July/Aug 2014: PARADISE PELICANS

Reporter Virena McElheney

Oh my goodness, what a wonderful time to be in the Cape. So much going on and so little time to do it all. First, we can't wait for our annual Cardboard Boat Regatta at Four Freedom Park with so many hopefuls to win and the competition is steep this year. We will all be there routing on our NRC entry and may the best boat win. We were also so happy to have all the participants in the Cape's Bike Night. This biker event is so popular, it draws crowds of about 12,000 people from all over the area and it's quite the site to see! When there is wonderful times to be had at the Miracle's Baseball games in a private air-conditioned sky suite which is fun for the entire family. Plus food and drink included, who could ask for more? Not to forget our wonderful Sunset Celebration at the Cape Coral Beach which always provides a great sunset for us. We do have a lot of beautiful sunsets every night, but we come together to celebrate them at on the beach once a month. And least we forget, Game Night, Trivia Night, and Cocktails on the Cape. Then we all will be dining and dancing at our monthly dinner dance at the Cape Coral Yacht Club where good music and food always keeps us coming back for more. Cindy and Ed will be hosing our monthly potluck this month where all the Pelicans will be celebrating all the May birthdays of Drew, Linda C, Doug, Bob, Joe, and Linda T. Phew, that's gonna be a huge cake.

As always the Lady Pelicans always enjoy our monthly Ladies Luncheon, this time at Hurricane's Grill, and our Girls Night Out playing Bunco. Then at the end of the month there's a Beer Fest in the South Cape. We love living in the Cape! Until next time...See you around the Cape!!!

SEPT 2014 CAPE ESCAPES

Reporter: Diane Kenney

Happy May everyone! Spring is here (unless it is really summer), trees are blooming and we are buying plants to add to our gardens. This is a totally different gardening environment than we are all used to. We have lost Marianne & Bob Cyr. They are headed back to their home in North Carolina. They were in the Cape just for 2 years for Bob's job. We will miss them! We have started losing a few from our group who are Headed back north. Some will be gone all summer, others will spend part of the next months traveling in addition to enjoying their time here. Recently Brenda Serbonich spent time in Italy and the Kenney's went to Jamaica. As usual here in the Cape, the Cape Escapes stay busy and have fun. Our April dinner was held at a new restaurant in the Cape-Hana Japanese Steakhouse. We had 20 at the hibachi grill. A fun, tasty and entertaining evening with the Kenney's, Rozums, Boothes, Rodenbaughs, Beringer/MacLains. Nice way to support a newer restaurant. No cooking involved on our part. The Cape Escape ladies met at Duffy's for lunch. Some getting together were Linda F., Theresa B., Elena P., Sarah A., Karen R., Susan B., and Lynn K. Later in the month we got together with the same group and the Chapmans to visit the hibachi grill again. We enjoyed dinner while watching the knives fly! The Cape Escapes still are seen at the golf courses, bocce ball court, trivia nights. Cocktails on the Cape, dinner/dance and other NRC events. We also have been enjoying some of the plays and shows at Barbara B. Mann and the Cultural Park Theater. We also had good representation at the Cardboard Boat Regatta. Our NRC club was very visible in our new T-shits. Kathy R. had her birthday in April and Linda F. celebrated on April 11th. May birthdays are Lou A. May 20, Maria V. & Marianne C. on May 23. Happy Birthday to all and we'll see you next month!

October 2014 LAUGHING GULLS Reporter: Vickie Sullivan

Can you believe how time is just flying by? It seems like I just get one report done and it's time for another. The Gulls had a great turn out at the Ladies Luncheon at Asia Buffet--Janis, LuAnne, Sandy, Lori, Barb, Loretta, Pam & Vickie. Janis, & Pam won a raffe prize and Barb won two. Way to go ladies. We had our March potluck at LuAnne & Mike's. The brisket and chicken was delish. Thanks for hosting. Bob, Tina, Peter, Sandy, Sully & Vickie attended the March Madness Dinner/Dance. A great time was had by all. Bob, Lori, Mike, Barb, Jill, Sully & Vickie attended Cocktails on the Cape at TP Hoolihans. We had 11 Gulls attend the April General Membership Meeting. Our April potluck was hosted by Peter & Sandy. Having a brunch potluck was a nice change of pace. We will miss you two when you head up north. I can't tell you all the details so you will have to ask Bobbo how his fishing trip with John went. I can tell you that Bobbo went above and beyond to help John so he would not lose his hook. We just wish that John had quit laughing long enough to get pictures. Congrats to the NRC for another great showing at the Cardboard Boat Regatta. It was a great time and so nice to see everyone in their red shirts and cute sailor hats. It has been a pleasure serving on Boards 96 & 97 and good luck to those serving on Board 98. I know you will do great things and have as much fun as I did. The Lady Gulls are having their first "Tops Down" get together the last week of April. I call it the "Topless Club" tee hee. Now that I have your attention, we are talking convertible cars. Gotcha. Everyone is so busy I don't know how we had time to work. Hope everyone can attend the On the Road Again Dinner/Dance, Ladies Luncheon at Hurricane Grill and Cocktails on the Cape at The Moorings. Until next time--remember GULLS JUST WANT TO HAVE FUN!

NOV/DEC 2014 BEACH BRATZ Reporter: Babz Maxwell

As you know, our daughter and granddaughter have been staying with us. And you also know we have a dog, so many evenings when "Crap paw" walks Meggie, we make it a family event. I recently purchased a pair of high powered headlamps for my nighttime shelling excursions, and, seeing as how our we don't have sidewalks, I wear one so I can be seen and not squashed like a bug as we walk on the street. And it's entertaining for pointing out palm trees and possums to the 3 year old. Well one night they all went on a walk without me, and Jen wore the lights. She came home with the strangest look on her face, and said, "Mom, I need to tell you something." Sentences that start like that are never a good sign. Anyway, she tells me she's wearing this, looking around in yards and stuff, and she sees GLITTER everywhere! Now MOI thinks she knows where daughter is going with this, and razzing me about my glitter fetish. But NOOOO...Jen is seeing purplish-teal glitter EVERY-WHERE and can't figure out what's the deal. Then she sees some in the road ahead and goes up to investigate. Turns out the "glitter" littering all our yards are the eyes of WOLF SPIDERS! Now you all know I LOATHE spiders, and I was HORRIFIED. Which meant I HAD to go out and see for myself! Let me tell you, folks, ignorance is BLISS. What I saw will haunt me FOREVER. Our yards are literally FULL of these creatures, and worse yet, it's apparently MAT-ING SEASON, as all the females had hundreds of BABIES on their backs, and THEIR EYES glowed like a big ole DISCO BALL on the mommy's butts! I am NEVER going out ANYWHERE without hipwaders! This will be my NEW LOOK. I wonder if they come in Hello Kitty....Moving on to other news,. Shari Hively and Konrad Hufnagle, we are glad you are on the mend, and John Harrington you are in our thoughts and prayers. We want to wish Konrad, Lisa and Jack Andrejko, and Micha Millet a happy May birthday. We had a wonderful potluck at Bill and Pam Skarnikat's home, and will be enjoying the hospitality of Mike and Kathy Nelson in May. Wishing our snowbirds safe travels back north, and until next month stay FAB u lous!

JANUARY 2015 CORKSCREWERS

Reporter: Leslie Vaughan

The Corkscrewers are having an incredibly busy spring! We were so swamped by activities that we almost missed St. Patty's Day, but managed to work in a fantastic Corned Beef Night at the Wallick's house. Mitch and Aimee supplied all of the corned beef, cabbage and potatoes and the rest of us added to the main course by bringing dishes to share and round out the meal. It was a great evening. Several of us took a walking tour in Matlacha. That's such a quirky and fun place, how can you help but enjoy a day like that? Also in Matlacha, Jeff went on the kayak tour. They saw dolphins, but the manatees were a little shy on that windy morning. Some of our men have been going to the driving range and hitting buckets of balls. I don't think Jordan Spieth has anything to worry about, but they report having a good time. Speaking of golf...a few of our folks went one Sunday morning and played miniature golf. From what I've been told, the best part of that particular outing was the 9th hole. I remember hearing something about cocktails being served there...:-) Aimee and Gail went to the Lake Kennedy Center for a ballroom dancing class. They say they received a very warm reception from the members there. Aimee and Linda went to The Painted Conch and created really amazing peacock paintings. They were truly great works of art! Those two are so talented! We are continuing our Corkscrewers Ladies Lunches and coffee get-togethers. Our last lunch was at Monkey Bar. We're also having monthly dinners to celebrate birthdays and anniversaries. We enjoyed a wonderful dinner at Slate's recently. A few of us are still enjoying trivia and game night. We're a really active and fun group! Next up for our group is dinner in Fort Myers and an evening seeing the show Whose Under Where. The last potluck was at Janice's home, and a lovely time was had by all! In anticipation of our 2 year anniversary with the NRC, one of our people picked up some literature on The Social Club. We're having such good times we want to be sure and continue the fun!

FEBRUARY 2015
FABULOUS FLIP FLOPS
Reporter-Diana Simpson

Many of us have been enjoying bocce, bowling, Cocktails on the Cape and the monthly dance. We look forward to more of the same this summer! Our April pot luck was held at Jerry and Joann Devine's house. It was the last hurrah for several snowbirds in attendance. We will miss them until we meet again. Some of us also enjoyed kayaking with the NRC, the Del Prados, and music at Cape Harbour. Many of us also had a blast at the cardboard boat races. How much fun was that? Congrats to ALL of the NRC friends who dedicated hours to the fabulous NRC Minnow and Little Buddy!

MARCH/APRIL 2015 FUNSEEKERS Reporter: Julie Green

This has been a very busy month for many of the Funseekers! We would all like to thank Vaune for leading us and Debbie for reporting all our news for the past year-it was very much appreciated! Kay writes that she and Randy had a great time dancing the night away to music provided by The Del Prados at the Cape Coral Yacht Club. They were joined by Rex, Anne, Terry and Dana. Anne has been named as our new group leader and she got right to work organizing activities for us! Anne writes that she and Rex had a great trip to Key West with very smooth sailing on the Key West Express. She says that Cocktails on the Cape at Houlihans was great fun and was attended by Anne, Rex, Debbie, Bob, Donna, Dave, Bob and Gretchen. Big shoutout and much thanks to Rod and Theresa who hosted our March potluck-everyone had a great time and it was nice to catch up with the snowbirds before they flew back up north! Kathy writes that she is on a 30 day cruise in the middle of the Pacific Ocean on her way to Tahiti and Bora Bora, Meanwhile John is enjoying (not!!) the extended winter weather in Rochester while visiting his daughter! Bob and Cyndi write that we haven't seen much of them in the past month because they are happily hosting their daughter and 2 grandchildren for 3 weeks. After that they are all going to Disney World for a week. She says they will need a week of sleep afterwards to recover but they are loving every minute of it!! Bob and Debbie had a very busy month. They went to Boca Raton with a group of friends in their Corvette club (some from the NRC) and visited the Morikami Japanese Gardens. They were beautiful and a must see if you ever get to go. They then met up with their niece and nephew - in - law who live on that Coast. They had a great visit. The next day they went to the Cars of Dreams Museum in Boca Raton. This is a private car museum opened to the public twice a year for charity events. It had a Coney Island Theme and over 150 cars. It was wonderful. Bob continued to help with the boat building for the Cardboard Boat Regatta. Debbie got to meet up with a friend from Buffalo for lunch in Port Charlotte. It was great seeing her after almost a year. They went to the Historic River District for the monthly car show. It was a lot of fun and met up with Bob and Carol from the Funseekers. They visited Boca Grande on a cruise out of Punta Gorda. Debbie's Aunt and cousin from Buffalo came for a visit and they enjoyed catching up with both of them. Her Aunt had it on her bucket list to come see Deb's dad one more time. They took another trip to West Palm Beach and met up with her niece again and then went to the Barrett Jackson Car Auction and visited City Place. It was a great little get away. They were able to meet up with some friends who live and visit Florida from their Corvette Club in Buffalo for the afternoon. They are truly enjoying living in Paradise. Jeff and I had lots of fun at the March dinner dance with Anne, Rex, Terry, Dana, Elegra, Jim, Rod, Theresa, Bob, Cyndi, Kathy and John. We hosted our last NRC new member socialit was great fun to meet all the "newbies" over the past 6 months. Bob and Cyndi brought their granddaughter Elizabeth to my storytime at the library and it was so special to have them there with me!! That's all for this month -it sounds like we're all enjoying the good life!!

July/August 2015 HULA HOOTERS Reporter: Alan Poland

Well, as many visiting snow birds flock north to their houses in the trees and mountains, the resident Hula Hooters are burrowing in for summer fun in the sunny sand under the palms. It has been a busy month with lots of fellowship enjoyed by the Hooters who play trivia Wednesday evenings at Overtime, and Friday afternoons at Nemo's. As more Hooters show up to drink and play trivia, our team is doing better rising from last to second place and back to seventh place with lots of laughs as some Hooters had to leave early. Hooters Sandy Smith and Sonia Norenberg got confused and ended up in the news, when they went to the ladies luncheon on Matlache a week early. A NBC crew filmed them commenting on the plans for dock repair. The Hooter TV stars were viewed as far north as Pennsylvania. Bob and Marie hosted a beautiful wedding at the Yacht Club for their daughter, Lori and her beau Chris. Two dozen Hooters showed up to drink and dance the night away. Bob surprised his daughter and family by playing "The Prayer" on the violin he had not played for years. A good flock of Hooters showed up to Hoot on the Cardboard Boat Regatta. Several of our flock worked hard to get the cardboard ready to float.

September 2015 CORAL CAPERS Reporter: Kim Garrity

This past month, the Beach Bar Babe's got together at Masterpiece Mixers for a paint party. We celebrated Frankie's and Kim's birthdays there while painting wine glasses, we had fun. Janet and Gary, as well as Mark and Julie, checked out and cheered on the NRC boats at the Cardboard Boat Regatta, Great job NRC! Mark and Julie hosted this months potluck, there were about 15 of us there. We had great food and a good time, thank you very much.

Nauti Crabs are as busy as usual. One more shout out to Bob Hayden for his great job on the t-shirts and name tags. It is not a job for the weak and we are very thankful Bob took on the task. If you noticed smoke in the skies over Ft. Myers it was the phone line burning up from credit card swipes. Nauti Crabs women went on a shopping extravaganza searching out all their favorite stores they have discovered and shared with each other. Look out Naples we are on the path to your local next. Now the men could not be singled out and made their way to some watering holes in North Ft. Myers. All in all a great time. Nauti Crabs are cleaning up the bowling alley gutters - I mean lanes and having a blast working towards better scores than the previous week. Quiet an accomplishment for most. and then there is Bocce - well for the most part the get together dinner after makes up for the lack of talent on the court. Less we say we still have fun and don't take either seriously. Nauti Crabs take up most of the beach for the sunset celebration. If you haven't attended you are missing out. Our gals can even dance to bluegrass music and no sunset can be forgotten without a dance on the beach. The potlucks are in full swing and we Crabs enjoy our food, beverages, and conversation. Who knew you could have so much fun meeting people from all over the United States. Stay posted Nauti Crabs are about to converge on Key West - the fun

NO EGRETS
By Nancy Cohen

It was another fun-filled month for NoEgrets! FIVE of this lucky group (Jeannette, Lori, Lea, Rosemary, and Ollie) won door prizes at the Ladies' Luncheon to start off the month. Rosemary and Ollie looked lovely in bonnets. The following night, we won for the third time at Nemo's Trivia! We had a fantastic time at Cate and John's potluck where we celebrated Denise and Bill's birthdays. At the March Madness dinner dance, Raylene won a gift certificate to Cactus Jack's. She and Larry put out the Facebook call and their maraca shaking friends Lori, Jeannette, Claude, and Juelene joined them. Raylene, Larry, Jeannette, Claude, Sharon, Nancy, Tina and Micah went to Island Café the next week to eat, drink, enjoy the band, and watch the sunset. We met another new couple at Cocktails on the Cape when we asked them to join us. This is becoming the norm for NoEgrets. Everywhere we go we seem to welcome someone new into our group. Sunset Celebration was a wet one, but those who stayed were rewarded with a beautiful sunset and more new friends. Trivia became so popular with our group that our team became "hereforthebeer" and we came in third but had great fun. Weekly bocce continues to be a favorite activity, and it has nothing to do with the fact that it is always followed by drinks and dinner. Not a fan favorite up to this month, Johnny and Larry went to the Men's Breakfast and had a nice time. Maybe more men will join them next month. Lori started something new this month that has to become a "thing." She invited the ladies of the group to a brunch at her home. What fun! We came up with a great list of activities to do together. Maybe we'll even invite the men to join us! Haha Finally, we enjoyed a Mexican themed potluck at Barb and Bob's where we sampled everything from nachos to enchiladas to tres leche cake. In the future, look for: Book Club, Bus trip to Sarasota, Moonlight Celebration on the full moon at the beach, Snacks and Sips at members' homes, Dinner, drinks, and music around town, Wicked Water Wonders (on members' boats), Kayaking, Activism And anything else that strikes our fancy NoEgrets, remember to tell Ron that you would like to be added to our Facebook page. It is the easiest way to keep up with all of our fun and to see the great photos members post.

NRC MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

May 2016 Pay McCoy President, Board 98

Greetings New Resident Club Members and Graduates!

I am excited to be your Board 98 President! Board 98 is here to serve you and help ensure that you have opportunities to learn about our community, offer activities for you to participate in and make new friends! After all, that is why our club exists!

It is through the efforts of Club members volunteering for Board positions that we continue to provide YOU with opportunities to make new friends and enjoy a wide spectrum of activities. I hope you will join me in thanking Frank Catanese and the Board 97 members for their dedication and efforts to this wonderful club of ours. Board 97 and Board 98 spent the month of April working together to ensure a smooth transition. The members of Board 98 are ready to assume the helm! This is YOUR club and we want to hear your ideas and suggestions. I encourage you to speak with any of the Board 98 members and share your thoughts. Together, we will continue to make our club the best ever!

We are a very active social club! This was never more evident than during the Cape Coral Cardboard Boat Regatta on April 16. Under the leadership of graduate NRC members, Pat Wood, Robin Rollinger and Al Denslow, the NRC created 2 superb entries – the SS Minnow and the Taxi – both of which raced multiple times. An outstanding showing from our NRC members, dressed in red t-shirts and white sailor hats screaming loudly and singing the Gilligan's Island theme song, ensured that the NRC won the Team Spirit Award! Outstanding job!! A special thanks to all those who helped build and for Pam Beck and her crew for coordinating the fund raiser! I am excitedly looking forward to next year's boat build!

Finally, Memorial Day is May 30. Many of us will be enjoying a long weekend with family and friends. The weekend, however, holds special meaning for many of us. I, like many of you, have lost loved ones who served our country with pride and dedication. Without these brave and courageous men and women, our lives would be so very different. Not everyone takes the oath to defend our country. For those that have, I am eternally grateful. Please take a moment to thank a veteran for their service to our country. Have a safe and relaxing Memorial Day!

Looking Forward to Friends, Fun Times and Laughter!
