January 2016 NoEgrets: "Make Someone Happy"

By Nancy Cohen and Ron Gruner Meeting each other for the first time at the January NRC meeting, this group lost no time in making great friendships. Most attended the Welcoming party the following week and, before we left, had scheduled our first potluck at Nancy's house. 44 members joined in the fun at Nancy's, bringing an incredible variety of food, a desire to get to know each other, and a cheerful attitude. Nancy's brother surprised everyone by entertaining with tales of his 13 years with the NRC. (More than two dozen of his group STILL get together at least once a month!) Since it was a week before the Super Bowl, we played a fun football team identification game ("used to be girls"? Bengals! "7x7"? 49ers!). We got off to a fast start, choosing a name for our group: NoEgrets! Get it? Ron Gruner volunteered to be our fearless leader and "encouraged" folks to step forward to host future potlucks. Thanks to Johnny and Juelene for hosting in February, Cate in March, Jayne and Ron in April, Michael and Susan in May, Larry and Raylene in October, and Andy and Lea in December. We still need people to step up to the plate and claim June, July, August, September, and November. Ron lost no time in setting up a private Facebook page for our group (NoEgretsCC). It is proving to be a great place to post photos, share reflections on activities, and get to know each other better. If you haven't joined yet, Ron is waiting to hear from you so that he can sign you up! You can reach him at noegretsc@gmail.com. NoEgrets members have jumped in with both feet, reporting great times at all of the NRC activities they have attended. Raylene introduced us to our new mascot, a gorgeous carved egret that she made, and it stood proudly in the sand until the sun dipped below the horizon. Since sunset came before many were ready to go home, the party moved to Iguana Mia for more food, drink, and laughter. We heard that some of you couldn't find our group on the beach. Next month, we will make it easier by flying our new NoEgrets flag proudly! Only knowing each other for a couple of months, we have already set up a dinner club and a card night with many more activities in the works. The first dinner club spot was Pincers at Tarpon Point. Geno, Teresa, Lonny, Robin, and Ron had a fine time getting to know each other. A favorite activity has been bocce ball. Who knew we have some of the nicest bocce ball courts in Florida? Several members of our group arrive at 3pm sharp at the site located on Coronado on Wednesday afternoons and it is game on. Beginners are welcome, as are cheerleaders. If you think you might be interested in giving it a try, come on out and watch or join in and play. As always, if you have an idea for a new activity for the group, get in touch with Ron and he will make it happen! NoEgrets look forward to, as Nancy's brother told us at the first potluck, making friendships we will have for the rest of our lives.

MARCH/APRIL 2014 PARADISE FOUND

Reporter: Page Flournoy

At the January meeting, Page talked Sherry and Tom into signing up for The Music Man at the Cultural Park Theater. The play was great and afterward, the actors are in the lobby to talk to anyone who wants to meet them. I threw up to the group to see who might want to go to the Koreshan State Park and Bonnie and Mac joined Bruce and I and a friend. This is in Estero, off Corkscrew Road and was built around the same time as the Edison Ford Estates. In fact, the gardeners shared cuttings of exotic plants. This was originally a religious commune with very different views, so an interesting place to visit. The Ladies Luncheon drew 5 Paradise Found ladies, 3 of which took home raffle prizes. Shirley, Wally, Bonnie, Mac, Page and Bruce went to the Mardi Gras dance. The band and food were terrific! The highlight was the truly fabulous pot luck, hosted by Peter and Jill Mensch! Peter is quite the chef and once owned a restaurant in New Hampshire. Their daughter, Jill and Peter worked so hard on everything and we had an outstanding turnout. It was nice to see some of our group we haven't seen in ages. Welcome back! It's been a bit chilly for us lately and we are all hosting lots of out of town company who thought it would be warm here... but no one is complaining because it does beat the blizzards up north

Paradise Pelicans

July/Aug 2014: PARADISE PELICANS

Reporter Virena McElheney

With the days getting longer and the chill in the air, you can find Pelicans all over the Cape...still having fun and enjoying life. All who attended the Mardi Gras Dinner Dance this month had a great time. Many Pelicans enjoyed Sunset Celebration at the Yacht Club Beach as they watched the sun go down into the sea, coloring the sky with many colors of pink and coral. We had a wonderful turn out for the Mardi Gras Dinner Dance. Delicious food, great music, and fun was had by all. Even though it was a little early for the real Marti Gras, we enjoy every minute of the party. It's never too early to party for the Pelicans. Lots of the lady Pelicans got together and went to see Barry Manilow at the Germain Arena for a "Girl's Night Out" event. As normal for our group, the February Potluck was a huge success, hosted by Denise and Larry. With approximately 30 people, sometimes you don't even get a chance to talk personally with everyone. What started out as being just appetizers has now become a gourmet dinner extravaganza? We have so many great chefs it's hard not to over indulge. This month we also celebrated the birthdays of Bob and Kevin. Next up, we all were looking forward to Super Bowl Sunday, even though neither team in the bowl was one of our favorite "real" team, we still enjoy the celebration. The McElheney's had some folks over to enjoy the game with lots of food and drink. The game itself might not have turned out the way some of us were hoping (me), but being with good friends is always a great way to ease the pain. We can't forget our February Birthday Boys... Peter and Bob... Happy Birthday!!! There was a huge celebration at Micelli's, in addition to our celebration at the potluck. Our Pelicans never miss a chance to get together and celebration each other and our friendships. Until next time...See you around the Cape!!!

SEPT 2014 CAPE ESCAPES

Reporter: Diane Kenney

February is over and hopefully the cooler temperature is behind us. Still beats all the snow and below zero temps elsewhere. You can still find our group out and about at bocce ball, golf and bowling, trivia and game night, luncheons and dinners out and our pot lucks. Sometimes we'll be out on our boats when they aren't under repair. We ended January with a Ladies Shop and Lunch at Coconut Point organized by Karen Rozum. The February Pot Luck was held at the end of February at Maria Vodola's in Emerald Cove. Maria served her famous stuffed pepper soup. Some of those attending were Teresa Beringer & John MacLain, Marianne & Bob Cyr, Janet Dayton and Herb & Diane Kenney. Maria invited some of her neighbors also. Linda Fairley has been enjoying lots of events at the Barbara B Mann Center. She volunteers there and gets to see the shows for free!

NRC Group News

What a deal. Karen Rozum spent time with family in Denver and helped all the Bronco fans welcome the team home. Maria Vodola just had visitors here. Still think that Susan and Leonard Brown have the most friends and relatives visiting each month. Marianne & Bob Cyr spent part of the month in Key West. Bob took his boat down. John Puhek came back from California to check on his home which sustained some damage from the first tornado. We all still travel but come back home to Cape Coral. Our birthdays for the month go to the Patke's - Elena on the 8th and Len on the 13th! March we have only one birthday - Terri Doron on the 8th.

LAUGHING GULLS
Reporter: Vickie Sullivan

Hope everyone had a great Valentine's Day and got to spend it with your sweetheart. We had a great turnout of Lady Gulls at the Ladies luncheon at Anthony's: Loretta, Liz, Janis, Vickie, Jill, Barb, Sandy, Pam, Lori and Lori's sister Mikey. Pam, Mikey, Janis and Vickie were lucky enough to win a raffle prize. We had a great time. Jill and Barb are doing a great job on setting up the luncheons. We had 11 Gulls attend the February Meeting and Vickie won a raffle prize. Some of the Lady Gulls joined some of the Lady Funseekers for a fun night at Paint Escape. Thanks to Debbie for inviting us to join them. Sandy and Peter held a Super Bowl Party at their home. Thanks so much for the great time. Lots of good food, friendly rivalries and happy Bronco fans. Our monthly Gulls Bunco group met at Page's house. Page went all out for the Valentine theme. The quesadillas were heart shaped as were the cupcakes and other goodies. Our February potluck/birthday celebration was hosted by Mike and Barb. Thanks to them for having us all over. The chocolate theme was lots of fun. Happy February birthday to Tish (27th). Great to see Bob and Tina back from their trip to Cozumel. Saw some great pics on Facebook especially the ones from their scuba diving. Congratulations to John and Janis on the birth of their great granddaughter Lilianna Grace. Gordon and Pam's grandson Carter is still doing great things in gymnastics. We wish him luck on the upcoming competition in Las Vegas. Hope to see lots of ladies at the luncheon at Miceli's, hope everyone can attend the One Romantic Evening Dinner/Dance and Cocktails on the Cape at Two Amigos. Remember GULLS JUST WANT TO HAVE FUN!!!

BEACH BRATZ
Reporter: Babz Maxwell

Well, it's March already. I guess I should really consider taking down the Christmas tree. The lights finally burnt out and it's looking really dry, so it's time... Seems like only yesterday I put the Santa hat on the jack-o-lantern that's still sitting on the front porch. But seriously, time has flown, and what do I really have to show for it? Oh, I know you are thinking that I am well on my way to whittling down my New Year's Resolutions list. And I am. But over the years I've learned to be more practical about my goals and achievements. Gone are the days when I made promises of exercise, or losing those extra pounds of Peppermint bark and Peanut M & M's consumed over Christmas. No point in telling myself that THIS was the year I was going to finally finish that embroidered Bee-Gees wall tapestry, that I started back in 1978. I've moved on. This year's resolution was to stop pretending to fold fitted sheets. There ARE no corners, and were never MEANT to be folded. I just wad them up and cram them in pillowcases, as God intended in the first place. Furthermore, I've decided dusting is over-rated. Friends might come over, and be intimidated by my extreme tidiness. Feelings of inadequacy would ensue, and I can't abide that. Also, I'm saving trees by writing my grocery lists in dust with my finger and snapping pictures on my cell phone. I haven't mopped in years... we have a dog. But I am wondering if it's really necessary to vacuum every single month.... I mean, I use the leaf blower between vacuuming. We aren't getting any younger, and need to make each day count. And we Bratz have done just that, like hosting really great Super Bowl parties, with lively discussions of why Beyoncé was part of the halftime show AGAIN this year. Does she LIVE at the stadium, and just needs to be let out for air, periodically? Speaking of, we've been hosting Super Bowl parties for DECADES, now, and I'm still vague on the details. We gather around the TV to eat and be entertained by the best advertisements money can buy, with a nice musical routine in the middle. So, why are they interrupted by enormous men in gaudy colored tights running amok chasing after that silly pointy ball thingy? Why all the fuss about how much air is in it?? And, I'm not saying I'm a lip reader, but I'm pretty sure they weren't yelling "Aww SHUCKS!" when things didn't go their way! Anyway, the chaos seems to happen for a few seconds at a time between commercials, and I find the whole thing rather annoying. Maybe if they would run around the field in formation....to music. Yeah. Like the Cupid shuffle...We Bratz made the world a brighter place just last month when the Mowry's decided to host a potluck at their palatial winter residence. Being the kind, caring bunch we are, we rallied around them with booze and baked goods, to show our approval. We oohed and aahed over their new home and courteously consumed their food. We made them feel GOOD. Isn't THAT what it's all about, after all? I actually went so far as to let them know I would be available to live in their master bathroom, and my Hello Kitty convertible would fit in their shower. It's large enough I doubt they would even notice me. They just sort of staredI take that to mean they are thinking it over.....When we found out Lyle was playing at sunset celebration, we not only showed up, we supported him by dancing and singing on the beach. We noticed that Marian Frane wasn't around to hear him croon about connecting with some loose babes in Kansas City, though. Don't worry, Lyle, your secret is safe with us. We made the same sacrifices for everyone at the Mardi Gras dance, even showing up in festive costume, just to bolster friendships and develop camaraderie. We are pretty spectacular that way! Added bonus, I discovered whilst wearing a mask, one can trip people on the dance floor and steal their desserts, yet remain anonymous. It's not quite like being invisible, but it's the next best thing. This month we are going to be celebrating Joe Blaesing and Mike Nelson's birthdays. Because WE CARE. And speaking of caring, we are very glad that Frank is getting stronger every day after his hip surgery. On a more serious note (it can happen!), we want John Harrington and Joy Ault to know we are thinking of them and hope they will let us know if they need something. Our prayers go with you both. Until next month....Stay FAB u lous! Babz

NRC Group News

JANUARY 2015 CORKSCREWERS

Reporter: Leslie Vaughan

March already! Spring has sprung here in the Cape! Hard to believe that many of our old hometowns are still blanketed with that strange white substance called SNOW! I think we were all exceptionally brave to have endured that week of 60 degree temperatures last month! Brrr! Good riddance to that chilly foolishness! The Corkscrewers are staying busy, as usual. We thoroughly enjoyed Super Bowl at the Dillard's lovely home. Always a great time at Pat and Tom's! Our potluck dinner last month was at Sue Menon's. She's such a lovely hostess. We always have great fun and food at our potluck dinners! Some of the Corkscrewers are enjoying Game Night. The evening at Cape Coral Brewing Company was enjoyed by several. That's a cool little venue for anyone who's interested in a little wine, suds and fun. Our monthly celebration dinner was at Sandy Hook. Among other things, we happily celebrated the birthday of our fearless (and terrific) leader, Aimee! We always look forward to that get together. As I write this, a few from our group are planning to attend a Dolphin Luncheon Cruise. Any day on the water is a good day, indeed. Don't forget to move your clocks forward on Sunday, March 13th! You'll want to be on time for all the fun NRC activities!!!

MARCH/APRIL 2015

FUNSEEKERS

Reporter: Debbie Tkach

Well, it is hard to believe, but it has been a year since many of us joined the NRC. They combined the March and April members. What a year it has been!! We have all met some wonderful people and enjoyed the many activities the NRC has to offer. It truly was a blessing when we joined. We know of no other city or town that has such an organization. It was a brilliant idea. Kay and Randy spent a week in Tucson visiting family. They went to a University of Arizona basketball game (and U of A won), took a tour of Biosphere 2, hiked four miles up Sabino Canyon, played golf at the Ventana Resort and went to the Arizona Sonora Desert Museum. They loved the change of scenery and visiting Randy's brother and family. They were very happy to get back to beautiful Cape Coral! Theresa and Rod had company from Minnesota for a week. Even with all the rain, the guys were able to get some fishing done and they had their first fish fry here with the fish they caught. Theresa's brother and nieces were also in town the same week.

NRC Group News

It was their first time so they were busy trying to fit in all the sights. Theresa has been enjoying hanging out with some of the Funseekers at Dixie Roadhouse on Wednesdays for line dancing and of course her ambitious painting project has been fun too. Speaking of painting, several women from the Funseekers and Gulls went to a Ladies Night at Paint Escape on a Friday evening. We had a great time. Many of us are going to do it again. For some, it was the first time they ever painted pottery and we thoroughly enjoyed it and shared a lot of laughs. Julie got to experience the Cape Coral Hospital ER- they were wonderful! Although she wasn't looking forward to her surgery, it was a success and she is looking forward to food and vodka again!!! Jeff braved winter storm Jonas and went up to Nashville to see his Dad and his brother. He had a great time even with the 18hour trip through airports! Julie began her new job at the Pine Island Library and she loves it! Definitely her dream job! She does miss everyone at the meetings though. Dana and Terry spent several days in Tampa for the Gasparilla Fest with their son, Dana Jr and his wife. They also met up with friends from Dubai that now live state side. Weather was great and wonderful time was had by all. February 6th they celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary. Due to the "big football" game, they put off going to Key West to celebrate till the following weekend. Awesome game by the way, and their team "THE BRONCOS" won big. Way to go Payton. Another exciting afternoon or should they say 45 minutes was spent at the Bacon Fest in Ft. Myers. Not too big but great food. As of this writing, Frank is scheduled for left knee replacement surgery on February 15th. Good luck Frank and hope your recovery goes well. Bob continues to join in on the boat building for the upcoming Regatta. He is enjoying himself. Several of the women attended the Ladies Luncheon and many of us attended the Monthly Dinner dance. Bob and Debbie enjoyed the Martini Run with Mike and Barb. It was so much fun and the drinks and food were very good. Several of us attended Buffalo Day at Bootleggers where there were hundreds of people either living in Florida, as snowbirds or just visiting from up North. It is an annual event and a great time. Debbie got to visit with a friend for Buffalo for an afternoon while she was here visiting her cousin. It was good to catch up. They also got to see other friends from Buffalo when they attended the Second Annual Corvettes of Buffalo get together. Well, have to go, so much to see and do. Until next month.....

SUN RAYS

Reporter- Barb Swann

Sun Rays, not much input for this month, but I know we are enjoying all the usuals, Bocce, Potluck, eating, Sunset Celebration, eating, eating, and eating. Which brings me to discuss REFERRALS. Since we are all New Residents, we rely a lot on what others have encountered. Whether it be restaurants, painters, realtors, doctors, movers, or whatever. Pass on information to others. It can prove invaluable. We had a fabulous time at the Mardi Gras dinner dance. Thanx, Elaine for another great event. If you haven't attended one yet, you are really missing out on a good time. Looking forward to the next one. On the political scene: things are getting hotter and hotter, hard to miss the news even if we wanted to ignore it. As new Florida residents, please remember to register to vote. Voting, itself, can be all done by mail now, you don't have to go to the polls on election day. But don't forget to register. From Marlene: Many Northern family and friends visited Paradise only to find that it was almost as warm in Virginia as it was in Cape Coral. I enjoyed visitors from far and near through the Christmas holiday and into the new year. As to a farewell dinner at the Water City Grill, compliments were freely given to the chef, wait staff, and hostess. The food and service were excellent. I recommend dining at the Water City Grill and thank them for supporting the NRC. I joined the 500 volunteers on Thursday, January 14 to help clean up after the tornado. It was refreshing to see so many Cape Coral residents helping with the clean-up effort. Thanks to the many companies who provided gloves, food, water, and supplies for the volunteers. Thanks also to everyone for their donations of money, food, and clothing for the residents. Many of the tornado affected residents personally thanked the volunteers. Cape Coral is more than a community to live in, it is a community that cares for its fellow neighbors. With our "cold" weather comes an opportunity to view the many manatee who inhabit our waters. The Manatee Park out NE by the power plant has been a popular spot lately. But do you know of a closer viewing area right here in Cape Coral? Sirenia Vista Park out near Matlacha seems to be another "hot" spot for our manatee friends. Check it out and let us know.

July/August 2015
HULA HOOTERS
Reporter: Alan Poland

Hoo, hoo, hoot ... it sure has been chilly. Many of our Hooters have been bundling in their burrows to keep warm from the northern chill that recently invaded the Cape. But, even chilly weather could not keep the Hula Hooters from stretching their party wings in the sun to enjoy a pot luck supper with Norm and Jennifer Raby. We also enjoyed a well attended happy hour at Fathoms. 20 Hooters filled the table at the NRC meeting. Proving that it pays to be a Hooter, Suzanne, Sandy, Tom and Carol were raffle winners. Hooters love watching the sunset and enjoy that monthly ritual at the Yacht Club. Lady Hooters had a great time at their own monthly luncheon at Iguana Mia. Several Hooters had an excellent tour and tastings at the Wicked Dolphin Distillery. Hooters Bobby and Charlie escaped the chill by flying down to Barbados for some fun in the warmer sun. A group of Hooters saw the Dueling Pianos. Our Chief Hooter, Gary, has been busy researching and organizing a June boat trip to and stay in Key West. Hooters are flocking to sign up. Have a Hooting good time as Spring arrives.

CORAL CAPERS
Reporter: Kim Garrity

Jan and Gary graciously hosted a pre-Superbowl party. It was an absolutely fun get together with good food and they played a trivia game. The ladies group within the Coral Capers - Beach Bar Babes - met at Woody's this past week for their monthly luncheon.

Again, another great time talking and getting to know each other. Next month's BBB luncheon will be at Coconuts, hope more Coral Caper ladies will join in the fun.

NAUTI CRABS
Reporter: Chris Gust

I would like to begin by sending out a huge thanks to Bob Hayden for all his work on designing our group logo and more than that the daunting task of group shirts.

Most folks volunteer believing it will be a snap however this has been a challenge. Thanks Bob for your get it done attitude. I recently went home to Spokane, Washington for my baby's 40th birthday. We all wonder how our children have aged and we haven't aged at all. Our bodies may have changed but not our minds. My adventure began by putting on jeans and a warm sweater. I had to look for gloves, scarves and my winter coat. I thought I was having a hot flash at the airport then remembered it might be the clothes. After all it was only 30 degrees in Spokane. I flew into Minneapolis to watch the beauty of the glistening snow falling out the airplane window. As I walked up the gangway that cold chill hit me in the face reminding me why we moved to sunny Florida. And so began the journey to cold weather. Landing in Spokane I was greeted by my family and a warm scarf. But alas no snow. Spokane had a terrible wind storm. Wind coming in at 70 miles an hour. The scene was much like Cape Coral with trees and fences blown down and the after effect of blue tarped roofs. Interesting how life can be much the same no matter where you live. Thank yous go out to the folks in our group that volunteer. Many of these organizations depend on volunteers to make their programs a success. Your knowledge and expertise can be just what the organization is looking for. The sunset celebration was a blast. The music was great with many dancing in the sand. The vendors have wonderful displays of all kinds giving some of the women in our group new ideas for their own crafting ideas. However what makes it more enjoyable is meeting new members. New residents Shannon and Larry joined our group for bowling. So the moral of my story is you can always go home be with family and friends but your new home has many wonderful adventures to explore, activities to participate in, and friendships to make - your new family. Home is where the heart is!

PARTY PALMS
Reporter : Tricia R. Long

Yea! We finally have our group name. We voted on it at our 1st potluck together (Thank you Karel for hosting) the Party Palms had a fun time coming up with a logo for our name tags/ shirts. our centerpiece is coming along nicely as well. Many of us have already made great friends as we went to the sunset celebration together. Kathy set up our first ladies lunch together at Mistos. All of us are new to this and learning about the events as we go but we are off to a great start with so much more to come. I am so happy I found NRC.

 NRC MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

March 2016
Frank Catanese
President, Board 97

Greetings Fellow NRC Members and Graduates

And what a month it's been. Finally on the right track from my surgery. Took a bit but I'm getting there. Thanks for all your well wishes.

The New Members have been joining in big numbers. The last 3 groups are over 50. Wonderful to see the interest. I know Connie and I talk up the club every chance we get and I know most of you do as well and Ann Marie Reed is spending a lot of time talking us up at farmers markets and sunset celebrations. Great job all involved.

I can finally stop bugging you all about the board positions. We thankfully filled our last position. This month at the membership meeting we will make nominations for Board 98. I'm looking forward to working with them as a past president advisor.

Lots and lots of activities this month and lots and lots of members are here doing it all with us. The high season is a thing to behold. Not only are our events packed but so are the roads. Be extra careful when driving. It's a jungle out there.

Don't forget. Pat Wood and the team building the SS Minnow for this year's cardboard boat regatta. There are lots of hands involved and it's quite the project. This year the regatta is Saturday, April 16th. It was a great time last year and we took a bunch of awards. Get your T-shirts now.

Board 97 is busy at work. Dances, breakfasts, luncheons, pot lucks, member socials and tons of activities all rule the days.

Motorcycle riding is also starting up again. Keep your eyes and ears open (or corner me) for more information.

AND... Welcome Newcomers. We know you likely joined to make friends and to get involved with an active group that seeks out all the fun it can find. Well, you came to the right place.

Remember, this is YOUR Club. It's designed to help you make friends and have fun here in Cape Coral! We on Board 97 want to hear any suggestions or comments you may have to make the club better. Please reach out to us – email us, or grab us at the meetings, dance, or activities.

Sun tans, wind burn (from riding the motorcycle) and good times!
