JANUARY 2015 CORKSCREWERS

Reporter: Gail Brown for Leslie Vaughan

The Corkscrewers have had a busy Spring, so far! We look forward to getting our new shirts, which will be coming soon! Thanks, Gail Brown, for taking care of that for our group! Several of our ladies have discovered their inner artist. We've gone to two Wine and Canvas events this month and had the BEST time! If you've not done that, you should. As the instructor said - the more wine you drink, the better your painting looks! Our potluck hosts this month were John and Linda Kamysz. The theme was Italian, and WOW! Did we ever have some wonderful food. Cocktails on the Cape is a favorite activity, and our group is always well represented. Do we see a trend developing? Wine? CHECK! Food? CHECK! Fun? Oh heck

COME TO GAME NIGHT!

LOTS OF FUN!

This month is June 4th
at Dublin Ale House.

We are small but we won't give up! Had a wonderful cookout at Kathy and Mike Nelson's home. About 12 of us were able to make it.

Since many of us are snow-birds it's tough to keep it going but we are sailing forward. Next month we will meet at Uli and Alzira's home and in a couple months Becky and I will be able to entertain once we close on our new pool home! See you at the monthly meeting!

Knotty Nauticals
Reporter: Evelyn Ferguson

August/Sept. 2013:
SURFSIDE SOCIALITES
Reporter: Cheryl Rhine

Wow! Two years ago the Knotty's were just arriving on the door step of the NRC. It is hard to believe that next month we will graduate. The month of May has sped by. We were glad to see Diana Fleming return from her babysitting gig in New Jersey. We were sad to see the Dugener's leave for six weeks of work obligations in Michigan. Other out-of-town adventures included a visit to Venice Beach by the Corey's and a trip along the New England coast by the Ehret's. There are three celebrations in our group this month. Two birthdays - Steve Corey and Marshall Ferguson and a 47th wedding anniversary. Congratulations to Mike and Connie Ehret. Oh yes! The celebrations are taking place in Key West. About town NRC activities include the addition of Joyce W and Danny at Bocce and a fairly consistent group of Knotty's at Nemo's Bowling on Thursday. After weeks and weeks of gutter balls rumor has it Evelyn finally got a decent score. Other places the Knotty's were spotted include the Monkey Bar, Tennessee Still and The Twisted Vine in Ft. Myers. If you are out on your boat be sure and keep an eye out for Louis. Rumor has it he and Chuck caught and released two sharks recently. Finally, our June Pot Luck was hosted by Evelyn and Marshall. Our July Pot Luck will be at the Corey's.

The Socialites kicked off May with a dine-out feast at Rib City on the 2nd. The ribs and other delicious barbecue entrees were definitely kicking! The gang enjoyed themselves as usual, since the whole purpose of our group is to eat – right? (well not exactly, but it sure makes for a strong motivation). We do love our food and enjoy trying a wide array of cuisine and palate varieties. But did you know that Rib City, according to its owners, started as a small family-style barbecue operation in 1989 on U.S. 41 in Fort Myers, later opening its second restaurant in Cape Coral in 1990. Now today with 13 restaurant locations in four counties, Floridians (and visitors from all over the world) can enjoy Rib City's® award-winning Baby Back Ribs, which over 2 decades have become "The Ribs That Legends Are Made Of..." Makes your mouth water, huh? May 19th, seven Surfside Socialites ladies gathered for lunch at the recently opened Pickled Parrot on Santa Barbara Blvd. Grilled chicken and crab cake topped salads were two of the more popular meal choices. Everyone agreed that the meals were fresh and delicious, staff was helpful and attentive, and that a return visit for dinner was a good idea. Several of us wandered to the Adirondack Chocolate store nearby to purchase sweets and the store specialty--chocolate with bacon. (It was good--that salty/sweet combo like pretzels and ice cream – yum!) Can't wait to see what is on board for the month of June with our Socialite friends. Stay tuned.

I'm sure you've all heard of the "cruise to nowhere"... well, that's kind of what happened last month to us. Our Peace River Nature Cruise did not go anywhere ~ it was cancelled at the last minute due to rain. We are going to try again to schedule this expedition for May 30th. Fingers crossed! Our group is also hoping to have a miniature golf outing at Greenwell's with drinks and appetizers in lieu of the monthly potluck. Should be fun and suit our group to a tee! Speaking of golf, several of us are playing weekly and enjoying the pretty weather together (even if the golf isn't pretty). Some of us played Trivia this month at Nemo's ~ no big winners but a good time was had by all. The Ladies Luncheon at Hurricane Grill was, as usual, a great way to see each other and enjoy an afternoon with the girls. Happy June!
 PS Sharrie Killion will be taking over the Reporter job for me since I will be going back to DE for a few months. Thank you, Sharrie!

Congratulations to the NRC Boat Regatta Team for a job well done! How cute was it we all had on those "hippie" shirts cheering on our great team. Ron & Ruth brought their boat over for the two day event. They had the best seats & could even be in the shade. After the boat race things got pretty quiet for the Suns of Beaches. We did join a large group to help celebrate Wally's 60th birthday. That was lot of fun also. We have started meeting with other groups to have "fun in paradise" while the snow birds are gone. We all enjoy meeting new people and sharing ideas. Our friend, Dean, has been a little under the weather. Keep both he & Karolyn in your thoughts and prayers. We are looking forward to the new board and our first dinner dance. Wish us luck!

PARADISE FOUND
 Reporter: Page Flourmoy

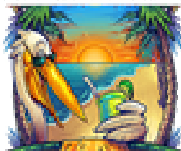

Page, Sheri and Bonnie sat with some of the Fun Seekers at our April Ladies Lunch. Sheri and Bonnie won prizes... next time for me?? The cardboard boat regatta was that weekend and I wonder if we could possibly have had more fun! Tom, Bruce and Page raced and won first and seconds. The boats themselves won many awards and we laughed and bonded till the cows came home. What a great day!! I know we were cheered on by Bonnie and Mac, Fred and Nita and many wonderful NRC friends. Bonnie, Mac, Fred and Bruce and I went out to celebrate Nita's birthday at Micheli's and that night ran into many other NRC Birthday celebrators and Chris Weeks who joined us. At the April in Paris Dance, our table was filled with Linda and Jim, Nita and Fred, Shirley and Wally, Bruce and Page and later, Michelle. What a GREAT band! In the middle of the dance, Bruce became President, Shirley became second VP and Page became Past Board Advisor. I'm so proud of our group's representation! Bonnie and Mac hosted a fabulous pool party/BBQ potluck!! Marci, Michelle, Cathy, Margaret, Linda and Jim, Nita and Fred, Shirley and Wally, Sherri and Tom were all there and enjoyed a lovely afternoon. Thank you guys so much!! At the May meeting, Bonnie and Mac, Linda and Jim, Fred and Nita, Michelle, Shirley and Fran watched Bruce run the meeting for his first time. Well done! The next night at the Sunset Celebration, Shirley and Wally, Fred and Nita, Linda and Jim were there having a great time!

NRC Group News

Wally had a milestone birthday celebration on Cinco de Mayo (could it get any better?) and Page headed to CT to spend Mother's Day and tour Martha's Vineyard. Nita also returned to CT to lay her Mom to rest and be with family. We are heading into Memorial Day Weekend Cape Coral style! So looking forward to all the fun activities this summer!

Bunco before so this ought to be a blast. So ladies let's see who will be the big winners in May. We are also looking forward to our next dinner/dance on May 23rd at the Cape Coral Yacht Club entitled "Crusin' For A Good Time". Seems like we are always cruising for a good time in the Cape!

 Reporter: Virena McElheney

As May rolled in many of the Pelicans had a great time at a Kentucky Derby party hosted by Doug & Dinah. We watched the exciting, less than 3 minute, race and then returned to food and fun. The following day two couples were generous and invited the Pelicans to a day of boating on the waters at Sanibel Island. We loaded up two boats and headed out with lots of food and drinks. The waters were a little choppy, but we all got in to splash around and cool off. Many thanks to Trish & Peter and Bob & Barb for the great day in and on the water. Then on May 8th we had our monthly potluck at Bob & Karen's beautiful home. It just so happened that it was also Bob's birthday and VE Day. So everyone wore their Red, White & Blue patriotic colors to honor our service men and women, past and present. Along with Bob's birthday, we also celebrated Doug and Joe's May birthdays. It was a wonderful get together as we all look forward to seeing each other and catching up on new and exciting things we're able to do since moving to the Cape.

Twelve of our Lady Pelicans have decided to have some more fun and organized a Ladies Bunco Night Out. Most of us haven't played

CAPE ESCAPES
 Reporter: Diane Kenney

Leonard & Susan Brown were expected at the dinner, but since her work hours were changed this week, they were unable to attend. So Leonard came (on the auspice of taking photos as NRC's Historian) to our Ladies Lunch at Miceli's on Monday instead. He joined in all the gossip! We don't really talk about those who aren't there. There is talk enough discussing what's happening in our own lives. Remember Leonard, you are welcome to join us anytime! Those at the lunch besides Leonard were Linda Fairley Lynn Kaden, Diane Kenney, Elena Patke, Karen Rozum and Brenda Serbonich. They are our new Communication Committee.

NRC Group News

Congratulations! Besides catching up on everyone's activities at the lunch, we brainstormed how to get more of our group to communicate. Need to know who is around in summer and when people travel, and we also want to be there for them when something unexpected happens. We are your new "family" in SW Florida. So... Cape Escapes, give a quick call or email to keep us posted. We want to be there for you! Send questions and info todiane@purefire.com. Some Cape Escapes did escape from the Cape recently. The Rozum's went to Denver to visit their daughter, Brenda Serbonch visited hers in Manhattan, the Kenney's to Oklahoma City for their grandson's 1st birthday and reunions with family and friends. Theresa Beringer left for a family wedding and also graduation. Susan & Leonard Brown have a new family member - Yuki, a Tibetan Terrier. Yuki means happiness. When their family arrive the end of May for a visit, Yuki will be a hit. The Kenney's are leaving again briefly for Boston and Baileys Island, ME for a wedding shower and to visit their son's new home. We have been traveling, but keep coming back home! This month, we have attended the NRC general meeting, gone to Cocktails on the Cape, Trivia Night, bocce ball, Sunset Celebration and the Dinner Dance. All this besides volunteering, tennis, golf, fishing and spending time on our boats! We are adapting to our new lifestyle and our new homes! Our May wishes go to Marianne Cyr and Maria Vodola both celebrating on 5/23. They both are 39 and counting. Numbers do reverse at a certain point. Don't know if we have any June birthdays, if so, Happy Happy Birthday! Let me know when yours is if you haven't.

LAUGHING GULLS
 Reporter: Vickie Sullivan

The weather has certainly gotten warmer and I am enjoying the reduced traffic out on the roads. Don't know where the time goes. Can't believe that by the time you read this May will be over. We've been busy little Gulls this month. We had a great time at our April potluck hosted by Loretta and Liz. Loretta, Ed, Nancy, Vickie and Sully attended the In and Out Dinner Party at Anthony's honoring the outgoing board members and welcoming the incoming board. We had 17 Gulls that attended the May monthly meeting. Gulls have been seen having dinner and dancing at the Moose Club; playing Bocce Ball, enjoying the beautiful sunsets at the Sunset Celebration and kicking their heels up at Dixie Roadhouse. A group of Gulls got together and enjoyed a fun evening having dinner at Perico's. Gulls had a good time at the Quarter Auction at the Italian American Club. We also boarded the Franklin Locks Cruise ship sailed through the locks and had a great lunch buffet. The scenery was beautiful, the weather was great and a good time was had by all. Gordon will be booked as entertainment on future cruises. He worked hard getting some of the other folks out on the dance floor. The ladies had a good time doing some of the line dances. Our May potluck at Mike and LuAnne's was great. A big thank you to them for having us all over to their lovely home and to everyone for the delicious food we enjoyed. Looking forward to seeing Gulls at our upcoming events: Ladies Luncheon, Cruisin' For a Good Time Dinner Dance and Cocktails on the Cape. I want to wish our Gulls that will be traveling this summer a safe trip and hurry back we'll miss you.

New Resident Club of Cape Coral

NOV/DEC 2014
BEACH BRATZ
 Reporter: Babz Maxwell

Well, half of our BB flock has turned to northern re-climes...so it's slim pickins for subject matter. As I see it, I either sit here and make up lies, or put surveillance equipment in your homes. So if you are going to get your puritanical knickers in a twist over a little harmless snooping, I suggest you keep me well informed of your comings and goings. Otherwise... The "official" story for the NRC breakfast is that we were entertained by a bunch of 3rd graders. What REALLY happened is that we learned how to make hootch in our bathtubs. And, oh, yeah, the CHIP-PENDALE DANCERS were there...yeah,... that's right...see what you are missing?? Next month we are learning how to print our own money! Really looking forward to that one.... We had a blast at the April in Paris dance. Jay Schmitt can really cut a rug, and I have the video footage to prove it! I will let any of you see it for free. Jay, if you DON'T want to see it posted on YouTube, we will discuss appropriate remunerations later. I also have some deliciously embarrassing photos of Tom and Sue D trying to look suave. For the right price I can bury them as well. (Hey. We ALL find our own ways to make some extra scratch. And I'm basically lazy, so don't mock mine.) Most of our monthly festivities won't occur until after this goes to print, and by then I won't remember or care. But since we have limited news, I must find other ways to entertain you. (i.e. fill my quota of space in the newsletter) So here's a fun fact: We are all anxiously awaiting the rains, as our lawns are drier than a potluck at an AA meeting. But wait. NOW they tell us the rains bring out the dreaded Cane toads, or Bufo toads. They are the Titanic Toads from Hell, weighing in at up to 2 pounds. If our pets lick them, they will die a hideous, torturous death. If we touch them, we will be poisoned. If we look directly into their beady little demon eyes, we will soil ourselves in sheer terror. They also have no natural enemies. WHAAT?? What on earth do we have all these ALLIGATORS for?? They should be good for SOMETHING!

Honestly, how much trouble would it be for one of those leathery leviathans to occasionally saunter into our yards and snarf down a couple of the little blighters? Is that too much to ask?? What about pythons?? Shouldn't toads be a part of their balanced diet? Isn't that in their food pyramid? I think someone should be looking into a condiment that could be sprinkled over them to make the toad more palatable. Perhaps I should be exploring these options. Then I could afford a BOAT, and maybe catch some stupid FISH which have COMPLETELY eluded me. Yeah, I could call it "Babz' Bufo Sauce and Seasonings". If you are the enterprising sort and want in on the ground floor, talk to me at the next potluck. Cash only, please.

You MAY be from Cape Coral if: You've discovered WaWa and free air. You have to watch out for the neighbor's poodle as you back your boat and truck into the yard. Grocery stores carry Key lime/Mango pie. And pastries come with Guava filling. You can pronounce Caloosahatchee and Okeechobee without snickering. Enough for now. I have to run to the store. I suddenly have this terrible hankering for a Guava doughnut.... Stay FAB u lous!!

Fabulous Flip Flops

Reporter- Diana Simpson

Finally, our first submission to the Group News! Perhaps we have been having too much fun for such business (smiley face). As a new group in February, we spent the first few months getting organized and getting to know each other a little bit. Then, all of a sudden, the snowbirds started leaving us! The last have gone by now, leaving us half our original size for the summer. Last month we gathered at Erin Young's for a pizza party and this month we will meet at Diana Simpson's for a picnic. Toni and Cindie Matusicky are enjoying a trip to the British Isles. Alan Stern is vacationing in Vietnam. Erin Young is traveling through some of Western and most of Eastern Europe for six weeks. Many of us have been enjoying bocce, bowling, Cocktails on the Cape and the monthly dances. We look forward to more of the same in June!

NRC MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

June 2015
Bruce Flournoy
President, Board 96

Greetings Fellow NRC Members

Summer's approaching and most of our snowbirds have gone back north leaving this paradise for us to enjoy. We'll miss them, but on the other hand, we end up with a few benefits. For example, there is much less traffic and congestion. We no longer have to allow extra time to get places which leads to an even more relaxed pace. Walk in to a restaurant at any time and get a good table and better service. Actually get all the help you want and need setting up your new home from the talented employees at the big box stores.

For those who enjoy Cape Coral year round, we look forward to the opportunity to get to know you better and the best way to get started is to enjoy all the activities the New Resident Club has to offer. Our board has worked hard to entice you with lots of fun options. So take advantage of the kicked back pace of summer and join us...at bocce, win a raffle at the Ladies Lunch, grab a beverage at Cocktails on the Cape and most off all make a reservation for the dance. Beach Blanket Bingo will bring out your inner Annette Funicello or Frankie Avalon. The music is great! Let's have fun, fun, fun!!

I mentioned this last month, but it bears repeating. This is your Club. It's here to help you make friends and have fun! Please reach out with any comments or suggestions you may have - email us, or grab us at the meetings, dance, or activities.
