November 2013 Tropical Transplants Reporter-Sharrie Killion

Farewell NRC By Anna Shimp

Cape Coral, the Tropical Transplants are here.
We have come from far and near making a move so bold,
Men and women young and old.
The NRC pulled us together.
The Tropical Transplants only made it better.
Tropical Transplants we have found,
With Gabe to lead us all around.
What an awesome job she does;
She never grumbles she just DOES. We golf, we eat, we craft and play and eat.
New friends we make whenever we meet.
And then, we stop and again to eat.
Like a family we each other support holding down our tropical fort.
In winter we are many, in summer a few.
The Tropical Transplants never sit and stew.
The beach, the shelling, the fishing, the golf and eating too
So little time so much to do.
It's good to live in Paradise.

December 2013: Suns of Beaches Reporter: Linda Halliburton

Did you know you can make a strong gallon of sun tea in about 30 minutes in this SWF sun? Lookout Starbucks! We have some snow birds back with us. Ron & Ruth have the northern home on the market preparing to be Pelicans. They bought a motor home over the summer and traveled the NE. They both decided to shed a few pounds before returning to us. They look great! Our leader, Ray, has taken a part time security job. He looks a lot better in his badge and uniform than when he, Pat & Rick crashed the ladies luncheon. Nancy was a raffle winner at the Ladies Luncheon. Nancy & Linda did not dress up for the Hideous Dress Revue but we sure got a big laugh out of those ladies (especially Leslie Schmitt). Thinking of funny clothing, have you seen Pat Woods lucky sox at Bocce Ball? How's that working for you, Pat? Linda hosted our Oct. Pot Luck. We only had 9 but we had some good laughs. If Wally asks if you want to see some new tricks he just learned just say NO. Remember last year Shirley & Wally I had a bazillion kids weddings from here to Utah? Guess what! Those kids are starting to reproduce. Shirley shared a black & gray photo from her iPhone that looked like a comma. She was laughing to hard and said that is her new grandchild. Wow!!! Our dear friend, Dean had had some major surgery after getting a new physician. He had two crushed disc ad a mass on his spine. He said Karolyn is holding him captive. Seriously, keep Dean & Karolyn I your prayers. Ray, Shirley & Linda are ending our positions on Board 96. We have mixed emotions as we step down. It has taken all three of us plus Nancy, Karolyn and Wally to be successful. Thanks to all.

MARCH/APRIL 2014 PARADISE FOUND Reporter: Page Flournoy

Thank you to Michelle for organizing a small birthday get-together for a few of the Paradise Found ladies to celebrate Cathy Harper's birthday! We shared stories about our fun/busy and in some cases, recovering from surgery summers. Fred went to a Marine Corps picnic. Nita, Page and Fran went to the Hideous Dress themed Ladies Lunch. Too much fun! Then a few of us got together for sunset cocktails at the Boat House mid month with Lone and Chuck, Fred and Nita, Jill and Peter, Bruce and I and some Beach Bratz friends. Jill and Peter told us they sold their home in New Hampshire and have bought a home in Cape Coral, and he's retired. We're hoping we'll see more of them! Shirley and Wally are now proud grandparents to a beautiful Baby girl and went to visit her. We're lucky they have returned, as the Haunted Cape Coral Dance would not be the same without them! Our table at the dance is growing too since Bonnie and Mac are returning. I can feel the momentum build as our snow birds return. The drums are beating! There's talk of pot lucks! As I wind up a wonderful year on the board, Bruce continues as Past President Advisor and Bonnie and Mac become our Raffle Chairs. I'm pretty proud that our little group has jumped in to make this club so special. Go Paradise Found! BELOW -PARADISE PELICANS

Paradise Pelicans

July/Aug 2014:

PARADISE PELICANS

Reporter Virena McElheney

Cooler temps and dryer air are a welcome part of living in the Cape, so bring it on. October is a great month for the Pelicans because 16 of us went on a Carnival Cruise from Miami to the western Caribbean. What a wonderful way to get to know your fellow members than to spend a week on a ship with them. We had ports of call at Cozumel, Belize, Isle Roatan Honduras, and Grand Cayman. We also celebrated Ed and Nancy's birthdays with Ed's at Miceli's and Nancy's on our cruise. Of course our potluck was spectacular, and we had a wonderful hostess, Grace. As everyone knows, at the end of October we have this wonderful event to attend in the dinner dance "Haunted Cape Coral" which everyone is looking forward to. Until next time, see you around the Cape.

SEPT 2014 CAPE ESCAPES

Reporter: Diane Kenney

We've all been enjoying a slight lowering of temperatures and lowering of humidity with the fall season. Both have really helped those who are out on the golf course. It is also wonderful to welcome back our Snowbirds - Theresa Beringer & John MacLean. I think that they are one of the few Snowbirds in our group. Most of our active members are here year round, except leaving the Cape for many fun trips! The Cape Escape ladies got together for their Ladies Lunch at El Azteca Taqueria. Always ready for Mexican food! Some of those enjoying Tacos, Huaraches and Sopas were Theresa Beringer, Susan & Leonard Brown, Andrea Casti, Lynn Kaden and Diane Kenney. Leonard always loves coming to our luncheons. After he is no longer the Photo Historian for the NRC, we hope he will still join us. November 1st was time to Fall Back. The time change came at a good time. Gave us all an extra hour to recover from our Halloween weekend. Hopefully the kids had as good a time as the adults. We had a spooky good time at John (JP) Puhek's on the 30th for our Halloween Costume Party. This was our monthly Pot Luck. John, our host, was dressed as a terrorist (he didn't have to drive there so he was safe from the authorities). Herb Kenney came dressed as an Incident Commander in his camouflage and orange vest and defused JP. Sara and 15

Lou Appelman were dressed as Mrs. Jelly and Mr. Peanut Butter Sandwich. Theresa Beringer came as a pretty witch & John MacLean as a warlock. Diane Kenney was a Mexican peasant. Also there enjoying all the food and festivities were Linda & Dave Fairley and Dolores Walters & Carl Limmer. Our Hosts for November will be Lynn Kaden and Jim Fitzgerald. We still have our travelers - The Browns to Houston, the Kenneys to Vail, CO and to Canton, OH to see their daughter's new home and the Rozum's to Minnesota. We only had one October birthday - Lynn Archey on 10/20. In November we will be recognizing Herb Kenney (11/6), Janet Dayton (11/&), Sara Appelman (11/17),

October 2014 LAUGHING GULLS

Reporter: Vickie Sullivan

Don't know about you, but I have certainly enjoyed the cooler mornings and days with less humidity. Can't believe that Thanksgiving is right around the corner and Christmas is right behind it. The Gulls have been keeping busy and loving every minute of being here in paradise. We had ten ladies that attended the luncheon at Water City Grill and showed off their lovely hats: Loretta, Pam, LuAnne, Sue, Janis, Barb, Margriet, Lori, Tina and Vickie. It was a good raffle day for the Gulls: Pam, Janis, Barb, Margriet all got a gift. Vickie lucked out and got two! Tina, Bob, Loretta, Cindy, Rick, Sue, Larry, Vickie and Sully all attended the Man Cave Dinner Dance. We had a great time. Lori, Bob, Janis, Barb, Mike, Jill, John, LuAnne, Mike, Vickie & Sully all attended Cocktails on the Cape at Micelli's. Some of the Gulls enjoyed dinner at Island Cafe on Matlacha to welcome Peter back. He came to get the house opened up and Sandy will be back by the time you read this. We are glad you guy are back with us. Bob and Tina had a birthday celebration for Bob's mom Margaret. She turned 102, what an amazing milestone.

Hopefully you saw the nice write up in the Cape Coral Breeze. Some of the Gulls enjoyed a day out on the water with Banana Bay Tours for a Dolphin Cruise. We had a great turn out: Jill, John, Barb, Mike, Pam, Gordon, LuAnne, Mike, Lori, Tish, John, Janis, Vickie and Sully. Rained on us a little but fortunately nobody melted. We had 18 Gulls that attended the October General Membership Meeting. Vickie won two raffle prizes and LuAnne won the grand prize -- the boat rental. Congrats LuAnne. Pam,

NRC Group News

Tina, LuAnne and Vickie had a blast shopping for dresses for the Hideous Dress Revue luncheon at The Monkey Bar.

Jill, Liz, Loretta, Tish, Lori, Barb, Susanne, Pam and Vickie attended the luncheon. It was a HOOT! I don't know how long it will take us to get over the sights we saw there, we may be scarred for life. Jill, Pam and Vickie won a raffle prize. Tina went out to California to visit her grandson (and the rest of the family). John and Janis spent some time up north. We had Gulls enjoy a prime rib dinner at Coconuts, attend the sunset celebration, play Bocce Ball and attend the Pirate Fest on Fort Myers Beach. We celebrated our October birthdays at Island Cafe. Happy Birthday to Bob L (7th) and Marcia (8th). Hope to see everyone at the Haunted Cape Coral Dinner/Dance and Cocktails at the Italian American Club. I just want to say thank you to everyone for their support while I served as 1st Vice President of the NRC. I really enjoyed it. Until next month: GULLS JUST WANT TO HAVE FUN!!

NOV/DEC 2014 BEACH BRATZ

Reporter: Babz Maxwell

We, the pelicans, have endured summer in the Cape. So WHAT, you say? Well, let me tell you, snow breath, I mean, birds. We didn't know it could rain this much outside the Amazon Rainforest. In one afternoon. In one hour. We can't say the word "no-sees-ums" without cussing, and our homes are full of lizards. The lizards are okay, because they eat those large spiders with the webs you can floss with, but we are weary of tripping over all the snakes. We can get home without the aid of GPS at least 85% of the time, and park like true Floridians. Example: Up north, if you managed to snag a spot close to the door of Wal-Mart, you did the dance of joy and considered buying a lottery ticket. Here, in summer, we don't give a flying cow flop about how close we get. All those spaces are filled with the hastily discarded shopping carts of psychos who carelessly back out in front of us, anyway. No, the savvy shopper is looking for the lone scraggly tree in the berm that offers that one square inch of shade. I'm not saying it's hot in the car, but I can bake a pizza and brew a pot of tea in the front seat while buying a book of stamps and a six pack of Ensure at Walgreens. I've baked cookies on the dashboard, but they tend to burn....And my bare thighs on black leather seats smell like bacon, but are now magically free of unsightly cellulite. The changing of the guard comes this month, with Leslie and I stepping down from Board 96. Tina, poor schmuck, lost a bet, and is staying on. Frank will be our new Prez, and as his secretary, Sue will record every historical detail. Snowbirds, you've no idea the chaos I've managed to create as the undisputed Queen of Ladies Luncheon. The Redheaded Witches costume shop said I was singularly responsible for depleting them of their entire inventory of tiaras. (true story) Unfortunately, I must bow out in disgrace, as I have also become known as "She who sheds..." I am no longer allowed within 500ft of a store selling glitter or feather boas. And the Yacht Club now requires a cleaning deposit for any NRC function Babz attends. ☺ ... But I went out in SPECTACULAR form with the Hideous Dress Revue. Check out my FB video with our NRC Divas sashaying down the runway. We were FAB U LOUS. But, enough about MOI. (not really) Temps are dropping and snowbirds are migrating back to Paradise. I, for one, am thrilled, as I am tired of writing about the same 10 people and they could all use a break. I need fresh meat. And I will be watching you... I would write about the wondrous adventures of Frank and Connie schlepping through Italy, but Frank has been bragging - er, blogging about it, so you already know. Not that I'm envious, mind you, but I hope they return with 20 extra pounds of fettuccini on their thighs! Yeah. That'll teach 'em. Joy Ault, so glad you're back, but please take care of yourself. You don't need to go to such extremes to get attention from us. Speaking of attention, Teri (and company) came up with yet another excuse to party (i.e. get snookered), so we now have a monthly birthday club. October birthdays are Dennis Fleming, John Harrington, Mavis Huffnagel, Teri Martin, Bill Skarnikat, and Ross Winchel. Congratulations on living another year, and don't forget that annual colonoscopy!. I think it only fair that, in order to get cake, the birthday boys/girls must admit their age, weight, and cholesterol level. Just to keep things interesting. Bruce and Page Flournoy were foolish enough to announce they would host our Oct. potluck and cook steaks. We were all over that like hair on a Yeti. I didn't even know that many Bratz were in town! But it was GOOD! We sported our teams' colors at the man-cave dance in Sept., and thumbed our noses at everyone else's. And speaking of sports, as I write this, my hubby's Cubbies ran roughshod over the Pirates and the Cardinals, and are now hurtling into the NLCS to destroy the Mets. Folks, this is NO SMALL DEAL. I have LONG said that IF the Cubs were to actually WIN the World Series, there is NO GREATER SIGN of the Apocalypse. Monitor this very closely. We managed to escape Hurricane season with only a tiny skirmish with Erika, and we DIDN'T die. But this Cubs anomaly....Be VERY afraid. I'm not saying Hell will freeze over, but I saw a blurb on the internet about sno-cone machines being installed in the lobby. Best get your affairs in order, jjust in case. BUT in the meantime. Stay FAB U LOUS!

JANUARY 2015 CORKSCREWERS

Reporter: Leslie Vaughan

Corkscrewers are continuing to have fun and busy times! October was an especially busy month for us. We had a dinner to meet and greet the mother of one of our members. I think she'd heard about us, and wanted to see for herself if everything she'd heard about us was true! A lovely evening was had by all who attended. Our ladies got together at Mangia Bene, which was nice. Our friends Pat and Tom Dillard are hosting a Texas BBQ soon. (Cowboy boots and hats optional!!!) We always have a monthly celebration dinner to honor all who have birthdays and anniversaries during the month. We also plan to give Duffy's a try soon, now that it's open. Late in the month, several of us are taking a week long Western Caribbean cruise. We love cruising!!! Worth noting (and bragging about!) is that our small but mighty group won the trivia game at Ocean Breez this week! Kevin, Gail, Linda and Aimee pulled out the win at the last minute! Their winnings included a few shots and a nice $25.00 gift certificate! Congratulations to our smart people!!! Probably the most important thing the Corkscrewers have done this month is participate in a 5K run/walk sponsored by Busey Bank. This fun family run was to benefit Lee County Coalition for a Drug Free Southwest Florida. This is a cause that has been supported by Mitch and Aimee Wallick for some time now, and it was our pleasure to be a part of it this year. Our group raised $400.00 for this very special cause. We've included our picture to prove that we all managed to finish!!! Who said retired people just sit around on the couch? Not us!!! Since it's November, please allow the Corkscrewers to wish all NRC members, friends and family a Very Happy Thanksgiving!

NRC Group News

MARCH/APRIL 2015

FUNSEEKERS

Reporter: Debbie Tkach

We certainly use the letters FUN in Funseekers. We had a lot going on this past month. Julie, Theresa and Debbie joined Jan and Lori from the Gulls and attended a Wine and Canvas. Our Picassos are hanging proudly in our home. Julie has even ventured off and done another painting. Terry, Julie, Joanne and Debbie attended the Ladies Luncheon at Water City Grille where we donned beautiful hats. Bob and Debbie joined some Gulls at the Half Way to St. Paddy's Trolley Tour. It was a great time. Speaking of great times, we had a wonderful time at the Pot luck hosted by Frank and Lil this month. 22 of us joined in on the festivities. Thanks Frank and Lil. 11 of us toured the Wicked Dolphin Rum Distillery and enjoyed sampling the "Adult Beverages" they offered. Many of us left with a bottle of their famous rum. 13 of us then went to Bubba's for dinner. Rex, Anne, Doris, Lisa, Theresa, Bob and Debbie joined in on the fun at Cocktails on the Cape at Miceli's this past month. It was beautiful sitting on the patio, even if it did rain a "little". Bob and Cyndi are finally back from there "Road Trip" They were gone 9 and ½ weeks, traveled to 19 different states and put on 9,300+ miles on their car. The best part was spending five weeks just outside Portland, OR spoiling their granddaughter and welcoming the arrival of their new grandson. It made the trip worth every mile! They had stops in Boulder, Park City and Salt Lake City on the way west, then Las Vegas, the Grand Canyon, Santa Fe, and a family wedding in Tennessee on the way home. When they hit Oklahoma it was the last of the lower 48 for Cyndi. Check another off the bucket list. Welcome back Bob and Cyndi and Congrats on the new addition to your family. Julie, Cyndi, Kay, Doris, Terry and Anne enjoyed the Ladies Luncheon at the Monkey Bar. Cyndi and Julie won raffle prizes and a HUGE shout out to Terry for her absolutely horrendous outfit!!! We have been told it was hysterical!!! A few of the men attended the Men's breakfast at the House of Omelets. Julie and Jeff went to New Jersey for their niece's wedding, where they kept their fingers crossed that Hurricane Joaquin would pass Jersey by. Luckily it did. It poured the morning of the wedding...but the rain held off for the ceremony and reception. Ended the night with Julie's sister, brother-in-law, Jeff and Julie stopping at Burger King in a limo. Great fun eating and drinking with the limo driver on the way back! Julie is looking forward to joining Board 97 as Hospitality Chair at the November meeting! Rod and Theresa went to Dallas for four days this month to visit Rod's son. They had a very nice time. Theresa's dad and step-mom came for a weeklong visit. It was a little pit stop for them on their way to Arizona for the winter. Bob and Debbie had friends visit for nine days from back home (Buffalo). During that time they went to Ft. Myers Beach, Cape Harbour, Bert's and took a day long excursion to Cabbage Key via a boat ride. They also played Bocce Ball. They had a great time. Before their visitors, they enjoyed the Pirate Festival with friends from the Gulls at Fort Myers Beach. Till next month.....

New Resident Club of Cape Coral

SUN RAYS

Reporter– Barb Swann

Although September was a short month, the Sun Rays managed to cram an awful lot of activities and fun into thirty days. Line dancing at the Dixie Roadhouse (thanks Cathy!) has become quite popular. You can expect to see more Sun Rays stompin' in the future. So many Sun Rays have commented on gaining weight, so many opportunities to wine and dine out with NRC events. Try the Line Dancing! Sun Rays have been out beating the pavement, shopping for hats and decorations for the Ladies Luncheon, or costumes for Halloween. Being new residents means most of us sold or gave away too many items before moving, so shopping has become a necessity. Look around, you're almost sure to bump into another NRC member. Elaine was gracious enough to open her home for hat decorating. Ceil, Linda, Tina, Barb, and Jane were busy with glue, glitter, and paste. Thanx, Elaine. The hats shown at the Ladies Luncheon, but, alas, none of the girls won a door prize. Maybe next time. Ceil and Rich sailed on the Key West Express, hope to hear all about it next month. Contact her for info. She also arranged a walking tour of Naples and lunch on Marco Island. Heard it was well worth the sore feet. Other tours of Edison and maybe downtown Ft. Myers to come. Game night at Anthony's was a success. Marlene, Barb, and Tina played Trivial Pursuit and realized how little trivia they knew. Comedy Night at Anthony's was a hoot. Over 84 NRC members were present, about ten of whom were Sun Rays. If I missed you, I apologize, but Jan, Dick, Bev, Louise, Barb, Tina, Jane, Nick, and Linda seemed to enjoy the food and entertainment. Lots of laughs. From Jane: "Some of us attended Comedy Night at Anthony's on the Boulevard last night. Oh my goodness, I laughed so hard my head hurt and my cheeks too. If you have the chance to go to a Comedy Night with this guy (Frank del Pizzo) being the comedian, you should. He is funny!" Many Sun Rays traveled this month, most were headed north, hoping to be back before the snow descended on the northern U.S. Jan, Dick, and Barb made brief trips to Minnesota, had to find out if thermometers still worked below 70 degrees. They did! Marlene visited friends and family and returned safely. Tina made a trip to New York to drop off her college-bound sons, returning to an empty nest and lots of NRC events to keep her busy. Several of the single Sun Rays attended a social for singles and were enthused about upcoming events. Watch for more details. Bev suggested a theater night: ten Sun Rays will be attending "Wake Me At Midnight" at the Cultural Park Theater. Watch for reviews. Don't give up on those raffle tickets: Marlene and Barb (finally) won something at the October NRC Meeting! You can be next! Yes, September's calendar was short, but filled to the brim with activities. Drop me a line and let all of us know the newsworthy events/activities.

HULA HOOTERS

Reporter: Alan Poland

There has been a lot of hooting going on around the Cape as the Hula Hooters have been busy building our nests and feathering them with new friendships during Hooter get togethers this past month. Colorful leis and name tags have been spotted at various watering holes. After the Hula Hooter naming potluck, a large group of leis hung out at The Boat House on September 22. Then we met for a social at Miceli's on October 14. We have found that Hooters are not shy about turnout, as many have been attending the socials. Next we will be invading the nest of our Chief Hooter Gary Eldred and his bride, Marne on Saturday, Oct 24th for a drop-in pumpkin carving / painting, college football watching afternoon before everyone heads to the dinner / dance at the Yacht Club. Our Halloween potluck is Tuesday, October 27, which will help to kick off our holiday festivities. There have been many Hooters leaving their nests and traveling north before the cold weather hits, but most now are starting to migrate back south. So should you happen to see someone hooting it up and wearing their lei, be sure to stop by and give us a HOOT.

CORAL CAPERS

Reporter: Kim Garrity

The newest NRC

group from September had their first get together on October 4th at the home of Mark and Sandy Magyar. The group voted on the name "Coral Capers" and are working on the group's centerpiece and possible name tags. We are looking forward to getting to know the members of our group and our next get together, which has been scheduled for Sunday, Nov-ember 8th 5:00 p.m. at the home of Jeanne Gorman.

NRC MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

November 2015
Frank Catanese
President, Board 97

Greetings Fellow NRC members,

I hope you will join me in thanking Bruce Flournoy and all of Board 96 for their dedication to this wonderful club of ours. Their outstanding stewardship through the last 6 months has provided a firm foundation for the NRC's future.

My wonderful wife Connie and I have been in Cape Coral for a little over a year now. We moved from way up north in New Hampshire with our cat Lexie. We loved the idea of warmer winters and having the ability to swim in our pool year round. We only knew our realtor at the time. In our first weeks we knocked on our neighbors doors and introduced ourselves. Then after a month or so I had the good fortune to run into a guy named Danny at Taco Bell. We talked a bit about motorcycles and he also mentioned the New Residents Club. He gave me his card which I put on my desk. Once the challenge of moving in and getting settled was over I went on-line and looked up the club. Within a week or so we were members. Shortly after we started making new friends. Here it's been less than a year and I feel like I've known these friends for a lifetime. They make being here so much more enjoyable. Helen Peck, the NRC's founder, certainly had a fantastic vision when starting this club and we are thankful to her for it.

Our incoming board, Board 97, will strive to maintain and hopefully improve the club where possible. We have been busy meeting with our counterparts on Board 96 during September and October learning our jobs so we can hit the ground running with a smooth transition.

Remember, this is YOUR Club. It's designed to help you make friends and have fun here in Cape Coral! We on Board 97 want to hear any suggestions or comments you may have to make the club better. Please reach out to us – email us, or grab us at the meetings, dance, or activities.

Thanks for the chance to give back to the club. I hope to exceed all your expectations!

Fair Winds & Beautiful Sunsets.

Frank Catanese
President, Board 97
