PARADISE PELICANS

Reporter Virena McElheney

Summer is upon us and we will be getting into our wet season...or maybe I should say it is here. But as Paradise Pelicans we don't worry about the heat and rain...we are able to have fun even in the summertime. Actually, as I write this article, I am in Anaheim, California. We are here and it's freezing with their May Gray, June Gloom. It is nice and warm in the afternoon, but once the sun goes down so do the temps...in the 50's at night. Not liking that, since I only brought shorts and flip flops. We will be leaving soon heading back to the beautiful Cape. In my absence, I see on Facebook, and by texts and emails that the Pelicans are doing just fine and having lots of fun. There was a very exciting evening of music and dancing called the Cape Cabaret which many of the flock participated. Also many of the Pelicans decided to celebrate Memorial Day-weekend by having a Boat-A-Long. How fun is that? And some participated in the Critical Mass Bike club ride. The Pelicans always enjoy the monthly events of the Dinner Dance at the Yacht Club and the Ladies Luncheon at the fine restaurants around to the Cape. Twelve lady Pelicans always enjoy our monthly Bunco night out. I also heard the Pelicans Ladies are planning a fun evening out at the Broadway Palm to see Menopause the Musical. Darn, I really like that play and won't be able to attend. And as always, our monthly potluck in July will be a 4th of July pool and fireworks extravaganza at Bob and Barb's. Well, that about does it for this month's news, so until next time...See you around the Cape!!!

CAPE ESCAPES

Reporter: Diane Kenney

Rain, rain go away, Come again another day! Not really, I do love rain - either playing golf in it (which did this week since we were already out playing on the course), splashing in puddles or sitting inside or on your lanai watching it fall. I'm also looking forward to our gorgeous summer electrical storms. Not everyone may enjoy them as much as I, but I also am used to watching tornadoes sweep across Oklahoma. Always an impressive sight if it leaves your home, family and friends alone. Did the rain and storms stay away for the Kenney's Cook Out with Burgers & Brats on Fathers' Day weekend? Nice to have friends to be with when you can't be with your kids. Some of those enjoying the cookout were Sarah & Lou Appelman, Theresa Beringer and her daughter Gina, Donna & Earle Boothe, Lin & Dave Fairley, Diane & Herb Kenney, Karen & Jim Rozum, Andrea Cast and Brenda Serbonich. Also joining the gathering were golfing friends Rex & Kathy Rodenbaugh, Betty & Randy Wethington, Roy & Laura Tackett, Mary & George Pirich, Libby & Bill Krumley and Barb Cohen. Theresa Beringer had gone up north for the summer, but couldn't stay away. She was back in June for 3 weeks with her daughter Gina. Donna & Earl Boothe are back from house sitting in The Villages, thinking of moving there. The Kennys are back from babysitting their grandson in Texas. JP Puhk was spending time in the Philippines visiting family. Marianne Cyr moved to North Carolina but came back for a visit. Some of our ladies and other friends got together to celebrate Susan Brown's birthday at Perk & Brew. We are going to be getting together early one morning to recognize our friends' birthdays each month. Birthdays in June were Dean Harrison 6/1, Susan Brown 6/3 and Theresa Beringer 6/12. Those celebrating in July are Carl Limmer 7/5, Dave Fairley 7/14 and Diane Kenney 7/23. Happy Birthday to All, and we'll see you next month!

LAUGHING GULLS

Reporter: Vickie Sullivan

Well, it's official summer is here and it is hot and steamy. Coming from Texas, I can take the heat but this humidity.....

They say you will get used to it but THEY didn't say how long it will take. The Gulls have been enjoying all the NRC activities and more. LuAnne, Loretta, Janis, Nancy, Linda and Vickie enjoyed the Ladies Luncheon at Stevie Tomatoes. Nancy won two raffle prizes. Way to go Nancy. Our May Pot Luck was hosted by Jill and John. John fried some turkeys for us and they were delish. We enjoyed Cocktails on the Cape at Monarca's. Attendees included Jill, John, Janis, John, Barb, Mike, Lori, LuAnne, Mike, Sully and Vickie. We had 11 Gulls that attended the Jun General Membership Meeting. A flock of Gulls enjoyed dinner and Menopause the Musical at the Broadway Palm--Barb, Mike, Jill, John, Gordon, Pam, Lori, Lori's sister Mickey, LuAnne, Mike, Sully and Vickie. Loretta and Liz also attended. It was hilarious. Unfortunately, most of the ladies in attendance could relate. Our Jun pot luck was hosted by Ray and Nancy who made some wonderful mango salsa. They also offered (okay so they begged) everyone to take some mangoes as their tree was loaded. We celebrated our Jun birthdays: Bob B. (9 Jun), Liz (18 Jun). The Jun Ladies Luncheon at Misto's was a sparkling success. All of the ladies in their tiaras, boas, etc., was quite a sight. LuAnna, Linda, Liz, Loretta, Nancy and Vickie attended. LuAnne won two raffle prizes and Nancy won one. Our Ladies Tops Down group are planning an invasion to Sun Splash in Jun. Watch out here we come. We have some folks that are travelling this summer and we wish them a safe and wonderful trip and look forward to you coming back. Remember GULLS JUST WANT TO HAVE FUN.

 BEACH BRATZ
 Reporter: Babz Maxwell

Wow, did I hit a nerve last month when I whined about the local drivers! I could have written a book on your own horror stories, but I'm pretty certain, you prefer to know what I think. And I think we need to dig deeper and look at the pervasive mental state of Floridians which in general, would be crazy. Bath salt crazy. 3 AM Wal Mart crazy. Here's the deal: We Floridians spend the year round basking in sunshine on the beach, boating and fishing, and just generally cavorting about in minimal but brightly clad attire. Up north, you spend 5 months digging out of snowbanks, only to arrive at Spring, with all it's copious rains, and allergies. Glorious summer arrives, but you've barely got the boat out and the pool chemicals balanced, when it's time to cover it all up again, because fall is here, and you've got leaves to rake, and dead garden plants to compost. So to defend their plight and motives for staying up THERE, they feel justified in defaming US. Jealousy rears its ugly head when our state's citizens are referred to as lawless, politically corrupt, drug dealing, gun-totin', exhibitionist suicide-driving, senile old codgers. (And just for the record, I'm from Illinois, where the last 2 governors are in prison and Obama's senate seat was offered up for sale, so don't tell ME about corrupt!) Anyhow, back to Florida: let's toss together a mix of tourists, immigrants, and snowbirds, a smattering of rednecks and crackers, a healthy dose of heat and humidity, and just a dash of hurricane, and you have ground zero for crazy. We can't help it. It's the time of year we claim our state bird is the mosquito. Looking around, it appears we pledge allegiance to Tommy Bahama and Guy Harvey. We are besieged with lizards, but don't mind, because they keep the population of large spiders in check. Snakes freely slither across our well-manicured crabgrass, we boast a yearly python hunt in the Everglades, and brag about alligator sightings. The north has their blizzards and tornadoes, but we are the lightning capital of the nation, and we have HURRICANES. They have ants, we have FIRE ants. They have cockroaches, we have Palmetto bugs, which can FLY, and are the size a Prius!. Next month I will bring you some of my favorite Florida's Billboard Top 40 of crazy. But now, on to Bratz business. John H's surgery was a success, and he is up home recuperating. Corrine L. is also home now, and doing really well! John and Angie Rall hosted a wonderful June potluck and July's will be at Tom Reiser's. July birthdays are Corrine Larson, Jim Martin, Mike Maxwell, Tom Reiser, Mark Griswold ,and Ann Cook. Our snowbirds have absconded to the north, but we pelicans will forge ahead, and do as best we can, as we lounge by the pool, cold drink in hand, soaking up the sunshine. Stay Fab-u lous, Bratz!

 CORKSCREWERS
 Reporter: Leslie Vaughan

Sum-sum-summertime! We've weathered tropical storm Colin, and we hope for a quiet storm season from here on out! As usual, the Corkscrewers are staying busy and enjoying Paradise. Our golfers are golfing. Our dancers are dancing. Our travelers are traveling. We're getting together for food and fun. Once a week or so, several in our group get together to hit buckets of balls. Not a bad way to spend a morning. Most Tuesdays, a growing number of the group meet at the Lake Kennedy Center for dancing lessons. They must be pretty good by now, since they've been enjoying this activity for several weeks now. We continue our fun pot luck dinners. The last one was at Jerry and Lola's lovely home with a Cajun theme. Lots of delicious food, as always. Several of us have traveled to visit family and friends. Several of us have had visitors. That's always great! Four of us went on a pretty darn fantastic trip recently. We flew to Spain. Boarded a beautiful ship. Took a 10 day Mediterranean cruise...then spent an extra day in Athens before flying home. We visited Spain, France, Italy, Greece and Turkey. Each country was unique and wonderful in its own way. We all agreed that we'd like to go back and spend more time, especially in Greece. Gorgeous. Now we look forward to the lazy, hazy days of July and more great times to come!

We had a great time with great food and lots of laughs. Larry Day is recovering very well after having quadruple bypass surgery. He thanks his many Flip Flop friends who visited him in hospital and at home. Have a great month!

FUNSEEKERS

Reporter: Julie Green

Thanks so much to Terry and Dana for hosting our May Potluck! Thanks so much to Bob and Debbie for hosting our June Potluck! Our group is the definition of Funseekers!! Debbie and Bob had friends from Buffalo over for dinner while they were in Ft Myers for a month. It was good to see them and catch up with all the news from back North. We enjoyed a delightful afternoon seeing Dirty Dancing at Barbara Mann Theatre. It was a great performance. Debbie's good friend from Buffalo came for a week to visit. It was a wonderful, relaxing time. They visited Flea Masters, attended our monthly NRC meeting and to the Boat House for lunch afterwards with many of the Funseekers, Ft Myers Beach, Cape harbor for a night of song and dance, toured the Wicked Dolphin Rum Distillery, had the famous wings (just like Buffalo's) at the Dek and went to Naples for the day for shopping and dinner. It was sad to see her go, but her and her husband will definitely be back. She loved it down here and loved meeting our friends. Bob and Debbie also entertained their neighbors from Germany who were here for a visit along with other neighbors. Went to the Florida Conservancy in Naples. They enjoyed it so much that they became members! They had a relaxing boat ride before going for a wonderful lunch. Headed down to historic Ft. Myers for the last Car Cruise until the fall. Great day even though it sprinkled. Enjoyed drinks with our friends at the Sky Bar and watched a beautiful sunset. Enjoyed Cocktails on the Cape at Monarca's. Lots of Funseekers there. A few of us were brave and tried to enjoy the last sunset celebration, but chickened out when it started to lightning! Had a great time with our Corvette friends in going to the Rev's Institute in Naples and then lunch at Spanky's Speakeasy Restaurant. Clowned around with our friends at the Ringling Brothers Museum. They are truly enjoying life down here!! Anne wrote Girls lunch at Iguana Mia attended by Terry, Anne, Julie, Kay, Starr, Elegra and Cyndi. NRC Ladies lunch was women of Florida and Terry won again with prize awarded after the event! Attending was Doris, Terry, Anne, Cyndi and Joanne. Anne and Rex also made a quick trip up to Cape San Blas their old home in the panhandle and got in some beach time, visits with friends and medical appointments in Panama City. Terry and Dana drove their 68 Camaro to a car show in the Cape and met up with other Funseekers for adult beverages! They spent a weekend in Palm Harbour with their oldest son and his wife at the Parrot Head Festival. It started with a pool party with a group of their friends then moved to the fest. Needless to say, after leaving the fest and returning to their house Terry and Dana went to bed and left the "kids" to play in the pool! Jeff went up to Jersey for a weekend and then spent a weekend in Nashville. Julie was up in Jersey last weekend to attend her future daughter-in-laws bridal shower and have a dress fitting. Wound up the weekend with her sister and brother-in-law in Princeton enjoying Martinis! Lots of activity but the one thing all the Funseekers agree on is it's great to get back home to the Cape.

SUN RAYS

Reporter- Barb Swann

By the time you read this, Cape Coral should be in the middle of the hot..ter season. Air conditioners will be running and activities may be limited during the afternoon hours. But there are still plenty of things to do inside air conditioning and in the evenings. Travel is still a large part of the Sun Rays' ventures. Jane has been to NH as well as NY, and the grandbabies have been to the Cape. Enjoy being a Grandma! Tina has been to Europe and NYC and has safely returned. Ceil has been north, see below, and is planning a couple more trips before it cools off. As for me, Barb, I actually went to Ft. Myers, crossed that mighty river, and made it back in one piece! Bowling and Bocce are still the sports of choice, and, of course, eating. Potluck with Louise is coming up and hopefully a Ladies Luncheon for the Sun Rays. A couple folks attending the Hibiscus Show in Ft. Myers, and others walked the trail at Pop Ash Preserve in North Ft. Myers. Anthony's Comedy Night had good Sun Rays' attendance, lots of laughs and good food. Elaine & Joe enjoyed Elaine's family visiting; "both daughters, son-in-law and 3 of her 4 teenage grandsons, full house. Boys want to camp out on the lanai. We've done so much to the outside of the house, including painting it a different color, I wonder if they will be able to find it!" From Ceil and Rich: Took a 2 week road trip with my sister stopping in NC, NJ & MA. Great time visiting family. Enjoyed a BBQ/ pool party on Mothers Day with 9 other Sun Rays. Had an enjoyable day. Attended the NRC mtg, Marlene's pot luck on the 14th, went to movie to see Money Monster starring George Clooney & Julia Roberts, began bowling followed by lunch with others from NRC and this month's dinner dance. We've also started heading to local beaches since snow birds headed back north...Sanibel Island last week & heading to Boca Grande this week. Love the beach! We had a BBQ for family members who are heading back to MA for the summer.

July 2016

HULA HOOTERS
Reporter: Alan Poland

Life is very good as a Hooter. Ask any Hooter and we will tell you how lucky we are to land in Cape Coral when we did to burrow together with a diversified group of fun and sun lovers. We are a flock that cares about and helps each other. We open our nests to hold pot luck dinners that feature wing licking good food and fellowship. We give a hoot about trivia which we play twice a week and as the Hula Hooters team, we have fun even if we don't win. We go to dances together and our Lady Owls dress up for fancy luncheons. Hooters even took a group bike ride to lunch and back. And we have lots of fun in the sun at the beach. There is always a hoot here or there to be heard. The neat thing about our flock is that when members have a problem, they can count on many offers of help from the others. Even our Chief Hooter, Gary and his bride Marne, while on their trip to the Wild West, joined with many others to reach out a helping wing to another owl couple in need of a temporary nest. Our Facebook nest, updated by Activities Director Charlie, serves as a place for Hooters to post announcements, photos, and schedules, so we all are on the same flight path. Hoot, Hoot,..... As Owl Bobby always hoots "Life is Good"

CORAL CAPERS
Reporter: Kim Garrity

This past month as been a busy one for our group. Our BBB ladies group met for lunch at the Nauti Parrot, the following evening Jean and Tom Klein held the monthly potluck in their beautiful new home with a very good turn out. Julie, Mark, Jean, Tom, Jeannie and Kim all met for Cocktails on the Cape at Monarca's, the food and drinks were wonderful. Linda and John Lamp had won an evening at the Dixie Roadhouse on June 3, they had a great turn out from the CoralCapers group. Good food and fun was had by all. The Coral Capers already have plans for the rest of this month and have become good friends.

NAUTI CRABS
Reporter: Chris Gust

When you think retirement most folks think relax and enjoy however our past leader was so busy she needed to resign - in comes Bob Hayden to the rescue. Bob volunteered to lead the Nauti Crabs in his usual vibrant way. Thanks Bob! We have all experienced the snow bird effect, the Nauti Crabs are experiencing the sun bird effect. Several couples of our group have headed north to escape the heat, humidity, and rain. We look forward to their return. When you approach the Florida state line there should be a sign that states WARNING 10 extra pounds will soon be yours. Why you ask - join the Nauti Crabs they have more fun, food and beverage is always involved in their activities. The ladies of our group are enjoying the Ladies Luncheons especially when Babz is entertaining. Games, prizes, and food what could be better. We are looking forward to the next 3 course luncheon. (Add 2 pounds) Our last potluck hosted by Kim and Bob Hayden was fabulous. (Add 1 pound) What another potluck! Nauti Crabs next potluck hosted by Kim and John Krugel is entitled Naut a Potluck potluck. (Add another) A group of Crabs gather together for dinners on the town. They enjoy discovering new places and great menus. Others celebrate birthdays for the month. The heat doesn't keep us from having fun. Rain and wind doesn't hinder us from enjoying the last Sunset on the Beach. Music, dance, and friends whoop whoop! The more you get to know your group the more exciting things you discover. Remember the 60's where peace and love where abundant of course you do. Well far out man as one of our Crabs lived in California at the time and has many colorful stories. I could have listened all night. Right-on Another Crab had a very interesting profession - he was a knife grinder. A What - if you have ever used a dull knife you can only appreciate a guy that can keep them sharpened. My latest discovery - we have two exceptional artists. Both with differing styles but what talent. I can't even trace. Teachers, we have several. These Crabs have nerves of steel but hearts of gold. I can't wait to hear the next history lesson from our group.

July 2016

NO EGRETS

Reporter: Nancy Arey Cohen

Although half of the group has headed north for the summer, the year-round members are almost making us wish we hadn't left. Raylene and Larry reported a freak snowstorm in MAY in WI. They're fixing their house up to sell. Linda is fixing her MN place up to sell also. Denise and Bill reported that they enjoyed Fawn Creek winery in WI. Cate and John are opening their summer place on Lake Minnetonka in MN. Nancy is updating her new house in ME and heading to MN for her son's wedding. Ron is running back and forth between Canada and Cape Coral. His motto is "Make Someone Happy" and he is living up to it. Cate, Linda, and Nancy are getting together in MN. The first NoEgrets Book Club meeting was a fun event. Lori, Susan, Juelene, Linda, and Jayne discussed All the Light We Cannot See by Anthony Doerr. Next month's book will be The

Nest by Cynthia D'Apria Sweeney. Lori formed a "task force" to investigate happy hours around town. She and Lea selflessly visited several happy hour spots and reported back to the group via Facebook posts and photos. Mike and Susan hosted a potluck barbecue pool party and everyone enjoyed a rousing game of "Getting to Know You". Johnny's shark watermelon was a big hit and it was suggested that he should be the official "play with your food" person. In the aftermath, Cate posted that she was looking for the owner of a pair of boxer-briefs that she found in her bag. (The owner was later identified but his name will be withheld to protect the innocent.) Andy, Lea, and Lori's visit to Cape Caberet established it as a fun place for the group to return to at a later date. Drinks, dancing, and laughter – a theme is developing here. Over Memorial Day weekend, Lea and Andy hosted a pool party for those who were in town. The party got a little wild as a noodle fight broke out. Johnny, Ron, Andy, and Todd drenched the pool deck, and water even found its way into the house! Who started it? HmMMMM Trivia!!!! NoEgrets established themselves as the winners yet again, and then held onto the title the next week. It was a big team, considering all of the snowbirds who have flown north – a dozen players! A fun time was had by all at Monarcha on the 31st. Details were few, which usually means – you guessed it – drinking, eating, and laughter. The weather for First Wednesday at the beach was threatening, but a few intrepid souls went anyway and had what? A lot of drinking, eating, and laughs before the lightning got worse. As "Colin" approached Southwest Florida, lots of pictures were posted of canals coming up over the docks, pools overflowing, and trees blowing. Fortunately, Colin headed north, though, and everyone made it through with little damage – just "flotsam and jetsam." LOL The monthly No Egrets Big Night Out To Dinner was at Seven Oaks Restaurant this month. Those who went enjoyed a nice selection of seafood, steaks, pasta, and Neopolitan pizza baked in a wood-fire oven along with drinks and laughs. Comedy Night received mixed reviews – from "comedian was very good" to "Worst. Comedian. Ever." Whether they liked the entertainment or not, Mike, Susan, Tammy, Todd, and Lori had a great time. Bocce continues to be a favorite on Wednesdays, followed by visits to local bars/restaurants. Lori found the perfect quote for this NoEgrets group: "Life is all about finding people who are your kind of crazy." (Mermaid Musings) I think we've found them in Cape Coral.

NRC MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

June 2016
Pat McCoy
President, Board 98

Greetings NRC Members and NRC Graduates!

In 1967, Helen Peck was appointed President of the New Residents Club of Cape Coral. With the induction of Board 99, the New Residents Club will be entering its' 50th year Anniversary!! There aren't many social clubs that can boast 50 years! Our Club has a long standing tradition of welcoming newcomers, building lasting friendships and creating great memories! What a great bunch of people! What a great organization!

We have only been able to continue these great efforts due to the many, many members who have volunteered to lead and guide the Club over the past 49 years. It is now time for new individuals to step up and lead our Club into the future.

As you know, each Board's term is only 6 months in length. July marks the mid-term mark for Board 98. This month, a nominating committee will be appointed to recruit Board 99 members. Please consider volunteering for a Board position! Many of you have expressed your ideas and voiced your opinions on how to continue to make the NRC the best club for new residents of Cape Coral. Now is the time to put those thoughts and ideas into practice. I encourage you to get involved! Talk to any of the current or past Board members, review the various job descriptions and complete an application! Everyone has special talents and skills that can contribute to making our Club fabulous! A position on the Board is a fabulous way to meet people and to contribute to this wonderful Club!

And a special word to the newest members. Many of the past Board members were only members of the Club for 2-4 months before volunteering for a Board position. Please do not shy away from volunteering because of your newness in the Club. You will truly enjoy the experience!

To Friends, Fun and Laughter!
