjoyed the libation once on board. We laughed so much & had such a great trip. The sad news was someone broke into Dave & Lana's home while we were gone. They are still in shock not to mention dealing with insurance companies.

Let's keep having fun & appreciating life in Paradise

Since we departed mid-December for the holidays, Bonnie and Mac went to the Christmas Boat Parade (which I heard was fabulous!), then joined Nita and Fred, Linda and Jim among others from the NRC for a night of Drag Queen Bingo. Nita will be traveling north soon to visit her daughter and grandson this month because...she won the 50/50 that night!! Way to go!

On New Year's Eve, Wally and Patti, who entertained family here over the holidays, went to Cape Harbor to see the ball drop and watch the fireworks. Page, Bruce, Nita and Fred were there as well. We rang in the New Year with other wonderful friends we did not know a year ago before we joined NRC.

Now our snowbird friends are returning! We saw Lois, Ginny and Bob, Bonnie and Mac, Tom and Sherry, Fred and Nita at the meeting. Fred took Photos and Page was at the podium. We're helping out for the club we love! At the Sunset Celebration, I worked the NRC booth, Bruce also pitched in. We saw Ginny and Bob, Jill, and heard Lois went as well. Wally returned from skiing and joined Shirley, Page, Bruce, Tom and Sherry at Trivia. Shirley, Tom, Bruce and I also work on the cardboard boat. The dance, and our potluck are coming up soon, we can't wait!

Paradise Pelicans July/Aug 2014:

Paradise Pelicans
 Reporter: Virena McElheney

Wow, what a wonderful Holiday Season in the Cape. So much to do and see with new friends in the NRC. The Pelicans were busy having fun, as usual. We had our monthly potluck at Kevin and Nancy's home and in addition to our usual birthday celebration; we also had a Yankee Swap/White Elephant gift exchange which was a riot after we got the rules figured out. All though December the Pelicans were celebrating at the Holiday Festival of Lights in the Cape, monthly Ladies Luncheon at Rumrunners, Boat Parade in Bimini Basin & Four Freedom Park, and topping it all off with some Pelicans at the Downtown Countdown in Fort Myers and other Pelicans at the Celebration in the Cape for ringing in 2015. So far in January we have been getting together at the General Meeting, Sunset Celebration, Ladies Luncheon at Fathoms, and attending the Florida Everblades Hockey match at Germain Arena.
 Happy 2015 from all the Paradise Pelicans!

Holidays are over! We've undecorated, sent family and friends back to their cold winter climates and started our New Year! We are back to our Escape in the Cape!

What a rough life we lead.

Theresa Berenger and John MacLean welcomed us to their home for an Italian Feast of pasta and meatballs. We had fun getting to know each other better and our alternate characters while playing "Who Am I?". Trying to guess our new persona by asking yes and no questions. From magical Barbara Eden and Elizabeth Montgomery; bombshells Gina Lollobrigida and Marilyn Monroe; to the elegance of Grace Kelly, Sophia Loren, and Audrey (cont)

NRC Group News

Hepburn for the women. Then for the men we had John Wayne and Clint Eastwood for the Westerns, Steve McQueen and Tom Selleck for heart throbs, Bob Hope, James Cagney and WC Fields for the oldies and even Mr. Whipple! It took some of us a much longer time to figure out our persona even with helpful hints! Only two of us made an appearance at the NRC Luncheon at Fathoms. Where were the rest of us? The next week we attended our own January ladies lunch, held at Fletchers, we had a great turnout of 16. Always fun! Spent some time discussing future events with fun and unique ideas. Planning on getting together again at the Cocktails on the Cape, Trivia Game Night, Men's Breakfast, Bocce Ball and the Dinner Dance. We are ready to party!

LAUGHING GULLS
Reporter: Vickie Sullivan

January is off to a great start. We had 25 Gulls attend the January NRC meeting and two members of our group were lucky enough to win a door prize. A big thank you to Bob and Tina for stepping up and doing all the leg work for getting our Laughing Gulls shirts, hats and visors. We had a wonderful turn out for the Ladies Luncheon at Fathoms: Sue, LuAnne, Sandy, Margriet, Pam, Barbara, Tina, Pat and Vickie were in attendance. Barbara, Tina, and Pat won a door prize. Gulls just wanna have fun attending the Sunset Celebration at the Yacht Club, working on the card board boat, and playing Bocce Ball. There were a group of Gulls that attended the Cape Coral Art Festival. We had a get together at Woody's to celebrate our January birthdays. There were 20 Gulls in attendance. Happy birthday to Gordon, Tina and Vickie and many, many more to come. We will be having our Pot Luck on 25 January hosted by Susanne and Ann. Congratulations to Jill and John on the purchase of their new home here. Looking forward to seeing everyone at the Denim and Diamonds Dinner Dance.

BEACH BRATZ
Reporter: Babz Maxell

We're here in paradise, and we're a force to be reckoned with. We are the Beach Bratz, and we are ready to show everyone how to have a good time; which is exactly what we've been doing. We dined and danced at Christmas and had a blast. We also seem to have luck on our side, as several of us won some nice prizes at the Christmas Dance raffle. We kicked off the New Year with a BBQ bash at the lovely home of John and Vicky Harrington. There were 55 of us, and we proved that in spite of being retired we still know how to make magic in the kitchen. The variety of food was amazing, and the fun of getting to know one another made for one terrific evening. John and Vicky produced some killer BBQ, and were top notch host and hostess! Page Flournoy and Diana Fleming graced us with their presence, steering us down the right course to choose a group name (Beach Bratz), a leader to give us some general direction and keep us somewhat in line, ( Tina Millet) and a recorder of all our wonderful adventures, (Babz Maxwell and her partner in crime, Joy Ault). We also have a group mascot, who will be introduced to the rest of the groups at a future date. We are all looking forward to Diamonds and Denim, the monthly dance, as well as Ladies and Guy's luncheons, Dixie Roadhouse line dancing, Sunset Celebration, Bocce Ball, and oh, so many other fun things. We are excited! If any of the Beach Bratz are interested in hosting our February get-together, please contact Tina Millet at your earliest convenience. We are ready to party again!

NRC MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

FEBRUARY 2015
Kathy O'Boyle
President, Board 95

Welcome all Newcomers, Members and Graduates!

It is springtime in Florida. The days are getting longer and warmer and our migratory birds are reviewing their flight plans for their exodus back north. They venture back well ahead of most humans - we wait until the chance of snow is completely gone. I remember waiting for that first robin to appear in my backyard in Pennsylvania. Often, that robin showed up when there was still snow on the ground. Spring is the time of new beginnings, new experiences and new friendships and a time to renew friendships that have declined over the years. We are so fortunate to live in such a beautiful place and have so many friends. All you newcomers, you too will soon have more friends than you ever believed possible

It is also time to start volunteering for Board 96 which will begin on the first of May. Hard to believe, but it is that time again when we start searching for the ideal people to be on the next Board. All you need is a little time and willingness to do the job and you will be rewarded with even more new friends and the satisfaction of seeing so many new people having the time of their lives! Grab a board member after the meeting or give us a call. We will be happy to tell you all about our jobs and how much fun we are having!

Have a wonderful February, a Happy Valentine's Day, and lots of fun at all of our activities this month.

Warm and Sunny Regards,

Kathy
