FUNSEEKERS

tails on the Cape as well as, the Sunset celebration. Nine of the ladies, Julie, Kay,

Cindy, Doris, Joanne, Lu, Ann, Terry and Debbie attended the Ladies Luncheon at Hurricane Grill. Doris and Terry each won prizes. Our leader Vaune Behr and her husband Matt set off on a cross country vacation. They have hit several destinations, including Carlsbad Cavern, visiting her sons and are off to New Mexico. Julie went to New Jersey to see her mom who is recovering from hip replacement surgery. She is doing well and she got to visit with her sister also. Jeff's eye is continuing to heal and hopefully he will be driving again by the time this prints. Cathy is teaching Line Dancing at the Dixie Roadhouse on SE 47th Terrace every Wednesday and Friday at 7:30 p.m. If anyone is interested in having a group attend, Cathy will put together a party package for us. Kay and Theresa went kayaking from Tarpon Point Harbor to Mangrove Lagoon. They saw four dolphins jumping and enjoying the water right behind their kayak. They had a great time. Terry's husband Dana just retired from his job in Dubai and they are here to stay in their new home. They are getting the house in order and are enjoying the activities the Club has to offer. Debbie and Bob finally moved into their home and have been busy unpacking and settling in. We have our next potluck scheduled which is being hosted by Starr where we will be able to mingle and really get to know each other. Our group hopes to enjoy many of the activities offered in the future and have a lot of Fun.

Thank you to Jeff and Julie Green who hosted our first potluck for this new group. Everyone had a great time. The March and April new members were combined into this group. We voted on the name and The Funseekers won! There are about 59 members in our group, many of who are snowbirds. About six couples attended the April Dance and they reported that they had a great time. Our group has started participating in numerous events. Several of us have played Bocce ball, utilized our skills in Trivia and have attended Cock-

Knotty Nauticals
Reporter: Evelyn Ferguson

Time Flies! Where did our two years of active membership go? The Knotty's have nothing but GREAT things to say about the NRC. Although our active membership days may be over, we are not going away. We'll still be around!

Here is a graduation quote from the Knotty's:

"Don't cry because it's over. Smile because it happened."

SURFSIDE SOCIALITES
Reporter: Cheryl Rhine

This clan is not only social and committed, we love (I mean love) to dine out whenever possible. So, as any addict focused on their obsession, 13 of the group dined at one of Cape Coral's newest restaurants, Time to Eat Mediterranean Cuisine on Del Prado Boulevard. Opening nearly 3 months ago, this native Italian chef brought his talents westward from Miami where he mastered his culinary skills and now venturing out on his own culinary adventure. Our group was the first to arrive for evening cuisine but within minutes, other curiosity seeking patrons arrived and began to fill the room. Appetizers came out quickly as our waiter, Billy, had his hands full quickly but juggled from table to table to serve our needs. Alas, the main courses arrived front and center. Salmon, scallops, fettucine and likes of Mediterranean faire, were ripely delicious. Several of us partook in a lively dessert of coconut cream crepes. Best wishes to owner, Chef Adrien Meizoso, as this venue continues to arouse its awareness amongst restaurateurs. Our ladies luncheon was held on Thursday, June 25th at Island Café in Matlacha. What a wonderful dining experience overlooking the Matlacha Pass from the patio. The café opened this past February and has become a local's favorite. Unique to the menu is the "broasted fish sandwich". I recall broasted chicken from up north; the chef uses a pressure cooker in lieu of a deep fryer. This method produces significantly less oil to the finished product.

And boy is it good. So next time you're out visiting the Matlacha shops or heading out to Pine Island, stop by for some good eats! It was also great having Karen back from her daughter's in Texas and the likes of Marge and Marla. (Marla mother's was our special guest today – glad to have her join us.) We've missed you ladies, hope to see you again soon. But now Angela is off to Massachusetts until the end of August. Hurry back! Looks like we're thinking Slate's for our July dinner activity. Watch for notices.

Tropical Transplants
Reporter: Wendy O'Brien

Just like players on the PGA tour, the misty weather could not stop fourteen of us at Greenwells from finishing a round of Putt-Putt golf. All the holes played tough but we mastered the nineteenth hole at the Dug-Out grill with drinks and dinner. Fairways and Greens Everyone! With nature finally cooperating, the Peace River cruisers boated the waters and viewed several woodstork and rosetta spoonbill parents and chicks. It was fantastic fun including lunch at Nav-a-gator Grill. Speaking of lunch, several of the ladies enjoyed the Ladies Lunch at Misto's. Speaking of ladies, several of us laughed out loud at The Church Ladies performed at the Broadway Palm. Not everything is only fun and food. Several hardy souls jumped into their kayak and paddled the Matlacha Pass. I didn't go, but I will next time. I heard it was fantastic fun with no Olympic strength and endurance required. Although also not requiring Olympic strength and endurance, shuffleboard at the Yacht Club courts instead tested our skill and technique. I know we believe we are as good as we think we are, I think. Of course it was great fun, and of course drinks and good conversation followed at the Boathouse. Continuing our focus on fun and food, several Transplants tried out new golf courses and restaurants around the area, except for Wendy and Jay who spent time in the fabulous Florida Keys celebrating their daughter's wedding. There are still lots of people traveling and who I'm sure do miss our life in "Paradise". We miss our travelers and wish them a safe trip. The final don't miss activity for the Transplants in June was dinner, in lieu of a pot luck, at the recently open Ocean Breeze (a fun local eatery). Happy 4th of July!

Suns of Beaches
 Reporter: Linda Halliburton

Our group joined several groups at Sunset Celebration & danced, snacked & laughed until the sunset at beautiful SWF. It is always fun to see who show up. Ray is teaching new members the way to fish in Cape Coral. He has had several join him that is until he runs out of fishing poles. Bocce Ball is also catching on with the group. Nancy & Linda attended the Ladies Luncheon at the Hurricane Grill along with Leonard. No luck with the raffle at our table but the food was a winner with us. Ray, Nancy & Linda attended Cocktails on the Cape. We always meet so many new people. Shirley & Page did an outstanding job decorating the Dinner Dance theme "Crusin' for a Good Time". I think almost everyone had a nice evening. Ray, your food selection was yummy! With the majority of our group gone for the summer we have been invited by other groups to join in their fun. The Tropical Transplants invited us to a game of miniature golf and a lovely cruise on the Peace River. We were so excited to see so many birds. Good news - our friend Dean is back on his feet again. We also enjoyed the Cape Coral Mayor speaking to the NRC at our general meeting. Let's not forget to be prepared for the hurricane season. Hard to believe we are facing our second already. Let's keep on having fun!

Palms - a really great venue! Bruce and I got to know some of the Fun Seekers that night while we all enjoyed Seven Brides for Seven Brothers. The dance (Crusin' for a Good Time) brought out a lot of people from our group. Bruce, Page, Fred, Nita, Linda, Jim, and Cathy all had a great time. Also at our table were Carol and George (celebrating an anniversary) and they won the 50/50!! Cathy, Linda and Jim, Fred and Nita all won raffle prizes. There was a small gathering for a goodbye to Bonnie & Mac. We'll miss you guys! At our June meeting, we saw Margaret, Fred, Page & Bruce. The next night (last Sunset Celebration for a few months) just Page & Bruce from our group attended. Nita and Fred are busy packing and unpacking as they bought a new home. Lynn has a new knee (or is it hip?) and Margaret has had a shoulder operation...both very successful! That's the good news from Paradise Found. Dodge the lightning strikes and have a great month till the next newsletter!

Stevie Tomatoes: Where cocktails on the Cape was held last month. Our group had an amazing turnout: Bruce and I! Did we have fun? Of course! At the Sunset Celebration the next night, Bruce, Shirley & Wally, and Michelle were there and at the meeting Fred, Margaret, Bonnie, Mac, Wally, Shirley, Fran, Jill, Jill's husband all watched Bruce take the helm at his first meeting. I was running a fever and coughing like crazy. So bummed I missed it! At the ladies Lunch, Bonnie and Lynn won some of the great raffle prizes. Linda and Page attended as well. Hurricane's had a nice menu for us! NRC sponsored Broadway

The Wave Runners want to wish everyone a happy and safe summer. We have been busy choosing our summer agenda of activities. Our pot lucks have all been a blast. So many wonderful ideas for events coming from our group. We are doing cruises, fishing days, paddle wheeling and dinners at new restaurants. Congrats to Kathy, Rose and Carol on their new pools. I see you all have survived it. Gail has been in N.Y. visiting family and many of us have had company from our home states. Jim and I are happy to see some rain. It helps keep the pool full and flowers blooming. Looking forward to July celebrations. See you there.

Paradise Pelicans
 Reporter: Virena McElheney

The heat is on!!! With summer upon us, you might be noticing less traffic on the roads and in the stores these days. However, all of us Pelicans are full time residents in the Cape, so we're ready to keep this party going all summer long. We have so many activities scheduled this month that we won't be wondering what we're going to do. At the monthly NRC meeting, we had the honor and pleasure of hearing our Mayor, Marni Sawicki, speak on what's in the future plans for the Cape. We can expect our city to be growing in size and population as the word gets out on what a wonderful place it is to live. Snowbirds seems to turn into full-timers most of the time. On the 11th over half of the Pelicans enjoyed a night out at Anthony's on the Blvd, Comedy Club. We enjoyed a great dinner and much laughter all night. The comedian was hilarious! Our second Ladies Bunco Night is scheduled and we are all looking forward to having a great time. Winning or losing, we all have fun and laughter. It's the only place you can win by losing the most games...like I did last month. We are also looking forward to our next dinner/dance in June at the Cape Coral Yacht Club entitled "Beach Blanket Bingo". With all the beaches around us, we should feel right at home with this theme!

SEPT 2014
CAPE ESCAPES
 Reporter: Diane Kenney

Even though our group has dwindled for the summer, we are still here and playing. Some of us are even busier with relatives and friends coming to get their taste of the Cape. We are learning that our visitors come no matter their weather - rain, cold & snow or summer heat. I do know that the Cyrs have had family here this month. Susan and Leonard Brown win the prize for family that is staying the longest - at least a month. Grandkids are visiting, we all want them whenever we can have them! Some of our group who have traveled in June are the Cyrs to a graduation, Lyn Kaden to Atlanta for work, the Kenneys to Boston and then to Maine for a bridal shower and to visit their son, Janet Dayton on a cruise with her daughter and granddaughter, Dolores Walters and Carl Limmer to St Augustine for vacation and the Rozum's to Orlando to see the Rolling Stones. We just spent wonderful evening at Buon Appetito in Cape Coral for dinner. The Cyrs provided the wine and bruschetta. A variety of the menu was ordered from calamari, antipasto, salads, pasta, chicken, veal and seafood. Food was delicious! There were eighteen Cape Escapes Saturday evening including Marianne & Bob Cyr (our hosts), Sara & Lou Appelman, Linda & Dave Fairley, Lynn Kaden & Jim Fitzgerald, Diane & Herb Kenney Karen & Jim Rozum, Elena & Len Patke, Lyn & JP Puhek, Brenda Serbonich and Maria Vodala. A few of our group who are summer regulars had to miss because of their work or company. The Cape Escape ladies get together once a month at a local restaurant, but this month we are trying something different. Our monthly weekday lunches don't work for all since some of us still work. So in June, we are meeting at Lynn Kaden's home for brunch on a Saturday. Hope all of our women can make it. Wonder what goodies all will bring. The Kenneys attended the Cape's Hurricane Seminar at City Hall. They discussed emergency preparedness tips, evacuations, re-entry after hurricane, permits following an event and the upcoming weather season. Educational! Pick up your Hurricane Guide at Publix's. The seminar will be shown on the city's website. Be sure to watch! All the usual activities on the Cape are still going and we are too - bocce ball, bowling, golf, lunches, cocktails, dinner dance . . . You can find us at everything from farmer's markets to beach and bar. Look and you will find the Cape Escapes there! Those celebrating June birthdays are Dean Harrison (6/1), Susan Brown (6/3) and Betsy Keller (6/17). The upcoming July birthdays are Carl Limmer (7/5), Dave Fairley (7/14) and Diane Kenney (7/23).

NRC Group News

There are still some of us who don't admit to birthdays and won't tell me when. I guess that way, they can't get any older! We are planning ahead. Marianne Cyr will be in Altamonte Springs trying to win our USTA sectional match for Cape Coral Racquet Club. We wish her luck. July some of us will take one of the Fireworks Cruises in addition to our Pot Luck. We are also discussing group trips in the future, maybe to Key West. It is very nice being here in the Cape and getting to explore and experience all that Florida has to offer. Stay tuned!

LAUGHING GULLS
Reporter: Vickie Sullivan

By the time you read this, the year will be half over. Time really does fly when you are having fun. And having fun we are. The Gulls had a great time at the Ladies Luncheon at Hurricane Grill and Wings. Loretta, Liz, Janis, Tina, Margriet, LuAnne and Vickie all attended and LuAnne was lucky enough to win a door prize. Loretta, Liz, Tina, Tish, Vickie and Sully attended the Cruisin' for a Good Time Dinner/Dance. Everyone enjoyed the great meal and the wonderful entertainment.

Cocktails on the Cape at Buon Appetite was enjoyed by Mike, LuAnne, Sully and Vickie.

Hope to have more Gulls at the next one. A big thank you to Bob and Tina who hosted a great BBQ on Memorial Day. We hadn't been in the pool long when it started to thunder. We can still move pretty quickly when we need too. We enjoyed a wonderful breakfast buffet at Anthony's on the Boulevard for our May birthday celebration to celebrate Kathy's birthday. A big HAPPY BIRTHDAY to our June birthday folks:

Bob B., Margriet, Liz, and Robert. We had 16 Gulls that attended the June general meeting.

Barb, Mike, Jill, John, Pam and Gordon attended a food auction in Arcadia. I just want to know what's for supper and when do we eat??? A "flock of Gulls" ascended on the German/American Club. We had a big surprise awaiting us--Peter and Sandy are back for a visit. It was great seeing them and we are twisting their arms to get them to be "pelicans" and not "snow birds". We had a great time at the Club, we had dinner and then danced the evening and the calories away. Our June potluck was at Susanne's house with Al and Uli co-hosting. A big thank you to them and to everyone for all the wonderful food. Gulls are being seen at Bocce Ball, at the last Sunset Celebration for the summer and other fun functions. So now we have the Ladies Luncheon at Misto, the Beach Blanket Bingo Dinner/Dance and Cocktails on the Cape to look forward to. Lori and Bob had a fun weekend at Key West. Bob and Tina have purchased a new boat and Bob was up in Maryland doing some work on it to get it ready for them to sail it down here. John and Janis and LuAnne and Mike are visiting family and we look forward to having them return. Until next time: GULLS JUST WANT TO HAVE FUN.

NOV/DEC 2014
BEACH BRATZ
Reporter: Babz Maxwell

The die-hards of us, which will henceforth be referred to as the Florida AllAROUND TimerZ, or F A R T Z, for short, are just happier 'n a tornado in a trailer park, to announce the rains have finally arrived. Our crabgrass is lush and green again. Yes, I said it. CRABGRASS. Oh, I know they have charming monikers for it, like Floratam or St. Augustine Grass, but let's face it, folks, we're from the north, and up there we treat that crap like an ugly red-headed step-child. It was a blight and a scourge on our otherwise pristine lawns. And now I am paying some guy GOOD MONEY to GROW the stuff. Is this just sick and twisted or WHAT?? But, I digress. What's been newsworthy since our last report? Hmmmm....well, Tina, Leslie and I have officially taken our posts on Board 96. And we have decided some changes are in order. It's summer, after all, and should be more relaxed. So for the next several months, all NRC functions will be CLOTHING OPTIONAL. Yeah,....that's right. See what you're missing, snowbirds? And the July dinner/dance theme is BYOB--bring your own booze and BODY PAINT! John Harrington and Tom Driscoll have graciously offered to paint the gals. Way to go, guys, for stepping up to the plate. Speaking of NRC meetings, Tina walked off with no less than THREE prizes, which seemed incredulous to many, but not me, as she sits back there at the Board's table right next to the people in charge of the RAFFLE TICKETS! hmmm....coincidence?? I think not... We had a splendid potluck at Jack and Lisa Andrejko's home, in SPITE of the fact that they forgot to call the weatherman and cancel RAIN for the occasion, but we made the best of it. We scarfed down their bbq chicken and depleted Jack's liquor cabinet.

New Resident Club of Cape Coral

In need of a diversion, things turned ugly when we decided to make sport of Leslie Schmitt's Min a SO tah accent. This offered no end of merriment, as we fed her words to say, then listened to her slaughter them in canuck. (If you're THAT far north, you're a canuck.) As you all know, we have a group name, a group mascot, and now; a group WORD. And the word is WOODY. Utter this word and find yourself enveloped in guffaws. Again, you wimpy snowbirds, who head north just as things get a little steamy around here, will NEVER know our delicious little secret.

Speaking of weather, "scattered showers" takes on a whole new meaning down here. Forecasts are ludicrous and cannot be relied upon at all. In fact, if the local weatherman predicts with ANY amount of accuracy, it should be assumed that he is into WITCH-CRAFT. Check his backyard for pentagrams and a pile of dead goats. Interestingly enough, Jim Farrell of WINK news will be our featured speaker at the July NRC meeting. We should observe him cautiously, and wear garlic around our necks....just in case. Oh, wait, I think garlic is for warding off vampires. I've no idea how to ward off suspect forecasters.... Speaking of observations, Frank Catanese is getting on my nerves. In addition to being great at house renovations and building furniture, turns out he COOKS. From SCRATCH. SERIOUSLY?? Makes the rest of the BB guys look like a bunch of slackers. And as long as I'm fulminating, I also have a bone to pick with Jill Winchel. She posts this pic on FB of a monitor lizard, whilst casually mentioning she was BIKE riding when she saw it. It's just vulgar how she daintily shoved exercise in our faces. To further exacerbate the issue, she gloats that she's seen TWO of the behemoths. SERIOUSLY, JILL?? I've not even seen one frikkin' ALLEGATOR yet. But if I DO, it will certainly not be from the seat of a bike. No, it would be crossing the drive-thru at Culvers, and I will be so busy stuffing my face with trans-fats my fingers will be too slippery to push the stupid camera button on my phone to get the pic. Then no one will BELIEVE me, and THAT will irk me even more.... It was brought to my attention at the last potluck that I talk like a HICK and where on earth am I from. I WOULD be embarrassed about this, but knowing Pamela Alexander is an English teacher and has to endure this verbal scratching of fingernails on a blackboard, somehow gives me perverse pleasure. Can't you just see Pam, her glasses slid half-way down her nose, in some grade school English class using me as an illustration and saying, "Now, Jimmy, you KNOW every time you TALK like this, an angel's WINGS fall off..." Well, we did other stuff, but I didn't find it interesting, as it did not directly involve MOI, so I'm not going to write about it. If you don't like it, then FIRE me and get someone ELSE.

Oh, wait...I just remembered....you don't pay me, and tho you chuckleheads may whine and moan, you're all too lazy to do anything about it. Looks like you are stuck with MOI. You get what you pay for. Your Cape Coralism for the month: You KNOW you're from Cape Coral if: You have Ibis in your yard, Vultures on your roof, wolf spiders in the den, and lizards in the lanai! Until next month....stay FAB U LOUS!

JANUARY 2015 CORKSCREWERS

Reporter: Leslie Vaughan

Summer finds our group a bit smaller, but what we lack in numbers - we make up for in activities! We've been sending several Corkscrewers to play trivia, and they report having lots of fun! Our ladies have continued our new painting (and wine) hobby at The Painted Conch. We're really enjoying these girl's evenings out. Some of our fellows take the opportunity to get together for dinner out while the girls paint. (We think they might be jealous of the fun we're having!) A couple of us are looking forward to attending the baseball game. Let's hope for good weather! We bid a sad goodbye to The Sunset Celebration and will be happy to see it start up again. That's always such a nice afternoon and evening. It's certainly been a great summer so far!

MARCH/APRIL 2015

FUNSEEKERS

Reporter: Debbie Tkach

The Funseekers are certainly living up to their name. We have been together only a short time but are beginning to get to know each other better and have been enjoying various activities. 13 of us attended the May Dance; Kay, Julie, Jeff, Elegra, Jim, Lou, Jim, Bob, Cindy, Bob, Debbie, Ann and Rex. We had a great time. Ten of us attended Cocktails on the Cape at Buon Appetito café, Doris, Julie, Randy, Kay, Rex, Anne, Terry, Dana, Bob and Debbie. 24 of us attended our first potluck, hosted by Starr at Pignolli's at Cape Harbour where we enjoyed the outdoor view and beautiful sunset. Several people have attended Bocce Ball. Mike Pellerin and Cynthia Corbin went back to Maine and will be returning to the Cape in November. Prior to their leaving, their daughter Vicki moved to Cape Coral permanently. Hopefully Vicki will join the NRC also. Kay Atwood and Randy Wing took the Key West Express to Key West for a weekend in May. It was an easy and fun way to get there! They enjoyed their hotel, the Albury Court. Duval Street had great shops, galleries and restaurants. The trolley was a great way to see the whole area. They said that Hemingway's house is a must! They said the sunset celebration was a wild array of entertainment and their favorite restaurants were Louie's Backyard, The Tin Roof & A & B Lobster. Sure sounds like they had a great time.

Summertime, and the Living is Easy

July 2015

Last summer was Page's & my first in Cape Coral. We had only visited in Fall, Winter (if you can call it that), and Spring. We'd heard rumors about stifling heat and humidity coming in summer, but every-day turned out to be pretty much like the warmest week in CT. Some would say these are oppressively hot days, but I think they're some of the best days here in the Cape.

These lazy summer days come with the afternoon thunderstorms. Outdoor activities are best done earlier in the day or later in the evening. The warm days are an opportunity to explore indoor activities such as museums, movies, art, and exhibits.

Summer also signals the beginning of hurricane season. We've already had one named storm on the east coast, and with luck, all the coming storms will avoid this area. It's always wise to get ready for the season. Pick up one of the many of hurricane planning guides available. Take some time to prepare by laying in supplies, setting up a "go" bag, and familiarizing yourself with evacuation procedures and routes. Hopefully, all the planning will be for naught and we will be able to relax and continue to enjoy this paradise called Cape Coral.

This is also a great time to enjoy the New Residents Club! Since the snowbirds are gone, our groups are a little smaller, so you'll get to know the people who live here year round that much better. Consider adding people from other groups to your potlucks. Join in! Make plans, and enjoy the fabulous Cape Coral summers with your new friends! Try an activity you've not done before – Bowling & Bocce happen every week. This month there is a trip to Belushi's Comedy Club in Fort Myers, and we are all invited to join the Social Club on the 18th at their Summer Beach Party dance this month.
