NRC Group News

June 2016

July/Aug 2014:

PARADISE PELICANS

Reporter Virena McElheney

Spring time in the Cape has not disappointed us this year. Oh how beautiful it is with low humidity, bright sunny skies, very little rain, and good friends from our flock to enjoy it with. Some of the Pelicans enjoyed a wonderful week in Saint Maarten swimming, snorkeling, scuba diving, dining and dancing and one couple, Nancy and Kevin, celebrated their wedding anniversary. It just so happened they also had their honeymoon there. Now years later they were able to celebrate with close friends from the group. How cool is that? Another fun time was had by many at the dinner dance at the Yacht Club and at a wild and crazy Kentucky Derby Party at Doug and Dinah's home. We can always find a reason to get together and have some fun and food with our Pelican flock.

Before some of us get ready for long summer vacations, we will be having a "boat float-tilla" on Sanibel Island. That's where we all pile into our boats and dock along the sandy beach. We jump in the water and socialize, eat, drink and be merry. We will also be having our monthly potluck gathering at Coconuts Bar and Grill this month. This time the group will not have to do the cooking or cleaning ... we just sit back and enjoy being served our food and drinks with friends. We love living in the Cape! Until next time...See you around the Cape!!!

CAPE ESCAPES

Reporter: Diane Kenney

It's June. Welcome to summer in the Cape. Temperature and humidity are creeping up. Solutions range from going to the beach, getting out on a boat, jumping in the pool, staying in air conditioning or be a snowbird. Staying here and enjoying what Florida has to offer is best! May Day, Cinco de Mayo, Mother's Day and Memorial Day kept us celebrating this month.

Our monthly dinner was spent at Iguana Mia for our Cinco de Mayo gathering. Some of those enjoying margaritas and Mexican food were Janet Dayton, Andrea Casti, Karen & Jim Rozum, Susan & Leonard Brown, Sarah & Lou Appelman and Diane & Herb Kenney. This month Theresa Beringer & John MacLean headed to the Chicago area for Mothers Day, Donna & Earl Boothe spent time at The Villages in Florida house sitting and checking out the community, Diane & Herb Kenney flew to Waco to sit with their grandson. Birthdays in May were celebrated by Lou Appelman (5/20) and Maria Vodola and Marianne Cyr both on (5/23). Happy Birthday to All, and we'll see you next month!

BEACH BRATZ

Reporter: Babz Maxwell

Finally. The snowbirds have headed back north and I can DRIVE again! Well, sort of. It's the video game Frogger on wheels here. Illinois drivers are insane, but I defy any of them to get from N. Cape to Corksoakers in rush hour traffic in time for happy hour! In fact, I've designed a new bumper sticker for the Hello Kitty mobile that says, "I break for no one and my other car is a GLOCK". This should give me a BIT of respect. A big part of the problem is that none of us can find our way around the maze of canals from our homes in NW 12th avenue Circle Place to get to SW 47th Terrace Blvd. Pky. without being at the mercy of our GPS. Our hands are ratcheted to the steering wheel, our eyes riveted to the road, waiting for the next command, "use the two left lanes to make a hard left onto NE 9th Avenue Lane Court". If the voice tells us to sacrifice doves in the back seat, we so without question, if we can shave off 20 minutes and get to Water City Grill for early bird. Collateral damage is just a part of the adventure. Truck! Pothole! Turtle! Did you know that while most of us are getting our beauty sleep, there is Drag racing on Del Prado?. If you have a hot car, like Tom D's new Mercedes E350 Sport, with twin turbos, you may want to take advantage of this. If not, he will gladly let you ride along for his next delivery of bootleg hooch to the monthly dance. This is the Wild West of driving at its finest, where turn signals are only used to throw off other drivers, stop lights are merely a suggestion and yellow means it's time to wet your pants, because you are about to run a red light.

NRC Group News

And by ALL MEANS, commemorate the event with a FB selfie while cutting off the car in the next lane! On to other news, we had an amazing Luau at Kathy and Mike Nelson's house. So good to see Konrad out. Loved the food, loved the light show on the pool, loved John and Vicky's grass skirts. FYI, John said he would wear it to my ladies luncheon, but balked when I said he would have to shave his knobby hairy knees...We finally got to see Jay and Leslie's beautiful new home. And Leslie, and I don't care what anyone else says, I think the three tiered moose fountain on the front lawn makes quite a statement! Love the bubbles...

Sorry to see our Bratz head north, but I promise to keep you updated. Stay FAB u lous!!

CORKSCREWERS
Reporter: Leslie Vaughan

First things first. We'd like to congratulate Linda Kamysz for becoming the new NRC 2nd Vice President! No doubt she'll do a great job. We're so pleased to have the Corkscrewers represented on Board 98. Also, let me take this opportunity to thank Al Rich in advance, for taking on the job of sorting through the monthly newsletters. Congratulations and many thanks to all who will be serving.

Our little group continues to be very active and remain good friends! Several have been enjoying regular driving range outings and report having a great time swinging those golf clubs. The Corkscrewers ladies are having fun with our monthly luncheons. Our monthly dinners to celebrate birthdays and anniversaries are still going strong as are the potluck dinners. A few brave souls are taking dancing lessons at the Lake Kennedy Center! The last potluck was at our house and we had a Kentucky Derby party. Hopefully those attending had as much fun as we had hosting. We love getting together for food and drinks! But just so you know - Mint Juleps are still yucky, but certainly required fare for the Derby. We know these things. We're Kentucky natives! Next up for June is Lola and Jerry. Jerry's mother has been visiting and she is very interesting and quite delightful. We were sad to say goodbye to our snowbirds. We always look forward to their return in the fall. Several of us will be toodling off to Europe for a Mediterranean cruise. That's been a bucket list thing for me, so I'm very much looking forward to it. Summer is upon us, folks! Make the most of all that paradise has to offer!

FABULOUS FLIP FLOPS
Reporter-Diana Simpson

Many of us enjoy bocce, bowling, the Ladies Luncheon and the monthly dance. Also, three or four of the men meet weekly for breakfast at the House of Omelets. We look forward to more of the same this summer!

Our May pot luck was held at Annie Fenkle's home. Joel and Linda Sabat were absent because they were up north celebrating the 100th birthday of Joel's mother. Congratulations! The Devines went north to attend Jerry's 50th high school reunion. Annie, Betty Diana and Joyce spent a perfect day in the sun with four other NRC friends on Captiva Island. We will do it again. Let us know if you would like to join us. Our June birthday babies are Charlie Brown, Bill Cardella, Jerry Devine, Kalaniwai Grady, and Cheryl Orttel. Have a great month!

FUNSEEKERS
Reporter: Julie Green

The weather is getting warmer and the roads have finally cleared out!! First off a great big thanks from all of us to Anne and Rex for hosting the April potluck. We all had a blast and each and every one of us felt like we were on a mini vacation! Thanks also to Debbie and Bob for hosting at Catch 22- it was great to CATCH up with everyone!! Anne and Rex write they are having fun in Ontario visiting with kids and babysitting their grandson. They also entertained 2 sets of visitors from Georgia. Vaune continues to recover from knee surgery and is enjoying having Matt be chef and caregiver. They look forward to being able to attend NRC functions soon. Kay and Randy visited Tarpon Springs and ate lots of wonderful Greek food. They saw a sponge diver and took a boat ride. Randy was also back in Costa Rica for dental surgery. Dana and Terry paid a surprise visit to their son, daughter-in-law and grandkids in Destin. Their daughter-in-law from Thailand was sworn in as a US citizen along with 95 other people from around the world. Afterwards they all celebrated at Lulu's Restaurant in Destin.

The next weekend their other son and his wife joined them for the Beer Trolley Fest in the Cape. They were also joined by fellow Funseekers Jim and Elegra. Line dancing is still on their schedule every Wed night and they would love to see other Funseekers there! They enjoyed a boat ride and lunch with friends as well as driving down to Bonita Springs for a day at the beach. Debbie and Bob had a blast at the Cardboard Boat Race. Bob worked on the boats all season long and participated by paddling in the Little Buddy boat.

SUN RAYS

Reporter– Barb Swann

First of all, Sun Rays, let me apologize for not submitting anything for the last newsletter. I had to make a fast trip back to Minnesota, and couldn't make the deadline. HAPPY ANNIVERSARY, HAPPY ANNIVERSARY. Spring is here, sometimes feels like summer in full swing! It has been one year since the Sun Rays joined NRC. It has, indeed, been an exciting year. Most have set up their homes, become Florida residents, and have become entrenched into the Florida lifestyle, and seem glad to be here. NRC events have shown them what the Cape has to offer and most have made true and lasting friendships. Most recently, Sun Rays have participated in building and launching the Minnow...and it floated! Potlucks and dances have been well attended. Most northern relatives/friends have returned north for the year. Let's remember Jan and Elaine in our thoughts and prayers, surgery and illness. Get well, Girls, and get back in the swing. Bev, Marlene, and Barb attended a Comedy Show at Lake Kennedy Center. For those who have not checked it out, the Center has a lot of activities and events from which to choose. Bocce is still the sport of choice. The Sunset Celebration is still the place to be the first Wednesday of the month. Let us know what else you've been doing. The April dance was electric, the band was outstanding. Any of you who have not attended a dance are missing out on a good time. Watch for news of upcoming dances. Ceil was kind enough to host a Mothers' Day Pool Party for the ladies, lots of fun. And travel, travel, travel. Sun Rays have been on the go. Ceil visited Boston and the NE; Lilian and Gary are making a short trip to Michigan, who else is out and about? Let us know.

HULA HOOTERS

Reporter: Alan Poland

Well the flock gathered at the Boathouse beach May 10 to give Chief Hooter Gary Eldred and his bride Marne a Hooter send-off. There were lots of well wishes for them to enjoy a safe flight as they travel for the next few months around the country in their fifth wheeler "Party Hoot". Gary's leadership and humor, and Marne's laugh will be missed, by the flock, but he leaves us under the good wings of our hard working party coordinator Charlie Weis. Hooter Charlie has been instrumental in building our nest on the internet and keeping us aware of upcoming Hooter events. And she keeps busy with her camera documenting all Hooter gatherings. April saw Hooters cheering on the cardboard boats and flying around the dance floor as Owl Bill Moulton rocked out on his guitar. Many Hooters went for a leisurely bike ride on the Cape that was arranged and routed by Owls Hayden (of well burnt rib fame) and Debra Jones. hen May got off to a very busy start for all the Hooters who flocked to the NRC general meeting. Two days later much fun was had at the Cinco de Mayo Potluck hosted by Owls Don and Judy Sheldon. A large flock of Hooters then took first place in one of the trivia games at Nemo's. There was lots of fun and creativity at the beading party held by Charlie Weis. The ladies have been displaying their beautiful necklaces and earrings ever since. Hooters are now planning the next Lady Owls luncheon. Sandy Smith is looking to form aHooter Bunco team. Drag Queen Bingo is on the schedule. New nests are being completed for several Hooters, so more parties are sure to come with the summer sun. Hoot, hoot, hoot!

NAUTI CRABS

The Nauti Crabs are at it again. This time it is off to Key West. What an adventure we had. The toughest part was getting up so early to catch the Key West Express but we survived, found our seats and enjoyed the trip down to the island. Calm seas and lots of conversations. Now for the mile walk to the hotel. FYI if you go wear good walking shoes. They do have many trolleys for sightseeing around town. Now we are checked in and time to look at the sights. The first adventure took us down Duval Street to Mallory Square. Many tourist attractions and shops not to mention the chickens and roosters that run around. This is the place to enjoy the sunset. Funny how it is the same sun as here in Cape Coral but again it is different. Now the slow walk back to enjoy the night life along Duval Street. Some folks stayed out to enjoy music and some went to clubs, others enjoyed all the art on display by local artisans. A great evening on the Keys. Next day rise and shine for the walk to breakfast for the best Bloody Mary's. After filling up and revisiting the night, some of the group walked to the Southernmost point buoy, others the Lighthouse museum, Harry Truman's house, and Ernest Hemingway home. The homes are the old Florida look and are the gorgeous. What ever the adventure we had a great time. Back to the boat and the ride home - time to discuss the next adventure. Looks like a cruise is on the horizon.

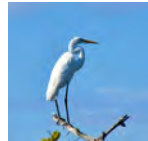

Back to reality and bowling, more get togethers and dancing at the Fraternal Order of Eagles. I thought work was tiring but this retirement life is exhausting and exhilarating. The next potluck is on the horizon and time for more Nauti Crab fun.

PARTY PALMS
Reporter : Jeff Ford

Cinco De Mayo came a little early for the Party Palms! Our late April potluck hosted by Ted & Carolyn Clark was a pre Cinco De Mayo event. Our hosts showed off their gorgeous new home only three weeks after moving in, what an undertaking. Though a number of members have retreated north, a great time was had by those in attendance especially with the frozen margarita's flowing..The food was plentiful as were the laughs. Our members are always on the go and some recently tried their hand at a Wine and Painting party! The Party Palms do know how to party!

In closing we are very proud to have three members of our group serving on the new Board 98.

NO EGRETS
By Nancy Cohen

NoEgrets Snowbirds have flown out of town to Wisconsin, Maine, Maryland, Colorado, Minnesota, (and other places), leaving behind a stalwart core of year-round residents who continue to enjoy each others' company. Along with the usual activities, several new ones have been added to the mix. Jayne planned the inaugural second Tuesday dinner at Sandy Hook in Matlacha where everyone in attendance had lots of laughs, good food, and plentiful beverages.

NRC Group News

Now someone needs to step up to the plate and plan the one for June! All it takes is choosing a restaurant, posting the invitation on Facebook, and making a reservation. In the spirit of friendship, the NoEgrets building crew gathered to build steps to Jayne and Eric's dock. In appreciation, boats were loaded up on Mothers' Day and several NoEgrets members headed out to sea for a day of fun in the sun! 2 Amigos seems to have become one of our group's delicious "go to" places, and yet another dinner was planned there, this time by Juelene and Johnny. Ten members had great fun sitting outside on a sunny and beautiful night, and welcomed new NRC members Tod and Tammy to join in the fun. NoEgrets seem to have lost the magic touch at Trivia. We haven't had a win in a couple of weeks now. Oh well. The company is good and the wings are plentiful. And, we now know where Andorra is! Now we need to study every president and the names of their law partners, English authors in every century and the books they wrote, movie directors' obscure first films, and obscure track and field sports trivia. Or we could just adopt a new name for the group -"hereforthebeer" and let the chips fall where they may. Bocce continues to be a group favorite. Of course it is. The games are followed by dinner and drinks each week. I see a trend developing here.... By the time this is read, those still in Florida will have had a wonderful time at a barbecue at Susan and Mike's. I can write that before the event because it is a foregone conclusion that it will be wonderful. Lori will have returned from Canada and the first NoEgrets Book Club meeting will have taken place. Well, that's about it for this month. I apologize if I've forgotten anything but since I am in Maine and these events are taking place in Florida, I am relying on what is posted on our Facebook page. You guys are great about posting stuff and keeping those of us who have headed north up to date on your goings on. Keep making someone happy! And anything else that strikes our fancy NoEgrets, remember to tell Ron that you would like to be added to our Facebook page. It is the easiest way to keep up with all of our fun and to see the great photos members post.

LEAPIN LIZARDS

Reporter: Suzanne Rothberg

The Feb, 2016 Leapin' Lizards have thinned out to few with so many going north. Barb Schindler hosted a Kentucky Derby get together and plans another for the Preakness, thank heavens for a gal who loves horses. Our other claim to some fame was a two week 1st place run at Trivia. We didn't make the tripe crown, but came in 2nd the third week. Fun for all of us whether you know a lot about a little or little about a lot.

LAND SHARKS

Reporter: Joel Adams

Yes! The March-April 2016 membership group has a name, Land Sharks, voted in after a gruesome battle using a 100lb test line baited with lasagna, appetizers, desserts and a selection of cold beverages. Our first potluck was a success, co-hosted by Randy & Carol Adams and Amy Riker in the Adams' beautiful canal home. Unfortunately due to the "shark infested" waters no one elected to take a plunge into their inviting pool. Co-leaders were selected and we thank Carol Adams and Amy Riker for volunteering for serving in this capacity. Thank you also to Stephanie Beauchaine for volunteering to serve as group Recorder to provide entertaining news to the monthly newsletter. Our group represents this great land from way up north including upstate New York and the upper Michigan peninsula, as far to the west as Denver CO and south to this beautiful region of SW Fla we now call home full time and part time. We are a diverse group of singles, couples, parents, grandparents and pet parents and enjoyed sharing common interests during dinner and afterwards. The Land Sharks look forward to getting to know the people, places and happenings in Cape Coral! Keep your eyes open for that dorsal fin in the water...the Land Sharks are out there!

NRC MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

May 2016
Pat McCoy
President, Board 98

Greetings NRC Members and NRC Graduates!

I love watching the NRC at work! I had the opportunity to attend the May New Member Social and the first potluck for our newest named group – The Landsharks. It is so much fun to watch new people making new friendships, enjoying laughter and leaving with smiles on their faces! That's what the NRC is all about! To help welcome our newcomers, I encourage all of you to stop by the New Member's Table and offer these folks a warm welcome to our Club! Remember, we were all new once! A welcoming hello is always appreciated and you could make a new friend!!

There are always lots of fun NRC activities scheduled during the month to provide you with venues to meet members and make new friends. I encourage you to take advantage of these activities and try something new – Cocktails on the Cape, Bowling, Bocce, or Game Night. You are sure to have a good time! Remember, this is YOUR club! If you would like to suggest a new activity for our club, I encourage you to contact Karel Casey or me to discuss. We are always open to suggestions!

I am also happy and thankful for the support of our community vendors who continue to support our club by making donations to our raffles. These vendors are advertised in our monthly newsletter. The monthly newsletter also contains a New Resident Club of Cape Coral coupon which can be used to notify a business that it has just been patronized by one of our Club members. Please use this coupon at businesses that you patronize. Your support of our local businesses helps support our Club and the local economy.

Finally, we will be trying a new idea for the June dance! There will be no dinner. Instead, we will be serving light hors d'oeuvres and, of course, the usual beverages - beer, wine, soft drinks and water. So, grab some dinner out or at home before joining the dancing fun! As always, feel free to bring your own beverages and snacks! Doors open at 6:30 p.m. Music starts at 7:00 p.m. with a new band to the NRC – 41 South!! Many of you have seen them play and recommended them! NRC GRADUATES: WE WOULD LOVE TO SEE YOU BACK AT THIS EVENT!! Please plan on joining us!!!

To Friends, Fun and Laughter!
